NEW YORK, Jan 17 .- The event which has been expected for several days in the contest to break the will of Robert Ray Hamilton hapthe City hall pointed to twenty minutes to ten there were by actual count forty-one persons in the Surrogate's Court, nine of whom were women. The two women dressed in mourning who have been present E. Pattison was inaugurated as since the Hamilton will case has Governor of Pennsylvania to-day been going on were on hand as ususince the Hamilton will case has with imposing ceremonies. The city was thronged with strangers, and the parade was as attractive and as interesting as the most expectant could have desired.

It was two minutes after 19 when pectant could have desired.

It was two minutes after 12 when the Gubernatorial party came on to the platform amidst music by the band. As Governor Pattison came the legatee to prejudice the case or specific the contestant.

As early as ten o'clock the corridor leading to the Surrogate's Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, offered a fervent prayer in which he thanked the Giver of all good for the prosperity of this Commonwealth, its morals and its religion. He prayed fervently for the new administration and all incoming officers. At the conclusion of the prayer, Lieutenant Governor Davies who was acting as master of tain standing room.
