THE REPUBLICAD. V. M. CHENE? - - - Editor

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26th 1892. EXTERED AT POST-OFFICE, LAPORTE PA., ASSECOND-CLASS MATTER.

J. V. REITENBURY, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, DUSHORE, PA.

Senators Cameron and Quay are nct without their friends and admirers in Tioga county. The Wellsboro Advocate says: "The greatest orators are not the most valuable Senators after all. General Butler says in a recently issued autobiography that Summer was in the Senate 25 years and that it is impossible to find in the statute books of the United States one line drafted by him. Oratory and executive ability are not often found in the same individual. If we can have but one give us executive ability. The Pennsylvania Senators labor under a disadvantage in not being eloquent talkers, but they get there just the same."

ESTELLA ITEMS.

John Chaffee is visiting friends here.

J. J. Webster lost a valuable team horse, a week or two ago.

Oscar Bedford is running a birch distillery near Bethel.

A very young lady is stopping at John P Roger's now, and John is up o'nights. C. M. Boyles has been granted an increase in his pension of seven dollars per month.

Our school teacher Miss Celia Welch was called home on Friday last, by the serious illness of her father, John Welch, of Ringer Hill.

W. F. Grange is hauling a large quantity of lime for fertilizer, from Mancy Valley. It is a wise plan and others should do likewise.

Where is the man that dare start a creamery here in the spring? He should be around getting his building under way.

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

The re-election of James Dutter for collector of taxes, is evident that he is the right man in the right

Henry Peck who has been confined to his house, for some weeks, with the grip is so far recovered as to be out again.

The township election passed off quietly with the exceptions of Dady Biddle and A. Lewis having a little set too. The whole ticket being elected.

Geo. Braunbeck who has been suffering from grip and a complication of other diseases, is not much improved. His many friends hope soon to see him again restored to health.

The Rev. J. W. McNamara occupied our pulpit last Sunday morning. He took his text from Acts 2d Chapter. It is acknowledged by all who heard him, to have been one of the most logical and impressive discourses they ever listened to. Mr. McNamara has been with us quite often for the last few months, and must say we have been greatly impressed and instructed by bis teachings.

Hoyt Bros. this season will nut in three large tubular boilers. They now have seven large boilers which are not capable of furnishing steam to run their heavy machinery and heating the tannery, during the winter months, but by adding the tubulars to their already large nest, they will have no more trouble with

SONESTO WN ITEMS.

MR. EDITOR:-Several weeks having passed since we have seen anything appear in your paper from Sonestown, and no doubt you will want to know where your correspondent is. Since last you heard from us several events have taken place, which will be of interest. For some length of time the work of attaining right of way for EaglesMere Railroad has been going on, and on Monday Feb. 22, ground was broken on the new railroad, on the land of Mrs. P. E. Magargel. Parties interested in the road, with their friends from John H. WILSON, Executor.

Jan. 30, 1892.

Hughesville, and citizens of Sonestown and vicinity being present. Rev. Jacobs of Hughesville offered prayer. Then a short address by C. W. Woddrop, President of the Engles Mere Railroad Company. Then the breaking of ground by Mrs. P. E. Magargel, followed by H. P. Hall, President of W. C. 344, Pa., P.O. S. of A. moving ground next in behalf of the P. O. S. of A., who came out in regalia in honor of the event and the day upon which it took place Washington's Birthday. Then came the address of Benj. G. Welch General Manager of the W. & N. B. R. R. The address was a good and practical one and delivered in style, manner and earnestness for which Mr. Welch is noted and it would be well for the citizens to bear in mind and act out some of the things Mr. Welch mentioned. Success to the Eagles Mere Railroad.

Joseph Carpenter moved across the mountain, last week and engaged in the hotel business, and we know of no reason why he should not do well, as Joe is a good hotel man.

Jacob Lorah, T. S. Simmons, J. W. Buck and F. S. Eddy, are serving their country as jurors, this week.

A. W. Sones is waiting for snow to finish getting in his logs to the

The engineer corps are at work locating the EaglesMere railroad.

Election passed off last week with but little stir or interest shown.

Our hotels were both granted license on Monday.

The LaPorte correspondent to the Hughesville Mail says, "there are three candidates in our borough for the three most important offices in the gift of the people" and that politics will soon begin to bubble.

With less it would be folly to be content, for more than that it is unreasonable for you to ask. Look out for the man that says he Look out for the man that says he will give you something for nothing, he will do no such thing. We don't do anything of the kind, we don't even pretend to, we will give you as good as you can get elsewhere for your money and better than you can get in most places. We have no use for silly, meaningless arguments. It is as much to your interest to deal with us as it is to ours.
