REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Soldier's Ticket.

The Republican State Convention which convened in Harrisburg on the 19th did some very good work. They nominated Gen. David McM. Gregg of Berks county for Auditor General and Captain John W. Morrison of Allegheny for State Treasurer. This ticket made up of old and world renown soldiers is conceded by both parties to be very strong. The ticket was made by the delegates and was not interfered with by the "bosses" as a few of our democratic exchanges quote it.

GENERAL DAVIL MCM. GREGG, Nominee for Auditor General.

Lieut. Governor Watres of Scranton was elected Republican State Chairman to succeed Andrews, resigned.

The report of the committee on resolutions gave our present administration a very flattering send off, also Post Master General John Wanamaker. This is what they indorsed:

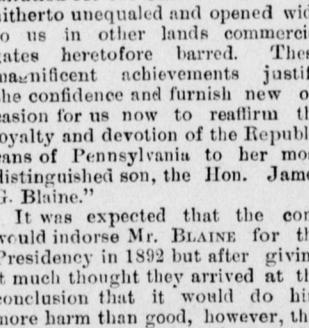

"It heartily indorses the broad and Statesmanlike administration of President Harrison, which has exhibited an intelligent, inflexible purpose to execute the Federal laws, maintain the dignity of American institutions and insure the continuance and growth of prosperity and peace in the nation."

"In view with peculiar satisfaction the direction of the affairs of the Post Office Department by one of our own citizens, the Hon. John Wanamaker, whose clean business-like and comprehensive administration of its affairs has advanced the postal operations of the nation to a plane never previously attained."

This is what the committee had to say of our Secretary of State department JAMES G. BLAINE:

"It has been with special gratification that the Republicans of this Commonwealth have observed the brilliant administration of the State Department by one of Pennsylvania's native sons, whose superb diplomacy has electrified the hearts of all Americans, exacted from foreign people a degree of respect and admiration for the United States flag hitherto unequalled and opened wide to us in other lands commercial gates heretofore barred. These magnificent achievements justify the confidence and furnish new occasion for us now to reaffirm the loyalty and devotion of the Republicans of Pennsylvania to her most distinguished son, the Hon. James G. Blaine."

It was expected that the com. would indorse Mr. BLAINE for the Presidency in 1892 but after giving it much thought they arrived at the conclusion that it would do him more harm than good, however, this was not the conclusion of many of the delegates in the convention.

JOHN W. MORRISON, Nominated for State Treasurer.

The work of Gov. Pattison denounced—here is what the Com. has to say about it:

"We denounce the unscrupulous partisanship of Governor Pattison in violating all the apportionment bills passed, in compliance with constitutional direction, by the late Republican Legislature, and in negating other legislation, particularly the compulsory educational bill, having in view the material and moral interests of the people of Pennsylvania."

McKinley of course was not forgotten. He has done too much for the people to be overlooked. The Democrats will no doubt indorse the McKinley bill at their convention on the 3d of September. This is what the Republican Committee had to say of congress and the material interests of the bill:

"We cordially indorse the action of the Republican Congress in passing the McKinley bill, in conformity with the national pledge to protect the material interests of American labor. This beneficent measure has in spite of malignant Democratic abuse and misrepresentation already brought about and will in the future continue to bring about a broader and more settled prosperity to all classes, particularly to the operative, the mechanic, the miner and the farmer."

We have briefly given the doings of the convention and trust that its work will meet with the approval of each and every Republican of Sullivan county. Let us all turn out and do what we can for the success of the nominees. Hurrah, for GREGG and MORRISON.

DEMOCRATIC CO. CONVENTION.

The democratic county convention convened in the Court House at LaPorte on Tuesday Aug. 25 at 1:30 p. m. R. M. Stormont chairman of the standing committee called the meeting to order.

D. F. McCarty of Elkland was elected president and Isaac Williams of Fox and John Darby of Hills Grove were made vice presidents. Geo. C. Wright of Forksville and Jacob Magargle of Sonestown were elected secretaries.

A list of the several precincts of the county were called and credentials presented.

On motion the chairman appoint committee on resolutions. Following is the committee: A. L. Grim, A. Farrell, Philip Tubach.

