There dosn't seem to be any enthusiasm over the coming Sullivan county fair, in this section of the county. We hear more about the Hughesville Fair than of our own enterprise. This is not quite right, but then, people can do as they

The first train over the Lacka new road places Montrose in connection with the outer world in a business point of view and her people have a right to feel proud. They have three trains daily to and from Scouten's Block Montrose Depot.

The People, the prohibition organ of this State, published in Scranton, has suspended publication, on the grounds that their present circulation of 4,000 did not pay. The publication of that paper will again be resumed providing the management is assured of a circulation of 8,000, otherwise it has gone to stay. One by one they are found among the missing.

The Prohibition State Convention. The Prohibition party deserves credit for one thing-it sticks to its guns in spite of sure defeat and the fact that the question of prohibition has just been settled for some years to come by the direct vote of the half a one, which may or may not be county. significant. But at all events the party is no longer a factor in politics. A few years ago, under the leader ship of CHARLES S. WOLFE, it threat ened to assume proportions that would menace the two old parties but that time has gone by. The Republican party took the bull by the horns. It listened to the de mands of the Prohibitionists and submitted a prohibition amendment to the people. This was voted down by such an overwhelming majority as to leave no doubt of the sentiment in Pennsylvania.

The high license law has worked remarkably well. The saloons in acquainted with him. He lived to Philadelphia have been reduced seventy-five per cent.
