Republican County Convention.

At a meeting of the Republican Standing Committee of Sullivan county it was resolved that the Republicans of the various election districts of the county shall meet at the usual places of holding elections in their districts on the 8th day of August A. D. 1891, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to a County Convention to be held at the Court House in LaPorte, Pa., on Tuesday August 11, 1891, at 1 o'clock p. m. to elect a delegate to the Republican State Convention as may be deemed necessary.

The following Vigilance Committee was appointed to conduct the delegate elections in the various election districts:

- Bernice:—D Schoonover, Nelson Cox, Wm. Johnson. Cherry:—Joe Sick, W. K. Holmes, E. W. Hulmeaster. Colley:—Geo. W. Brown, Daniel Ely, Geo. Beach. Dushoreboro:—W. J. Lawrence, S. W. Lewis, F. B. Pomeroy. Davidson:—D. W. Darling, Jacob Lorch, Thos. Simmons. Elkland:—Seth Shoemaker, U. Bird, Elmer Bedford. Forksvilleboro:—A. A. Collins, M. R. Black, D. E. Sturdevant. Fox:—R. S. Fanning, A. B. Kilmer, J. H. Campbell. Forks:—Wm. Bird, E. R. Warburton, Wm. Saam. Hills Grove:—A. A. Ludy, Ezra S. Little, Jos. Biddle. Shrewsbury:—J. R. Stevens, Chris Peale, John Aumiller. Lopez:—G. R. Carrington, Chas. Shuck, Frank Rice. LaPorteboro:—Wm. A. Mason, N. C. Maben, Jno. V. Finkle. LaPorte top:—M. W. Botsford, Chas. Mead, Geo. Fiester.

The national republican convention of 1888 provided by resolution that the call of the convention in 1892 must be issued at least six months before the meeting took place. This is one reason for the meeting of the executive committee in Washington to decide when the general committee shall meet to issue the call. The Press comments in this wise as to the place of meeting: "From present appearances there will be some lively competition among a number of cities for the honor of entertaining the convention. New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Denver, and San Francisco have already put out feelers to secure the convention, and there will probably be other cities named as soon as the call for the national committee meeting is issued. It is less material where the convention is held than that it shall nominate the winning ticket of 1892."

It is understood that if Mr. Cleveland should decide to go to Ohio and make speeches on behalf of Campbell, he will be challenged by Senator Sherman to a joint debate on national issues. This would be a trying test of Cleveland's courage. To meet such an adversary as John Sherman on the stump with the tariff and Federal finances for the chief themes, is a prospect which even able Democrats than Grover Cleveland would be reluctant to face.

Quay Steps Out.

Quay's retirement from the Republican National Committee no doubt meets the approval of his own party, but by the Democrats his action will be greeted by exclamations of delight and satisfaction. His executive ability and skill as a political manager made him the terror of opposition, for as long as he was at the helm they knew that it would be impossible to execute methods of political warfare peculiar to their party. It is admitted on all sides that Quay's superb generalship saved New York to the Republicans in 1888, for with the tactics employed by him in New York city fraud would have prevailed in that hot bed of Democracy and Harrison would have been unjustly defeated.

These services of Mr. Quay were not appreciated by his own party. For months he has been the subject of abuse, much of it uncalled for, and no doubt recognizing the fact that his retirement would be necessary for the preservation of that harmony which is so essential to success, Mr. Quay stepped out.

Like every man Senator Quay has his faults and he has made mistakes seriously detrimental to his influence as a party leader. His action preliminary to the recent gubernatorial campaign was an error that proved costly to his party, and was an exhibition of stubbornness on his part that resulted in the loss of much confidence in him. His efforts to regain that lost confidence only served to still further work against him, and it is believed that he was shrewd enough to realize that the recovery of his former prestige was entirely out of the question.

Mr. Quay has also been the victim of the calumniator, and although he met all charges boldly and openly he was unable to wholly vindicate himself, especially as his political enemies contributed their aid to the mugwump element so loudly clamoring for his destruction. It is believed, however, that his retirement at this time will result beneficially to the party. Mr. Clarkson, who will succeed to the Chairmanship, is a gentleman amply qualified to perform the duties of that responsible office, and he will prove impregnable to the attacks that are sure to be made. New men and new methods ought to result in good.

The Latest Fad.

The latest fad has taken a firm hold upon the girls of Philadelphia, says the Record of that city. The idea seems absurd but there are many who have firm faith in the efficacy of the test. If you would like to try it, pull a hair out of a girl's head, and tie on the end of it a gold ring of the engagement variety. Fill a glass partly full of water, and over it, just inside the glass, suspend the ring. Just as sure as shooting according to the convinced faddist, the ring will swing against the side of the glass and click out the number of years contained in the age of the person from whose head the hair is taken. It is said to equally as reliable in telling the ages of dumb animals as well as human beings.

Into Williamsport Soon.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad is pushing its lines toward Williamsport, and before a year has gone it will have completed a through line to Williamsport. President George L. Sanderson, of the Williamsport and North Branch Railroad said that the Lehigh Valley had built its Nordmont branch to within eight miles of his road, where a connection will be made to Williamsport via the Williamsport and North Branch and the Reading Railroads.—Towanda Review.

