Jack The Ripper Again.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Much excitement was occasioned in the White Chapel district this morning when a rumor was rapidly passed from mouth to mouth that the dreaded Jack the Ripper had again appeared and committed one of the butcheries that has made his name a household word in the most ill favored portion of London. That there was reason for the excitement there can be no denial. At an early hour this morning as one of the denizens of White Chapel, an old woman named Woolfe, was passing through one of the numerous dark alleys with which the region abounds she was set upon by an unknown man armed with a sharp knife. The place where the assault was made was a dark and dismal one, and as the hour was early the usual prowlers had sought refuge in the doorways or under arches, where they lay in drunken slumbers. As rows are of nightly, almost hourly, occurrence in White Chapel, no attention was paid, if indeed, any noise was heard, to what was taken for one of the usual drunken scuffles. But for the old woman it was a scuffle for life. From what can be learned of the circumstances surrounding the attack it appears that the man, whom the people of White Chapel are formally convinced was the famous ripper, used his knife with fiendish ferocity. He grasped the woman by the head, and drawing her backward, he, with one hand across her mouth silenced the cries she would naturally have tried to make, while with the other hand he drew the keen bladed knife across her tightly drawn throat, inflicting a terrible wound. Then, using the knife as a dagger, he plunged it into her body again and again. There is a deep wound on the woman's arm, which, it is believed, was received while she was trying to ward off the ferocious blows aimed at her body. When released from the grasp of her assailant the woman dropped to the ground with the blood pouring from her wounds, and when, shortly afterward, she was found by a passing policeman, she was unconscious and in a dying condition. She is seventy years old.

The police, are, as usual, hunting for a clue that will lead to the identification of the murderer, but as in all of the other White Chapel crimes, the assassin has disappeared, leaving no trace save his mutilated victim. The woman was taken to a hospital and after a time she recovered enough to tell of the attack made upon her. She is a German and unlike the other women murdered and mutilated in White Chapel, she was not in the company of the man who attacked her, but was passing along the street, when, without warning, the assassin sprang upon her. She saw the glitter of the upraised steel blade, but was unable to escape from the grasp of her assailant. She raised her arm to defend her throat from the blow aimed at it, and it was through this movement that the wound in her arm was received. When her assailant released her from his grasp she fell upon a doorstep. Despite her terrible injuries she still retained possession of her senses, and though the wound in her throat was bleeding profusely she was able to articulate, the weapon not having reached the wind pipe. Several persons passed while she was lying on the doorstep, and though they endeavored to ascertain what was the trouble, she could not speak English sufficiently well to make them understand that an attempt had been made to murder her. It is understood that the police found a razor covered with blood near the scene of the crime. The wound in the woman's throat could have been caused by a razor, as could also the deep cut in the arm, but from the nature of the other wounds it is believed they were caused by either a knife or a dagger, as they appear to be stab wounds and not such as would be made with a razor. One man was taken into custody on suspicion.

An Editor Heard From. A legend says that an editor died and slowly wended his way along the path to where he supposed a warm reception awaited him. Satan met him and said: "For many years thou hast borne the blame for many errors the printers have made in the paper. The paper has gone, alas, for $1.00, and the $1.00 often failed to come in. The printers have deviled thee Saturday nights for wages when thou hadst not even one cent to thy name. Men have taken the paper without paying for it and cursed thee for not getting out a better paper. Thou hast been called dead-beat by the passenger conductors when thou hast shown thy annual pass to their envious gaze. All thou hast borne in silence. Thou canst not come in here." And he fired him away. "Heaven is thy home, and besides if we let him come in here he would be continually dunning his delinquent subscribers, for hell is full of them, and thus cause disorder in my kingdom."

Excused from Drawing a Jury.

Sheriff Robinson presented a peculiar petition to the Luzerne County Court last Saturday. Ellis Young will be tried at the next term of court charged with the murder of the sheriff's brother, Elias Robinson. The sheriff, in his petition, says he is an interested party, and that it would not be right for him to draw the jury that will try the prisoner. He, therefore, asks the court to appoint some one to do it. The court appointed Coroner Pier to draw the jury.

Samuel White, of Bellefonte, it is claimed has discovered and is making a preparation that will positively kill Canada thistles above ground with one single application. He guarantees that he can apply the preparation in the morning and by evening the weed will be dead to the ground and it will follow the root to its end in time, thus completely extinguishing it.

