NEW ORLEANS JURY.

A Wholesale Indictment That Will Give Offense to No One.

NEW ORLEANS, April 19.—It is authoritatively learned here tonight that by the end of next week the famous report of the Grand Jury which is investigating the tragedy at the Parish Prison, and the result of whose labors has been so anxiously looked forward to, will be presented to the public.

The jury has been at work on the matter fully a month now, and a large number of witnesses have been examined from different walks in life. The Government at Washington in its correspondence with the Italian Government has not failed to impress upon the latter the fact that the Grand Jury of the State of Louisiana was the supreme authority as to whether there should be a prosecution or not, and the gentlemen of the jury, who are prominent leaders in the commercial and social interests of the city, are fully alive to the international aspect of the case.

The jury held its last session on Friday. On that day it adjourned until Tuesday morning. It is learned tonight that between 300 and 400 citizens will be summoned to testify before the jury when it meets on Tuesday, and that, when the testimony is all in, the jury will be ready to report.

Among those who are in the secret of the intention of the jury to summon so large a number of witnesses different theories as to the cause therefore are assigned, but the general impression is that these persons will be summoned to tell who were present in the crowd armed or unarmed, and tacitly encouraging the commission of the tragedy.

It will not be a difficult matter to obtain these names, and the result will be that the jury will return indictments, not only against the persons who led the movement and who signed the card calling the mass meeting, and those who were in the prison when the actual shooting was done, but against a very large number of citizens who were present. In other words, a very large proportion of the community, it is expected, will be wholesale indicted. It is felt that this would be the proper move, inasmuch as all who went down to the prison and morally supported the movement with their presence are equally guilty with those who were actual leaders and avengers. It is also stated on the very best authority that the report will be a sensational one in many respects, and that in the treatment of the tragedy by the jury New Orleans and its citizens will not be injured to any extent.

United States District Attorney Grant has not completed the report ordered by Attorney General Miller. —Press.

President Harrison's speeches in the South have produced one noticeable effect. The New York Sun is moved to praise and the Times of the same city finds nothing to criticize. This is not only eloquence but patriotism.

Secretary Foster says that neither Cleveland nor Hill are "in it" for the next Presidential nomination. The next Democratic nominee, however, is certainly in "it"—if "it" means "the soup."

Senatorial Apportionment.

In the House Wednesday morning Mr. Hays presented the report of the Legislative Committee on Senatorial Apportionment. The bill makes the following districts:

The first eight districts, Philadelphia; 9th, Delaware; 10th, Bucks; 11th, Berks; 12th, Montgomery; 13th, Chester; 14th, Lancaster; 15th, Lebanon; 16th, Lehigh; 17th, Dauphin; 18th, Northampton; 19th, part of Luzerne; 20th, Lackawanna; 21st, part of Luzerne; 22d, Carbon, Monroe, Pike, 23d, Bradford, Sullivan, Wyoming, 24th, Northumberland, Montour and Columbia; 25th, Tioga and Lycoming; 26th, Susquehanna and Wayne; 27th, Union, Snyder, Mifflin, Juniata, Perry; 28th, York; 29th, Cambria and Blair; 30th, Schuylkill; 31st, McKean, Potter, Clinton, Cameron; 32d, Cumberland and Adams, 33d, Huntingdon and Franklin; 34th, Clearfield and Centre; 35th, Westmoreland; 36th, Somerset, Bedford and Fulton; 37th, Jefferson and Indiana; 38th, Clarion, Forest and Elk; 39th, Butler and Armstrong; 40th, Fayette and Greene; 41st, 42d, 43d, 44th, 45th, Allegheny county; 46th, Washington and Beaver; 47th, Mercer and Lawrence; 48th, Warren and Venango; 49th, Erie; 50th, Crawford. Now let one and all get to work and have a general cleaning up all over town. The health of the town as well as local pride, should influence all to pitch in, not only in front of your premises, but in your back yards as well.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

Is your garden plowed? C. M. Corbin is remodeling his house on Railroad Ave.

A very pleasant party was given at the Dushore House on Monday night.

A heavy thunder storm came this way last Saturday—the first of the season.

Miss Allie Utz has returned from Waverly where she has been since New Year's.

B. Meeker has opened his confectionery and cigar store in Scouten's block.

There are about a dozen cases of measles in town. It is feared there will be an epidemic.

Farmers are very busy and therefore, trade is dull, and probably will be for the next few weeks.

The Whist Club reception in Garey's hall last Thursday night, it seems, was not very largely attended but those present report a good time.

A. E. Scureman had the two first fingers of his right hand bitten nearly off by a horse last Thursday. Dr. Herrmann dressed the hand and the fingers will probably be saved.

During the thunder shower Saturday afternoon the barn of James Fitzsimmons, about two miles northwest of town was struck by lightning and burned to the ground with a portion of its contents.