On motion nominations declared in order. The first was the nomination of a Delegate to the Constitutional Convention. Hon. B. S. Collins and Geo. Streby both of Dushore, were nominated. The vote:

B. S. Collins had 16 votes Geo. Streby " 18 " Streby having received a majority of the votes cast, was duly declared the nominee.

Nominating of Associate Judges came next. The following persons were nominated by the convention: John Yonkin 2d, of Cherry, M. J. Phillips of Davidson, Jacob Meyers of Shrewsbury and Jerry Stackhouse of Shrewsbury.

Following is the vote of the convention:

John Yonkin 2d, had 34 votes. M. J. Phillips " 27 " Jacob Meyers " 5 " Jerry Stackhouse " 2 " John Yonkin and Phillips were nominated.

For Jury Commissioner, John Corcoran of Forks and Chris Caseman of Fox were nominated. The vote:

John Corcoran 9 Chris Caseman 25. Caseman was declared the nominee.

Atty. A. L. Grim of LaPorte, was nominated by acclamation for the office of District Attorney.

This comprised the entire ticket. The committee on resolutions reported and A. L. Grim took the floor and read the same. Cleveland and Pattison of course were mentioned in the resolutions, but what was said of these gentlemen did not seem to meet the approval of the convention as there was no applaud. Several minutes elapsed before a motion was made to file the papers. It would seem that the convention cared but little about them.

STANDING COMMITTEE. Bernice, Fred Rherle; Cherry, Wm. Yonkin; Coiley, Reuben Thrasher; Davidson, Ellis Swank; Dushore, Phillip Tubach; Elkland, John S. Brown; Forks, M. H. Suman; Forksville, A. L. Smith; Fox, U. S. Morgan; Hills Grove, John Darby; LaPorte twp. B. Sheehan; LaPorte boro. F. W. Gallagher; Lopez, Richard Clark; Shrewsbury, Jacob Meyers.

R. M. Stormont was re-elected chairman.

Each nominee made a little speech thanking the convention for favors shown them and the meeting adjourned.

This is from the Athens correspondent to the Reporter Journal.

W. L. Hayden, of Bellefonte, lectured in the opera house last week, subject, "Clean Politics." What are you going to do about it? which culminated in a plea for prohibition. He spoke about an hour to an audience of perhaps 25 persons.

Mr. Hayden is keeping his record up, so far as audience is concerned—about 25 people listened to him at LaPorte, recently.

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

Mr. Sherman and sister of Overton were in town one day last week. Some of our people have gone South to avoid warm weather (?) Think they have gone to Norfolk.

Mrs. Wiseman and daughter of Elmira, N. Y., are visiting friends at this place.

Mrs. J. Huffman is visiting friends in Williamsport.

The band serenaded the other evening. They rendered some choice music. Think they will take the prize at the fair.

Wm. Hanes made Forksville a visit, on business, last week.

The question of the day—who is to be our next school teacher?

C. W. Sadler has just got a new bull dog, and it is a dandy.

The daily average of drummers that visit the Grove is 15 1/2 as near as we can get at it.

PERTLE.

ESTELLA ITEMS.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—I have kept silent waiting for X to have his say, so we would not interfere with each other's locals. Guess he had the same object in view, as Estella has not been represented for three long weeks.

C B Wheatley and wife has returned home from Spohane Falls, where they have been for the last year. Chauncey says he is not stuck on Washington—but his wife says its a fine place.

Quite a large number from the Mere visited Lincoln Falls, last week.

A number of young people from Forksville, had a picnic at the Falls, Saturday.

Business is booming around Estella, our merchants and blacksmiths, are busy and the rest of the male population are making good time on the croquet ground.

Harvesting is progressing finely, and the people are beginning to make the inquiry—what are you going to take to the Fair?

Win. Wheatley killed five large rattlesnakes at one time last Thursday, while digging Ging Shang. Billy had snakes in his boots all night that night. I believe that beats J. W. Norton, by one, in number.

KITIE CLOVER.

JAMISON CITY ITEMS.

Weather is fine. Times around town seems to be growing better, every body is at work. Republican administration, you know.

Several boarders from Long Pond, were taking in the sights of this place, last week.

The excursion from this place to Nippono Park, was attended by about 65 people. The day was fine and all report a good time.

