Wm. Murray, treasurer elect spent the early part of this week at the county seat, looking after the interest of his office.

Several cords of wood were cut by our town people and presented to Mr. Wm. Meylert, on Tuesday. The gift was very much appreciated by the recipients.

The Danville stove works were destroyed by fire on Tuesday night of last week, causing a loss of $50,000 and the throwing out of employment of 300 men.

Mrs. H. E. Van Fleet accompanied by her son Master Boyd Van Fleet, of LaPorte, are spending several weeks with friends at Fleetville, Lackawanna county.

A party of Bernice, regardless of the down pour of rain, drove over to LaPorte, on Sunday. There were six or eight couples and registered at the LaPorte Hotel.

The inauguration of Governor Pattison, will take place at Harrisburg, on Tuesday the 20th. How many of our Sullivan county friends will witness the affair?

The S. S. Simmons Post No. 477 will continue to hold their meetings at LaPorte. To change the place of meeting to Sonestown would require a new charter, hence no change will be made at present.

The fellow who predicted a mild winter had better join the one who announced that the Gulf Stream had changed its course, and start in search of McGinty, who is thought to be still at the bottom of the sea.

The fight with the Indians still continue. Our government officials are too big hearted; they should cut them down right and left and at the same time stop their supplies.

J. Donald Cameron will continue to represent us in the U. S. Senate, just as the REPUBLICAN predicted when the Phila. Press made its first attack on the Senior member. To knock Don out, was too big a job for even the Phila. Press to tackle with success.

To the Monroeton Enterprise—the LaPorte REPUBLICAN will not change hands for the next three years. With all the county advertising promised, we couldn't very well afford to exchange for cash just at present. Carry the news to the Dushore Review.

The New York Press is a daily paper of world renown. It is a strong advocate of Republican principles and perhaps has the honor of the largest circulation of any paper published in the U. S. It is a fearless sheet and guilty parties are made public in its columns.

A sanitarium at LaPorte would certainly prove a success. We doubt if a better location for a said institution could be found in the State of Pennsylvania. The brick house known as the Michael Meylert residence and is for sale, would make a first class building for this purpose.

The Sheriff of both Sullivan and Columbia counties will visit Jamison City in their official capacity, on Saturday next. Their object will be to expose at Sheriff Sale property owned by the Fishing Creek Lumber Company, consisting of a saw mill, logs and bark remaining in the woods and nearly all of the furniture in the large hotel at said place. The sale will be quite extensive and the officers will realize a good commission on the same.

Conductor Knipe of the W. & N. B. R. R., was a guest of the LaPorte Hotel, on Friday. Mr. K. has just returned from a trip to Philadelphia, where he spent a week or ten days receiving medical treatment owing to a mishap of having his thumb mashed while coupling cars at the "Y" a short distance below Nordmont, recently. During his absence Harley Edkin, baggage master on the road, served in the capacity of conductor and rendered the position well.

J. A. Jordan & Bros. bankers of Coleport, Clearfield county, will establish a bank at this place on or about the 15th of next month. They have secured the Flynn store building for this purpose in which is now located the post-office. Said office will be removed into the first building West of the present location known as the Meat Market, shortly. Mr. Jordan spent several days at LaPorte last week and was quite favorably impressed with our town. He informs us that he shall make a specialty of loaning money on good security and does not care for deposits. The Bank will be known as the "LaPorte Loan Bank." LaPorte will have the honor of the first Bank established in the county.

A young couple from Lopez, Pa., said to be a farmer's daughter and his hired man, registered at the Tioga hotel last Wednesday night, at about 2 o'clock, having come to Waverly on the late Lehigh Valley train. W. H. Spaulding was called to tie the knot, and a Rochester drummer was awakened, the bride refusing to accept the services of the colored porter as a witness. We are told that her father accompanied by her brother came to Waverly the next morning to find his daughter, but on learning that the eloping couple were married, returned home disgusted.—Waverly Press.

A party of young people of Du shore took a sleigh ride to LaPorte on Friday night last, and enjoyed a dance in the Hall and supper at the Mountain House. They were joined by a large delegation of young people of LaPorte on their arrival and the evening was immensely enjoyed by all present. Following is a list of those present of Dushore: Miss Effie Bowman, Miss Addie Honnetter, Miss Olie Brewer, Miss Libbie Utz, Miss Anna Mahaffey, Miss Belle Hunsinger, Miss Maud McHenry, Miss Jennie McHenry, Miss Mortor, Miss Fannie Kellog. Mr. Howard Walbridge, Mr. M. A. Scureman, Mr. Phillip Seamen, Mr. Charley Scureman, Mr. Gus. Wagner, Mr. Bayard Martin, Mr. Chas. Heverley, Mr. Maney Fairchild, Mr. Lewis Erb, and Mr. Harry Brewer.