Harvey Eilenberger delivered a large amount of nursery stock in this vicinity within the past week. Mr. Eilenberger is the most successful salesman in his line who has ever traversed this section.

Among those from neighboring towns who spent Sunday with friends in Dushore were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waltman, Ambrose Farrell, and Albert Dyer, of Lopez; Fred Harvey and "Dick" Hannan, of Forkville; Thos. Cadden and Tom Kennedy, of Jamison City; Miss Annie Heating, of New Albany; J. M. Kennedy, of LaPorte, and H. G. Lewis of Towanda.

A subscription paper has been circulated and some $70 or more raised to put a powerful force fire pump in the Little Loyal Creek a short distance above the Main street bridge to which any amount of hose may be attached, to be used in springing the streets and in case of fire 4 or 6 men can be put on the pump and throw a stream to the top of the highest building.

A branch of the "Banyan Society" a six months insurance order has been instituted here with M. D. Swarts as secretary. This order promises very flattering results—$70 in six months for $37 paid in weekly and monthly installments. Those going in at an early date will probably get their money, but all can perceive that sooner or later it must collapse and those whose certificates have not matured will be the losers. Quite a number of the best business men of the town have invested and there are about 25 or 30 members in this branch.

FACARACUS.

Fifty Dollars For Her Love.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Ayers, a sprightly Mansfield widow who has passed the semicentennial of life, was the sorrowful plaintiff in a breach of promise suit before Judge Ewing score in which John Wesley Smith, a coal digger of three years and ten, was charged with shattering the future happiness of Mrs. Ayers to an extent unhealable by filthy lucre, but for which the disconsolate widow was willing to accept a momentary consideration. The amount was left to the discretion of 12 good men, to whom Mrs. Ayers told her tale of woe in a tearful manner that would bring fortunes to the young maidens who play the parts of disappointed sweethearts in stage comedies. The plaintiff was ably coached by Attorney Fitzsimmons, who met just as strong an adversary in A. D. Wilkins, the attorney for the fickle defendant.

For five short years it was stated that Mr. Smith had wooed and seemingly loved the plaintiff. He waged his devotion furiously until February, 1890, when, to the surprise of neighbors and grief of Mrs. Ayers, he deserted his fair affianced, and without provocation, married another. Since then the defeated widow has spent her time in mourning, but now she has thrown off the sackcloth and ashes and started out to seek revenge.

"I first met the defendant about five years ago," said the plaintiff. "I was introduced by a friend, who said Mr. Smith wanted a housekeeper to go in training to become his wife. I went to Mr. Smith with that understanding and was engaged by him with the promise that I should soon be promoted from servant to wife. That promise was renewed almost daily for the year and a half I remained in his house. He courted me all the time, and we had several wedding days fixed, but when the time came he always invented some excuse. The last time was on February 18, and when I asked him why he wouldn't fulfill his promise he said he hadn't money enough. I offered him $200, but he wouldn't take it. I then moved to another house about 100 yards away from his. He visited me at that place every day, and was there very near all the time. The last time he was at my house was on Wednesday. We had a long talk about marriage, and he again said he hadn't money enough. I renewed my $200 offer, but he still refused. The next Saturday he married another."

Mrs. Norton, a Mansfield lady, was called as a witness. She said: "I took Mrs. Ayers down to Mr. Smith when he was after a housekeeper. He told me if she was a nice, clean woman he would marry her. After Mrs. Ayers moved into her own house I visited her often and nearly always found Mr. Smith there."

"What were you doing at Mrs. Ayer's?" broke in Attorney Wilkins. "That is none of your business," was the startling reply. "Quite right," broke in Judge Ewing with a smile. "I was about to make the same ruling."

Continuing, Mrs. Norton said the couple at war always acted as if they were engaged. "Is that expert testimony," asked Attorney Wilkins, sarcastically. "I guess I know," replied the witness in a fiery tone. "I have been married twice. Once to a Dutchman and once to an Irishman, and I ought to know what love is."

Thomas Ayers, a son of the plaintiff, testified that his mother and Mr. Smith "sparked." That was all he knew. Mr. Smith denied emphatically having proposed to Mrs. Ayers. He said that the plaintiff frequently told him that he should get married, but he claimed that he always answered that when he did so he would get a wife of his own "suitin." He alleged that she offered him $200 to marry her, but this he refused.

As the case was about to go to the jury, Mrs. Ayers, remembered that she had an engagement ring that had been given her by Mr. Smith. The defendant did not deny giving it to her. The jury gave a verdict of $50 for the plaintiff.

With Bradford, Wyoming and Sullivan as the 23d Senatorial district, the hopes of the aspiring Democratic politicians will be nipped in the bud.

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tone. Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unmusical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
