DUSHORE ITEMS.

The drouth is at an end we are glad to say. A child of Thos. Lavey was buried in the Catholic cemetery Sunday. Some of the young people enjoyed a hop in Garey's hall Saturday evening.

S. Y. Richards, of Towanda was looking after his business interests in Dushore Monday. Dushore has only two ice cream parlors this season--some less than the usual number.

A. Logan Grim, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stormont and E. S. Karns, of LaPorte were in town Monday. Horse-back riding seems to be a very popular amusement among the young folks here just now.

The ice cream festival at Mrs. Weiss' for the benefit of the Sewing Circle last Thursday evening was largely attended, and we are informed the receipts were about $12.

The street fair put in an appearance Monday evening, giving a free exhibition to draw a crowd and afterwards selling a lot of cheap and worthless jewelry and other articles.

Mrs. Betsy Thrasher probably the oldest resident of Cherry township died at the residence of Solon Heverly Monday; aged 92 years. The remains were interred in Thrasher's cemetery this Wednesday morning.

C. M. Croll of Dushore and Miss Carrie Taylor, of Muncy Valley, will be married at the residence of the bride's father, David Taylor at the latter place on Thursday, June 25th, to which event a large number of the friends of the contracting parties from this place are invited. A reception will be given on June 26th at Mr. Croll's house in this place.

Much work is being done on the streets of our borough but as a matter of fact our streets are always poor and rough from the dirt and stones thrown into them. From a few dollars expended in raking off the loose stones the public would derive more benefit than from many times the same amount expended in any other way. With the road tax, and over $600, the borough's proportion of the license moneys, Dushore ought to have good streets. The authorities should see that all moneys are most judiciously expended.

Disappeared from J. G. Plotts: Small boy, about twelve years old, answers to name of Harisburg. Anyone seeing him better advise him to go back and behave himself.

The Grange at Estella is in a very flourishing condition, having upwards of forty members. Just what they need to help the farming interest of this part of the county.

Estella people are talking strong of celebrating the glorious Fourth. You may count on a good time. I heard a Granger say they were going to have a picnic. Wonder if they will invite me? I like corn.

The appearance of the Prince of Wales as a witness in a gambling suit, reflects greatly on his position as heir to the British throne. From present indications England has nothing promising to expect from Victoria's eldest son. Her career has been an honorable one. This son, however, has already disgraced the name, and it will require the strongest inferences to check such a spirit when it once is intrusted with powers supreme as a king gains in his induction into office.

Miss Sadie Woodley of Hughesville was visiting at her sister's Mrs. W. M. Davidge, last week. Miss Mollie Breaker of LaPorte was visiting her sister Mrs. Chas. Landon, the latter part of last week.

W. G. Evans proprietor of the ice cream parlors, says this is not the best kind of weather for ice cream. Several car loads of oak and hemlock bark are received at Proctors Tannery daily. Business is being pushed to its utmost capacity.

John Connors of Dushore and Dan P. Murphy of Elmira, New York, were calling on friends in town the latter part of last week. John Forbes exposed of his valuable "Prince" on Saturday, to a man from Muncy Valley. John says he is a dandy and hates to see him go.

Henry Tripp who has been employed as setter on the mill here accompanied by his wife and daughter Fannie, left for Shunk, on Saturday.

Jerry Kennedy and wife of LaPorte, and Mrs. George Nortz of New York state, was visiting at John P. Kennedy's, the fore part of last week.

Lloyd Zaner accompanied by several other gentlemen, done some very good fishing last week. They caught a large amount of the fine trout and among them, some that weighed 16 ounces.

There was a company of 60 from Bloomsburg came up and spent Saturday at the Proctor House. Among them we noticed Judge Ikeler, Col. Jamison, Mr. Moyer, of the firm of Moyer Bros. and Samuel G. Wigfall.

The saw mill at this place shut down for a few days on account of some breakage on the circle saw. It is hoped that there will be a good rain before long, to float the logs from the woods to the mill so that work will go on.

POLITE.

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

New bark is being shipped in as fast our "motor" horse power can haul it. Frank Twitchler smiles and says it is a boy and weighs 12 lbs.--come lets have a smoke.

Mr. Frank Thrall and family of Williamsport, were visiting friends in town the latter part of last week. Seth Griffin is in town and the man of our city who gives him a horse trade will get soaked and don't you forget it.

W. L. Hoffman's team took his people and some of G. W. Darby's family to Forksville Tuesday--all came home straight as a string.

There seems to be no need of a license house at this place, quenching thirsts are supplied in good shape just as things are at present.

George Chapman and Miss Anna Haynes, both of this place, were married at Waverly, N. Y., on the 30th of May. George don't you think it about time to order up the smokes?

Chas. Morne of this place met with a fearful accident while peeling bark for Henry Houtzhour, last week. A tree which had been cut down and lodged, the but of which remained on the stump tore loose from the same striking Mr. Morne on the leg near the ankle breaking it and crushing the bones through in a frightful manner. Drs. Christian and Herrmann were called and banded the limb as best they could and at this writing he is doing as well as could be expected. Over $100.00 was raised by subscription for the unfortunate man.

L. K. Brown made a flying trip to Towanda this week. S. P. Shoemaker is at HillsGrove repairing Mr. Moulthrop's house.

Will close for fear of wearying the editor and this find the waste basket. Miss Ettie Randall is training the young Ideas how to shoot at the Salem school.

Mrs. T. L. Barto has been quite ill, but is improving under the excellent care of Dr. Randall. Cold dry weather makes the farmers look discouraged about the hay crop. The winter wheat looks very light.

C. B. Jennings blacksmith shop is running full blast. Wonder what Cal goes to Bradford county so much for? Disappeared from J. G. Plotts: Small boy, about twelve years old, answers to name of Harisburg. Anyone seeing him better advise him to go back and behave himself.

The Grange at Estella is in a very flourishing condition, having upwards of forty members. Just what they need to help the farming interest of this part of the county.

Estella people are talking strong of celebrating the glorious Fourth. You may count on a good time. I heard a Granger say they were going to have a picnic. Wonder if they will invite me? I like corn.