To be on the safe side our patrons should have their deeds of real estate recorded. Only the other day a circumstance occurred in Northumberland Co which is evidence enough to prove that land owners by neglect of this important duty place themselves in a position that they can be forced to long and unpleasant litigation. The circumstance was as follows:

"An attorney of Milton while examining the title of a certain property at Sumbury the county seat of said county, discovered that the title so far as the records showed was still in the name of the former owner. Subsequently investigation developed the fact that the deed transferring the property to the present owner was destroyed in the fire of 1880. As the case now stands the owner has no papers to show his title to the property, and were it not for the fact that the original owner is still living and is willing to make another deed, the matter would be seriously complicated." Now the question suggests itself: are there any of Sullivan county tax payers in a similar position?

The county commissioners will hold an appeal at their office in LaPorte borough Pa., on the 19th and 20th of February, 1891, for the purpose of hearing such as feel themselves aggrieved by the assessments, and make such alterations as seem to them just and proper.

EVA HAMILTON AT HOME.
She Really Seems to Have Settled Down. Facts About Her Father.

A letter from Wilkes-Barre to a Philadelphia paper says Eva Hamilton seems a happy woman now. She is at her step-father's home at Dallas, Luzerne county. "Bill" Steele, her step-father, is about 60 years old, but the neighbors say he looks twenty years younger since Eva came home. After the Atlantic city assault on Mrs. Donnelly he started to walk to the seaside. He fell by the wayside before he had gone far. When he made known his mission a man paid his fare to Atlantic City, where he remained for some time. When Eva was released a month ago, Mr. Steele went to Jersey City and accompanied her to Pittston. She remained there with a friend for a day or two and then went to Dallas, where she joined the family. For many years Farmer Steele eked out a miserable existence on a small patch of land he called his farm. He had one cow, and the stable was an old, rickety affair, which let in the wind from all sides. Since Eva came home, however, things have changed wonderfully. There is a new gate in front of the house, and there is also a new stable. Instead of one cow there are two. Eva has discarded fine feathers and now dresses like all the other women in the neighborhood. Last week was the first time she left home since she came from New Jersey. She went to Scranton on a shopping tour.

It was eighteen years ago when Eva left that part of the country. For ten years nothing was heard of her. Then one day a man who was acquainted with the family and knew Eva very well, brought the news that while traveling in California he had met her in company with her husband. That was the last heard of her until the Atlantic City incident. It is said to be her intention to make her home permanently with her own people in Dallas.

A CANE FOR MR. HIBBARD.
Employee of the Short Line Present Him a Handsome Stick.

Sioux City Journal Jan. 3.

When George W. Hibbard leaves Sioux City and the Pacific Short Line, a few days from now, he will carry with him a handsome token of the good will and wishes of the force of employes who have worked under him since he has been traffic manager of that road. It is a beautiful cane, which was presented to him yesterday. About the middle of the afternoon, as he was sitting at work in his private office, the force of clerks in his department, headed by J. E. Gallagher, his private secretary, entered the room, and when Mr. Hibbard looked up in surprise at the unexpected call, Mr. Gallagher stepped forward and in a neat little speech presented an elegant gold-headed cane, the gift of the employes to the traffic department, including all the agents on the line. Mr. Gallagher spoke of the high esteem in which the honors held the gentleman who had been their chief, but who was soon to leave them. For the employes of the road, he wished Mr. Hibbard all success in his new position in the south, and assured him of their earnest regard.

Mr. Hibbard was taken completely by surprise, and was at a loss for a response. But he recovered himself and replied in a feeling little speech, assuring his friends of his appreciation of their kindness, and thanking them for the beautiful present. A general handshaking followed, and everybody agreed that in Mr. Hibbard the road was losing a splendid railroad man and a perfect gentleman.

The cane is a very fine one, with heavy gold head, which was engraved handsomely. Below the arrow and crow's wing trade mark of the Short Line were the words, "G. W. Hibbard, G. F. and P. A. From employes."
