The State Grange.

The nineteenth annual session of the Pennsylvania State Grange convened in the House of Representative, at 2:30 p. m. Dec. 8th 1891 Worthy Master Leonard Rhone presided and delivered his annual address, which was a sound practical and conservative paper, well worth the study of every citizen of this Commonwealth. The roll of officers being called showed a'l present but two, who came in later. Over 600 Grangers were represented and the greatest harmony and enthusiasm for the success of the Grangers cause prevailed. Asside from appointing a committee on credentials, no other business was transacted at the afternoon session.

At the evening session Worthy Post Lecturer, S R. Downing read an excellent paper on "Brotherhood." Prof. Bolles Chief of the Bureau of phans' Court of Lycoming county. Statistics of Internal Affairs, was then introduced and delivered an in- appoint Nathan Persun and H. E. teresting address on the past and Bull to survey and mark the line bepresent condition of the farmer and tween Colley township, Sullivan his prospects for a prosperous fu- county and North Branch townture. Representative Tewksbury of ship, Lycoming county. Columbia, and Senator Logan of H. T. Downs Esq., appointed Crawford, escorted the Governor to auditor of the accounts of Prothe meeting, which was then in open thouctary etc., for the year 1891. session. The Governor spoke on Taxation, the Road Law and the Public Schools, and congratulated J. H. Gwinner to pay 3 and defendthe people of Pennsylvania, because our great commonwealth is now practically free from debt.

Most of the sessions on Wednes. Good of the order; On Education; H. N. Bigger. On Corporation; On Resolutions Legislation ; Agriculture ; Transportation; and Constitution; and getting them to work and in calling the counties and introducing resolutions which were reffered to the road-Dr. Chaffee, A. L. Smith, proper committees.

President of the National Board pointed viewers, to meet on the of Trade, was escorted to the rostrum premises on Wednesday Jan 6, at 2 p. m. and delivered an excellent 1892. address in which he proposed to the farmers of the state, the ad- al. rule granted to show cause why visability of holding a joint con- A. A. Mason, John J. equalization of taxes that might be Low and C. Tinklepaugh appointed accepted by all.

At the evening session a class of about 150 lifth degree members received the sixth degree.

All day Thursday was taken up by the reports of the chairmen of judgment for want of an affidavit the several committees, the discus of defense. sion of the resolutions offered by them and passing upon them. In judgment for want of an appearthe evening a member on the financial committee was elected and three members of the executive committee. The balance of the eve ing was taken up in exemplifying the unwritten work of the order.

On Friday the remainder of the committees made their report and the work of this meeting hurried to a close.

It was really a grand meeting of the farmers of Pennsylvania, shows that they are in earnest, and will be a power for good in the fu-ture politics of the state. Sullivan county was represented by Geo. W Brown and lady, of Colley, and Ulysses Bird of Fikland. Estella, Dec. 21st.

OUR MOTTO!

What does it mean?

Equare Dealing.

With less it would be folly to be content, for more than that it is unreasonable for you to ask. Look out for the man that says he will give you something for nothing, he will do no such thing. We don't do anything of the kind, we don't do anything of the kind, we don't even pretend to, we will give you as good as you can get elsewhere for your money and better than you can get in most places. We have no use for silly, meaningless arguments. It is as much to your interest to deal with us as it is to curs.

New goods are constantly arriving and you will be pleased with the style and finish of the goods as well as the price we have put on them. Come in and see them.
