HILL'S'S SIGNIFICANT LETTER.

Declining to Attend a Free Trade Mass Meeting.

HIS LETTER HISSED AND CLEVELAND CHEERED.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Night before last there was a free trade mass meeting in Cooper Union. Jerry Simpson of Kansas was one of the speakers, and letters from David A. Wells and other prominent free traders were read and cheered. But the most significant feature of the entertainment was the reading of the letter of Governor David B. Hill.

Governor Hill was invited to attend the meeting and his letter declining the invitation is the most important political event of many months. In it the Governor-Senator says: "I am in receipt of your letter of March 28, inviting me to attend a 'free trade mass meeting,' to be held at Cooper Union on Thursday evening April 2. While thanking you for your courtesy, I cannot attend the meeting, because I have no sympathy with its professed purpose. I had supposed that my opinions upon the tariff question had been so frequently expressed in public that nobody could expect me to consistently attend a meeting intended to promulgate the doctrine of free trade. I am not an advocate of free trade, and never have been."

After affirming his devotion to tariff reform and his adherence to the Democratic policy as explained in the National platforms of 1876, 1884–8 he says: "I am earnestly opposed to the attempt which is now being made in some quarters to undermine the sound and conservative position of the Democratic party upon this question and to commit it irrevocably to the doctrine of free trade. The men who are engaged in this effort, no matter how honest or sincere they may be in their individual convictions, have no right to longer masquerade as true Democrats while seeking to commit the party to a policy which it has always distinctly repudiated."

The Governor asserts that "they greatly mistake public sentiment who assume to construe the revolution last autumn at the polls as a popular manifestation in favor of radical tariff legislation," and he adds that "only blind theorists could see in it any indication that the people are impatient of all tariffs, and desire a resort to direct taxation to secure the necessary revenues for the support of the Government." He concludes his letter by declining to support any movement "having for its purpose the adoption of any such suicidal policy as is sought to be promoted by the meeting to which you have invited me."

This letter was roundly hissed by the audience. Ex-President Cleveland, who, it is said, was not invited to attend the meeting was warmly cheered when his name was mentioned.

Scranton possesses a man who sold his wife and all the furniture of his house for $250. The delicate question is likely to rise, how much was the furniture worth, and how much was the wife.

Six hundred Italians have been landed in New York by six steamers in the past two days. If they belong to the Kill-and-do-Kwestion-Klub they had better be returned to Rudini.

BLAINE NOT IN A HURRY.

No Developments In The Italian Affair.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—There were no new developments in the Italian affair to-day, and the reviving interest taken in it on account of the alleged intention on the part of the Italian government to signalling display its resentment by ceasing to have any further diplomatic intercourse with the United States unless this government shall respond to the communication of Premier Rudini within such a period as the Italian Ministry is said to consider as the utmost limit which it can allow the American government for the making of its answer, has lapsed into a disposition to quietly await what the next two or three days bring forth.

There are very few persons who believe that anything startling will occur between now and Wednesday, and high officials are certainly incredulous as respects Italy's reported purpose to take such a hostile step as would be that of ordering Minister Porter from Rome. Even should such an usual and extraordinary movement be made, contrary to all expectations, it is said that it would probably not result in actual war, but in an almost complete severance of all relations between the two countries. It is regarded, however, as almost certain that it would result in a felling of indignation in this country which would seriously prejudice the prospects of favorable action by this country on Italian suggestions for reparation and indemnity.

There was nothing to be learned to-night in respect to the looked for answer of Secretary Blaine to the note sent by Marquis Imperiali, and Secretary Blaine had no information to communicate on the subject of the Italian incident.

Baron Fava Sails From New York Saturday on His Way to Rome.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Baron Fava, the Italian Minister at Washington, sailed for Europe yesterday morning on the French steamer La Gascogne. A number of prominent Italian citizens and some of the attaches of the Italian Consul's office were at the pier to see him off, but he did not show himself on deck at all. He will go direct to Rome.

The Baron went aboard the vessel Friday night, saying that he was not well. quickly retired to his stateroom, No. 61, and denied himself to all newspaper representatives. He had given explicit orders to the officers of the Gascogne that he should not be disturbed. His name was not printed in the list of saloon passengers.

The Italian Consul General Riva, of this city, and a few inmates called to pay their official respects.

Dr. M. C. da Silva, of Washington. one of the diplomat's closest friends, is a passenger on La Gascogne.

The Marquis Imperiali, at present in charge of the Italian Legation, was at the Metropolitan Club Saturday and seemed to be in the best of spirits. He chatted amiably with the army and navy officers and society men, who form the membership of the club, and dropped no hint that he had been ordered home or expected to be. If an ultimatum has been submitted to our government by Marquis di Rundini the fact is being carefully concealed.

