Italy wishes to incur the expense of a Board of Arbitrators, with the Czar as umpire, touching matters connected with the New Orleans affair. The popular impression in the United States is that Secretary Blaine settled that matter some days ago.

Wilful and malicious lies always go home to roost, and the indications now are that the outrageous falsehoods told by the Democrats about the McKinley tariff act will do that party a great deal more harm in 1892 than it did them good in 1890.

This country will not probably half-mast its flags on account of Rudini's last communication serving all diplomatic relations with us. He is like the boy at a debating club, who has been worsted in every debate, declines to continue the discussion.

The several peddlers that come to our town to sell their numerous wares were struck dumbfounded last week by the appearance of our High Constable who requested them to "show up" their borough license. The Bradford County Republican Convention which convened in the court house at Towanda on Tuesday the 12th, passed off very smoothly and all nominations were made unanimously. This result is received with pleasure by the sincere Republicans of old Bradford while it is not so favorably looked upon by a few of the mugwumps.

Ulysses Bird, Walter Spencer and Clark Taylor viewers appointed by the court to ascertain the lines of Forks, Shrewsbury and LaPorte twps., on the new road down the Loyal Sock to Forksville, attended to their appointment on Tuesday of last week. The survey revealed the fact that about seven hundred acres of land in Shrewsbury twp., is being assessed in the Township of LaPorte. Supervisor Fullmer of Shrewsbury made the Commissioner's Clerk a call on Wednesday and requested that the several tracts be corrected and placed on the Shrewsbury duplicate. This request will be granted in 1892.

Frank Farrell of Dushore, while working in the bark woods in the employ of Pat Sweeney on or near the Mehoopeny Creek in Colley twp., was instantly killed on Monday at about 8:30 a. m. by a fallen limb or a piece of a tree top which had lodged in the tree—he and his brother Jerry were in the act of cutting down. Jerry saw the limb about 12 feet in the air sprang and informed Frank at the same time. Frank made a desperate struggle for life, but was too late. The limb came down like a cannon ball striking him on the head crushing it to a mash and one limb piercing his side. Deceased was brought to Dushore on the same day of the accident and the burial took place on Wednesday in the Catholic cemetery at said place.

Frank and Jerry are sons of James Farrell of Dushore, and were not old experienced woodsmen, Frank having served but one season in the bark woods requested of Mr. Sweeney that he and his brother Jerry who was receiving his first lesson, be allowed to work in the same gang, as he desired to make it as easy as possible for his younger brother. Mr. Sweeney granted them this favor knowing at the time that it would be better for them to divide and each accept an old woodsman as their companion, but not wishing to confront the boys granted them the request as above stated.

Deceased was a model young man of about 24 years of age and had hosts of friends throughout the county who speak of him in the kindest of terms. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

In other towns the meetings of the Council are attended by a large number of citizens who take deep interest in the doings of their representatives. In this town it is different, as no one seems to care anything about the meetings of Council. The public has a right to be present at any meeting of the Town Council.

Representative Krickbaum of Columbia county, while on his way to the depot at Rupert en-route for Harrisburg last week, was thrown from his buggy and quite seriously hurt. The accident was caused by the horse frightening at a dog and springing to one side of the road upsetting the vehicle throwing both Mr. Krickbaum and Mr. Boody, who was riding with him at the time violently to the ground. The former was obliged to return home and is confined to his room.

One of Rudini's imps struck town yesterday with a forty-mule power organ. The "Ike" was equal to the occasion and handled the machine with the vim and pertinacity of an imp of darkness. He dealt out "Home, sweet Home," in front of Geltz's tobacco store for an hour, and serenaded Belford's bevy of beauties in his merchant tailoring establishment with "Annie Rooney" for upwards of half an hour. We are not positive that anyone instigated, or paid for these delightful (?) serenades.—Milton Record.

These dumbfounded Italians should receive this kind of treatment all over the land.

Ganoga Lake to be Drained and Restocked.

Mr. Will Woodin, of Berwick, with some other sportsmen purpose restocking Ganoga Lake during the coming summer. A number of bass were put in the lake a few years ago and they are fast destroying all the more valuable fish. Mr. Woodin has secured from Col. Ricketts the privilege of draining the lake. It is said that a cut costing $500 or $600 will drain it to its bed, and as the supply is from springs it will not be a difficult matter to remove all the fish. When the water is at its lowest the cut will be made and the water drawn off. The lake will then be stocked with lake trout and other gamy finnies. This is certainly a brilliant conception and its consummation will restore to Ganoga Lake its old-time prestige as a valuable fishing ground.

Ganoga Lake, then known as Long Pond, was stocked with pike about thirty years ago by the editor's father—Col. James Tubbs. The pike were caught in the Susquehanna and taken to the lake in tubs.—Shickelshinny Echo.

Contest.

The contest for a silver medal took place in the M. E. church, Tuesday evening. The number of contestants was eight young ladies of the borough. The church was filled with good citizens. The exercises were under the auspices of The Christian Temperance Union. The entertainment was a grand success from beginning to end. The young ladies deserve great credit, and received many expressions of comment for the manner in which each and every one acquitted themselves. They were very materially assisted by the children of the Loyal Legion who also performed their parts very creditably.

The Medal was awarded to Miss Lottie Miller by the judges, J. T. J. Kieler, Robert Stormont and John S. Grim.

Miss Lottie did very fine but had one or two close competitors. The audience gave a very liberal collection to aid the young ladies in their cause.