John B. Casey, sheriff, was in town, the early part of the week.

J. M. Kennedy wife and Misses Annie and Nellie Donovan, of Sayre, were visiting J. P. Kennedy and wife, last week.

Samuel A. White agent, at this place who has been spending a 10 day's vacation at Ocean Grove returned, on Tuesday.

The rain on Sunday gave employment to several men; driving logs, was the order of the day. Logs came in by the thousand. They now have a large stock at the mill and it is hoped that they will get all their logs cut by winter.

E. B. Yonken G. M. for the Phoenix Lumber Co. who had the misfortune of straining his back, is not improving very fast.

Mostly every one took in Harveyville camp meeting. There was a large crowd there but the rain spoiled the best part of it.

John W. Carroll wife and Miss Jennie Burke of Dushore, were visiting friends at this place, Sunday and Monday.

POLITE.

Council Proceedings, Aug. 22, 1891. Council met at Ingham's office Aug. 22, 1891.

Present, F. W. Gallagher Burgess, James McFarlane, Frank Crossley, Thomas Bahon, Charles Wrede, T. J. Ingham and Jerry Kennedy.

On motion of James McFarlane it was unanimously resolved that inasmuch as a complaint has been entered that the sidewalk along the North side of the lot owned by Mrs. B. F. Hill on Cherry street, is dangerous, the owner of the said lot be directed to put the same in good repair without delay, and notice of this order to be given to the owner of said lot by service on her agent (if any) of a copy of this order by the Burgess.

Frank Crossley and Thomas Bahon the committee appointed to supervise the building of the sewer on the north side of Main street report that a stone drain, covered with flag stones has been completed by the street commissioner in a satisfactory manner, but the same has not been covered with earth, and in their opinion the Boro. has done as much of this work as is proper for the Boro. to do; they then recommend that those property owners who are benefited by this improvement are required to cover the same.

On motion of James McFarlane the report is accepted.

On motion of James McFarlane

seconded by T. J. Ingham it was unanimously resolved that John Smyth be employed at $1.50 per day to put two coats of paint on the roof of the Band Stand, and one coat of paint on the rest of said stand, including the floor, and the Burgess supervise and attend to the painting as heretofore directed.

James P. Walsh street commissioner presented bills as follows:

For work done by James P. Walsh, $21.75. " " Stewart Chase, 15.37. " " John Andrews, 3.00. " " T. J. Keeler, 10.33. " " T. J. Ingham, 3.00. " " Edward Nolan, 21.47. Stone got out by C. Tinklepaugh, 1.75. Publishing Auditors Report, W. M. Cheney, 4.50.

On motion of James McFarlane seconded by F. M. Crossley it was unanimously resolved that orders be drawn for all of the foregoing bills.

On motion adjourned to meet at call of the Burgess.

On Monday, Aug. 24th, a very pleasant entertainment took place in Fairview Cottage while the rain came down outside in torrents. Miss Lillian E. Wilson, of New York, gave what was to have been a lawn party but, on account of the unfavorable weather, our little folks enjoyed a jolly time in the parlors of Fairview Cottage. Games of olden times were participated in and the house rang with the sounds of childish glee, "Copenhagen," "Going to Jerusalem," "Rolling the platter," etc., were followed by "The Donkey Party" and first prizes were awarded to Miss Winnie Keeler and Master Willard Hill, while booby prizes were received by Miss Mollie Reed and Master Guy Crossley. At four o'clock the children marched out to a prettily decorated refreshment table, a snapping took place, and the children were soon arranged in the fancy head-gear discovered in the German favors. A "Jack Horner Pie" graced the centre of the table, and the surprised and pleased faces of the little ones as they marched around it, singing the old Mother Goose melody and pulling out their plums was a sight long to be remembered by the older guests of the house. The participants in this affair were: The Misses Jessie and Mollie Wrede, Hollie and Frida Crossley, Ettie Chase, Mable Spencer, May Mason, May Lee and May Funston; Masters Charlie Ballard, Willard Hill, Joe Wrede, Robbie Mason, Guy Crossley, George Thomas, of Philadelphia, and Albert Davis, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Regrets were sent by Misses Bessie Cheney and Ada Chase of Eagles Mere, and Master Lester Albert and Howard Ballard.