ESTELLA ITEMS.

C. B. Jennings is building a large blacksmith and wagon shop. S. P. Shoemaker is doing the carpenter work.

William Pierce formerly of the LaPorte Hotel has engaged to work for Squire Bird for the next six months.

Rush Rogers has the largest lamb in the county for its age. It weighed on the day of birth twenty-one pounds.

X.

SONESTOWN ITEMS.

Dias Hess has moved to Ocdonia Camp.

Frank Magargle is home on a vacation.

Henry Hill has moved to a lumber camp on Rock Run.

Rob't. M. Simmons has commenced housekeeping in our town.

The Sonestown schools will hold an exhibtion on Friday evening April 17.

The 1st of April is past and some of our citizens were fooled and some were not.

Dr. J. F. Derr has settled in our town and you can see his sign next door to Lorah's store.

Jerry Holdren has been having a very severe attack of la gripp for about ten days and is a little better now.

Jos. Keiss moved to the farm he recently purchased near Hughesville—Villa Grove farm, formerly owned by Geo. Steck.

We notice Bodine & Warn are stocking up with general merchandise fuller than ever. They sell good goods at a fair price.

Jacob Lorah is closing out his stock of general merchandise at auction on each Saturday and desires to sell cheap on other days.

Geo. Honseknecht has moved to Glen Mawr and takes charge of the section of the W. & N. B. R. R. from Taylors Dam to Coursnas Lane.

We see that Geo. W. Simmons and Alex Hess are making headway with their new houses, both foundations are finished and the lumber and shingles on the ground.

Arthur Cook moved into the house vacated by Jos. Keiss, and since the 3rd of April Arthur wears a continued smile—cause, a fine little girl demanded their attention.

Samuel Eddy has resigned his position as station agent at Muncy Valley, and moved into our town. H. M. Rocker of Hughesville, takes charge of the Muncy Valley station.

Christian Swank has taken charge of the Dr. Rothrock farm, recently purchased by him and J. W. Anderson, he moved in the house vacated by John Banker—John moved to one of the Lorah houses on second street.

F. H. Tomlinson employed several men on Monday to take down the old Lyon saw mill, in this place, which he purchased of Jos. Heiss. Things will look much different when the old mill is away and the place leveled up.

On Wednesday evening the 8th of April a couple of detectives came into our town and arrested Wm. Painton on the charge of being the murderer of Mrs. Strominger below Harrisburg, on the night of March 31st. They escorted him to the Magargle House and there kept him until Thursday morning, when they took him on the first train to Harrisburg for a hearing. His trial will be in York county, where the deed was done.

S.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

Dr. W. B. Hill of LaPorte was in town Tuesday.

Hon. E. M. Dunham, of LaPorte, was in town Friday.

Sol. Friendly, of Elmira, is spending a few days in town.

Josiah Smith is having his residence on Carpenter street repainted.

John Scher Jr. and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Scher's people at New Albany.

Spring has come and garden making and house cleaning will soon be the order of the day.

The western part of the county was well represented among the people doing business in town Monday.

The Lutherans have already announced that there will be a picnic at this place for the benefit of their church on the Fourth of July.

Fred Rogers of Forksville, has entered the office of R. J. Thomson as a law student. Mr. R. is a young man of ability. He is a welcome comer to our town.

The Whist Club will give a grand reception in Garey's hall this Thursday night, the 16th. Besides a large number of guests have been invited from Lopez, Bernice, Monroeton, LaPorte and other places. It will be an elite affair.

Mrs. Mathew Burns, of Cherry, died on Sunday at an advanced age. Mrs. Burns was an old resident of Cherry township and her loss will be mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends. Funeral was held Tuesday. Burial at St. Basil's cemetery.

Everybody should take pains at this time of the year to clean the rubbish from their yards. No matter how homely the yard itself, it will be greatly beautified by being kept clean and orderly. A nice yard adds much to the appearance and enjoyment of home.

A, P. O. S. of A camp will be organized at this place on Wednesday the 22nd inst. The charter has been sent for with nearly thirty names on the list. This is a very good order and is growing in popularity very fast. Dushore will undoubtedly have an enterprising and flourishing camp.

Dushore is constantly becoming more and more of a trade center. A very large trade which formerly went to Towanda, Williamsport, and other places now comes to Dushore. There is now sharp competition in all lines of trade and therefore all goods are sold at a close margin, and in most instances purchasers will find it to their advantage to come to this place rather than go to the other places mentioned. Besides this we have a better market for farm produce.

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
