On Friday Feb. 12, at Eldredville, William M. White, Aged 25 Years—Buried Sunday the 14th inst, in the Catholic Cemetery at Sugar Ridge.

The sudden death of this young man has saddened the entire community. He left home in the morning full of life and vigor to haul his logs to the saw mill. But alas a rolling log caught him in its cruel embrace and killed him almost instantly. Without one word of warning, his dead body was returned to his weeping wite, who, with her two young children have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

William White was a man universally respected. His name was never mentioned but with praise. With great firmness and energy he united an honesty of purpose and kindness of spirit that won for him a large number of admiring friends. Gaining for him the confidence and respect of those who differed from him. He was a man of exemplary habits. His life as a son, brother, husband, father and citizen, should be an example to the young men of the

The memory of his bright and blameless life should impart some consolation to his afflicted family.

Without a word of warning came the call! From out the realms of Time so swift he sped,

We ask with bated breath, "Can He Be Dead?"
So still he lies, while tears of anguish fall,
Upon that lifeless form, beloved of all;
A victim it would seem to slaughter led,
With crown of glowing manhood on his head.

head.

But weeping friends the wormwood and the gall,
Are yours alone. The cup is full! Yet he,
From earthly toil and care forever free,
Hath in exchanging worlds, obtained great gain!

Surely this thought must mitigate Love's pain.

pain, Then launch the life-boat—head it for that shore, Where parting pangs, are suffered never-

Immediately after morning service on Sunday Feb. 7th, a fire suddenly broke out, in the large double building on Main St., occupied as a residence, by our Honored Superin-tendent Messrs Jasper Taylor and Jas. Ross. Commencing in the upper story. It soon spread over the dry timber, raping the whole building in flames. Nearly all the furniture, however, was removed from the lower rooms. Without any cry of fire our citizens were silently and promptly on the ground, and with promptly on the ground, and with reckless energy, prevented the flames from reaching the adjoining residences. Accepting the prompt and generous invitation of the hostess of the White House, Mr. Taylor and family were immediately settled in a pleasant home. And the Odd Fellows with their accusthe Odd Fellows with their accus-tomed thoughtfulness threw open their commodious Hall, to Mr. Ross and family. The ladies of our city kindly assisted in making the city kindly assisted in making the hall a comfortable home. Both hirs. Ross and Mrs. Taylor, are full of thankfulness for the prompt as-sistance and kindness of their many friends

Mrs. Wm. Harrington has taken a class of five, in German, and rumor says they are becoming quite proficient—already beginning to talk a little, in this classical though modern language.

Mrs. J. Wilmot has been very sick with the grip for two weeks, and though at present somewhat convalescent she is still very low indeed.

Our very genial and respected townsman conductor Merithew, is just recovering from a severe illness.
