The Proposed Convention.

From the Philadelphia Press. The drift of sentiment against the proposed Constitutional Convention is unmistakably strong. It has been indicated in the expressions of leading men of both parties, and is no less strongly manifested in the newspapers of the State.

Of nearly fifty papers of all shades of politics whose opinions have been noted up to this time but eleven have declared in favor of a convention. The following list shows the division:—

AGAINST A CONVENTION.

- Lancaster Intelligence, Philadelphia North York Age, D. American, R. Pittsburg Dispatch, I. Chester News, R. Scranton Republican, R. Norristown Times, R. Philadelphia Record, D. Pottsville Republican, Doylestown Intelligence, R. Shenango Valley News, R. Chester Democrat, D. Towanda Reporter-Journal, R. Huntington Journal, R. South Chester News, R. Uniontown Standard, R. Media Record, R. Lancaster Inquirer, R. Indian Messenger, R. Altoon Tribune, R. Freeburg Courier, R. Allentown Chronicle, R. Harrisburg Telegraph, Greensburg Record, D. Media American, R. Bellefonte Wachman, D. Butler Citizen, R. Dubois Courier, R. Pittston Gazette, R. Norristown Herald, R. Lock Haven Democrat, D. Pittsburg Times, R. West Chester Record, D.

FOR A CONVENTION.

- Scranton Times, D. York Gazette, D. Scranton Truth, I. Scranton Tribune, R. Era Gazette, R. Chambersburg Repository, R. Pottsville Chronicle, D. Bradford Argus, D. Susquehanna Ledger, Hazleton Plain Speaker, D. Of the papers favoring a convention four are Republican, five Democratic, and two independent. Of those opposed twenty-five are Republican, eight Democratic, and one independent. These papers are taken from those of our exchanges, and while it cannot be claimed that they include all which have spoken one way or the other on the subject of a convention, they fairly indicate the proportions of the division generally among the newspapers, and they are fairly representative of the popular sentiment. Unless there shall be a very decided change, which is not probable, as there is no reason for it, the convention will be overwhelmingly beaten.

PERTLE.

Every report of good crops and prosperous times for the farmers is an additional thorn in the sides of the Democratic calamity waiters.

The Democratic party has always prospered most when the people suffered most, and it is for that reason that it dreads the era of prosperity which is now dawning upon the country, brought about by Republican legislation, and which we would have had long ago had the Republicans controlled all branches of the Government, as they did during the first two years of President Harrison's administration. And it is a matter for congratulation that the Democratic House of Representatives, which was elected by false representations to the people, will not be able to undo the good work done by the Republican House, much as the Democrats would enjoy doing it, and that the attempts that are certain to be made in that direction will only convince the people of the country of the necessity of electing a Republican House and President next year.

The Odd Fellows of this State now have charters filled from No. 1 to No. 1010. This is the first time this has happened since the early history of the Order. The total membership is close to 100,000.

The mother of Jesse James, the outlaw, has received an offer from Chicago to exhibit their house, a one and a half story log structure, at the World's Fair.

GROVER WILL NOT STUMP.

What the ex-President said in an interview.

BOSTON, July 28.—In reply to inquiries made by a representative of the Herald at Buzzard's Bay ex-President Cleveland said:

"I have not been requested by the Ohio Democrats to make speeches in their State during the pending canvass. I do not expect to take part in the campaign there nor in any other state and I have never given the slightest intimation of an intention to do so. I am convinced that Governor Campbell and all other fair minded political friends will understand that if I decline to go upon the stump, there are perfectly good and valid reasons for my action entirely consistent with a most earnest desire for the success of all democratic candidates in Ohio or elsewhere. Of course, I anticipate the cry will be raised in certain quarters, if such a request is made and declined, that I am selfish and indifferent to the success of the nominees of my party, but such ill-natured accusations I do not expect to escape in any event."

A political writer in the New York Press says: "If dispatches from Maine may be relied upon, Secretary Blaine will not stand in his own way as a Presidential candidate in 1892, as he did in 1888. His closest political friend, Joseph Manley, is quoted as saying that while Mr. Blaine cannot become a candidate for the nomination, yet if the Republican convention should nominate him he will accept. With the popular feeling in the Republican party that Mr. Blaine is the strongest candidate that it can present, this declaration is likely to crystallize the Presidential situation in the Republican party very rapidly, especially as there is now no longer any question but that Mr. Blaine is sound physically, and nearly recovered from his recent indisposition. The growth of trade with South American countries under reciprocity will make "Blaine and business" a popular cry if Mr. Blaine should be the party nominee.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with musical tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogue of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
