Rate Mills

The new Registry Law of 1891 was condemned by a large majority of the convention and the extra cost for said work estimated at various amounts. In Allegheny county Mr. Siebert said it would cost fifteen hundred dollars more than former years. In Sullivan county it will cost between four and five hundred more. There was a resolution indorsed by the convention asking for its repeal. Should the convention by its work be successful in having this worthless law repealed they will save much for the fixing the amount at which each should be assessed.

On motion of Atty. B. S. Collins, final action on this resolution was postponed. Mr. Collins stated that he, in the interest of the Sullivan be, in the interest of the Sullivan be, in the interest of the Sullivan County commissioners desired to offer a resolution relating to the act of 1844 and was desirous of hav-ing it embodied in said resolution. This resolution will be looked after at the next convention of county commissioners which convenes be-fore the Legislature.