JAMISON CITY ITEMS.

J. W. and E. J. Flynn Sunday at LaPorte.

The month of August came in rather stormy.

Mr. E. B. Yonken is confined to his bed by a strained back caused by unloading lumber.

Wm. M. Davidge and wife, John F. Clark and wife and B. S. Cole, spent Saturday at Long Pond.

Hon. C. R. Buckalew and wife of Bloomsburg, spent a few days at the Proctor Inn the later part of last week.

Jos. H. Proctor Esq., son of Thos. E. Proctor of Boston, was visiting Samuel A. Goodhue, the later part of last week.

John J. Dewar Esq., is taking a vacation, he will visit at Syracuse, N. Y., and other towns in New York State, before returning.

Mrs. W. M. Davidge and Miss Lena Cole were visiting Mrs. Davidge's parents at Hughesville the early part of the week.

The band boys will hold a dance in the Proctor Hall, on Saturday evening August 15th. Ice cream, lemonade and other refreshments will be served. The band is expected to furnish music for the occasion.

There was quite a wreck on the B. & S. R. R. just below LaBochs Monday. The cause was by leaving an empty car on the main track to be loaded with lumber, and when the passenger came in the p. m. it ran into it breaking the engine so badly that it was impossible for them to move the train. The passengers were not hurt, fortunately. The hand car conveyed the passengers to their destination. The fault is left to the general manager for not notifying the engineer of what was ahead.

Our constable, Jerry Vansickle accompanied by a police of Danville, arrested M. B. McHenry at his home in Green Creek, Columbia county, Pa., on Thursday August 6th. He being the victim who killed one of the patients in the Danville asylum on Saturday August 1st. McHenry is a young man about 23 years of age. The patient whose name we have not learned, was a large man and a very hard one to handle, and the orders were—no one nurse must attempt to enter his room, but McHenry being a powerful young fellow thought he could handle him all right, so when he went in to wait on him the patient jumped on him very roughly. McHenry seeing he could not master him cried for help. There was two nurses on the second floor who heard the cry and came quickly to assist him. After they got them parted McHenry swore he would kill him, kicking him on both sides of the face breaking each jaw, then kicking him on each side of his ribs, then he jumped on him crushing him to death. The man only lived a short time, and McHenry fled. He is now lodged in Bloomsburg jail for safe keeping.

POLITE.

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

Very warm weather.

How slow the democrats are in asking for the office of Associate Judge.

Some of our married people are going to Atlantic City, this week, for a rest.

We saw two couples of Estella, on their way to Highland Lake, the other day.

Geo. Parker left for Bear Creek, to take charge of the hotel, at said place, last week.

It is a wonder they didn't put the fair off till Christmas and then not lose so much time.

Dr. Chaffee of Forksville, was in town Sunday evening. How much he resembles Grover Cleveland.

W. L. Hoffman must have met a friend in town, or else he would come home in the course of a week or 10 days.

Potatoes are a great crop at this place this year. Nearly every family will have sufficient for their own use.

The dance for the benefit of the band on Saturday evening was a grand success. Shorty Russels way of dancing may be all right in Williamsport, but it takes too much room up here.

C. R. Sadler has in his possession a Sullivan county paper published by M. Meylert, late of LaPorte, dated July 31, 1861. It contains an interesting war story of the battle of Manassas Junction.

Our town is still moving about as usual, notwithstanding the hot weather we are having.

Geo. W. Simmons has his house finished and is now occupying it. He moved into it last Monday Aug. 3.

If times are a little dull, J. W. claims that Bodine & Warn have their share of trade that comes to town.

Jacob Lorsh has his excelsior machines running, and is turning out some good excelsior. D. W. Darling has the contract to do the work.

Traveling tinware man with his big basket is getting entirely too thick. We noticed five of them in town one day last week in less than an hour.

Pianos Organs.

The improved method of fastening strings of Pianos, invented by us, is one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in tone, more durable, and less liable to get out of tone. Both the Mason & Hamlin Organs and Pianos excel chiefly in that which is the chief excellence in any musical instrument, quality of tone. Other things, though important, are much less so than this. An instrument with unusual tones cannot be good. Illustrated catalogue of new styles, introduced this season sent free.