The Pentecost Lumber Company has a contract to furnish six million feet of hemlock lumber yearly from their mills in Sullivan county, Pa., to the Richards Company of Scranton. Lumber is worth at the mill in that county from $8 to $10 per thousand and the bark is sold at Stroudsburg and a tannery in Columbia county at six dollars per cord. Bark is bringing about one dollar per cord more than it did last year.—Honesdale Ind.

The Gazette and Review are having a very polite set-to on paper. There is no crash about it, simply lovingly words. When one of the editors steps on the others toes, he simply requests him to "histe," and he gets over.

The Muncy Luminary was 50 years old last Friday, and in honor of the event issued an eight page paper re-hersing much of interest that was done in the West Branch Valley from 1841 to the present time. It was very interesting.

The Pittston Gazette says that the general feeling there is that young Lane is not to blame in the matter of the drowning of the McGowan girls, notwithstanding the correspondents of certain city papers would make it appear the accident was the result of his carelessness or reckless daring.

"Celestia" a place of five dwellings and about one mile and a half from LaPorte, on the "Mere road, is the centre of attraction of city guests both of LaPorte and Eagles Mere. Celestia, was founded by the late P. E. Armstrong who owned several hundred acres of land in the vicinity and in 1864 deeded the same to the Lord, and this is what attracts their attention. John Spragle a reporter on the Phila. Press will visit Celestia soon and write the place up.

Prohibition County Convention.

At a meeting of the Prohibition Standing Committee of Sullivan county, it was decided that the primary elections for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention be held in the regular voting places in the several districts Aug. 8, 1891, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock p. m. The county convention to convene in the Court House at LaPorte Aug. 14, at 1 o'clock for the purpose of electing Delegates to the State Convention at Harrisburg and to transact such other business as the convention deem proper.

It was also decided that Mr. Hayder deliver an address at LaPorte on the evening of the convention.

JAMISON CITY ITEMS.

A cold wave struck our town the early part of the week.

Bernard McVeigh, Esq., was visiting friends at Nordmont, on Sunday.

The next on the programme will be Harveyville camp meeting, about the middle of August.

The band boys are meeting with good success. They meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Mrs. W. H. Horton accompanied by her three children, has gone to visit friends in Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

The editor's trip to Jamison, published in the REPUBLICAN last week, was read with much interest by our people.

John P. Hill, wife and daughter of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., are registered at the Central Park Hotel, for the summer.

James Dewitt butcher at this place, has a partner. The business will now run under the head of Dewitt & Fritz.

John P. Kednedy, our fashionable barber is doing a fine business. John keeps a stiff upper lip and you will get there all right.

Mr. H. Merriman of Williamsport, member of the Phoenix Lumber Company, was doing business in town, the early part of the week.

Miss Anna Kennedy and Mable Spencer, both of LaPorte, who have been spending the last few weeks visiting friends at this place, returned home on Sunday.

Pat Quinn and Mr. Reed, both of Lock Haven, spent a few days last week at the Proctor Inn. On Sunday they, in company with Jos. Merry took in the sights at Long Pond.

E. DuBois, Esq., general superintendent for Thos. E. Proctor, spent Sunday with Mr. S. A. Goodhue. They accompanied by J. W. and E. J. Fliinn, took a drive to Long Pond the same day.

Peter J. Sulf and family left for Virginia, on Monday, where Mr. S. has accepted a position in the railroad business. P. J. was one of our leading business men, and we are sorry to see him go.

The Phoenix Lumber Co. are doing a good business on the creek these days. They have about 10,000,000 feet of logs at the mill dam. The mill is now in operation and it makes our town much livelier.

The City Hotel at this place, seems to be taken the lead. It is a good house and any body stopping at this hotel will be cared for right. Our friend Thomas P. Cadden, is the obliging clerk, and every one has a good word for him.

R. J. McFadden's New World pavilion show exhibited at this place July 30th. The weather was bad but nevertheless they had a very large turn out. There was an excursion train from the West Branch that numbered about 250. Some of our people was somewhat taken taken back—the elephant did not appear.

Picnic excursions still comes. One from Turbitville Thursday numbered about 1000. The day was very damp and rainy. The Mechanics & Councilmen from Catawissa and Bloomsburg, was the largest that has been witnessed yet. 2500 people was landed here on Saturday. It was an elegant day for the occasion.

POLITE.

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

A light rain Monday night.

C. R. Sadler is practicing on catching the greased pig at the Fair, if they have one.

Some of our people attended the G. A. R. encampment, at Canton, Bradford County, last week.

Mr. Malcom McCormick has returned from a visit to his brother in Wisconsin and says it is a fine country out there.

Mrs. Henry Gilbert, was buried at this place Sunday. She had been sick for five months. Deceased leaves a husband and two children.

It is too bad that some person does not visit this town with an old plug of a horse and knock the slop out of some of the would-be trotters that are so numerous about this town.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tone.

Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unusual tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogues of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
