Brown, Wm. Allen, Davidson—D. W. Darling, D. H. Lorah, Dushore—H. N. Bigger, J. H. Cronin, F. P. Vincent, Forks—Wm. Bird, P. W. Hunsinger, Fog—A. B. Kilmer, A. E. Campbell, Forksville—M. R. Black, E. It was unanimously resolved that delegates in attendance from each township and boro. be authorized to cast the number of votes which said district is entitled to.

In pursuance of a resolution the president appointed—C. Peale, Jr., A. E. Campbell, W. M. Cheney and E. V. Ingham, a committee to draft resolutions.

While the committee were absent Prof. M. R. Black was called upon for a speech and made a few telling remarks which was loudly applauded.

E. P. Ingham was then called on and addressed the convention in one of his happy impromptu speeches in which he struck the key notes of the coming Presidential campaign; "Protection to American Color, a sound currency; Safety for American Citizens abroad, and honesty and purity in the administration of the Government. The standard bearer, he said, who led us to victory in 1888, will again carry the Republican banner; and the record of his clean, honest, sound and beneficial administration will be the platform of success.

The committee on resolutions then reported resolutions as follows:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Sullivan county heartily endorse the administration of President Harrison, its foreign policy is an assurance to all American citizens abroad that their rights will be fully protected, its home policy assures protection to American labor and American credit through honest money.

We desire to add to this commendation of President Harrison a request to the District Conference that our National Delegates be instructed to support his renomination.

Resolved, That after the Presidential election of 1892, Delegates to the Republican Convention of Sullivan county, shall consist of two Delegates for the first forty (40) Republican votes cast at the last Presidential election before each Convention and one additional Delegate for each forty Republican votes or fraction thereof exceeding twenty but no election districts shall be restricted to less than two delegates, that is to say:

40 votes	2 Delegates,
61 " 3 "
80 " 4 "
101 " 5 "
120 " 6 "

John H. Cronin moved that the resolutions be considered separately, and that the first resolution be adopted; the motion was seconded, and the resolution was adopted by acclamation.

Mr. Cronin then moved that the second resolution be laid over for consideration by the next Republican Convention which was agreed to.

On motion the Convention then proceeded to the nomination of a Delegate to the National Convention.

F. P. Vincent nominated Ellery P. Ingham as the candidate for this county for Delegate to the Republican National Convention to be held at Minneapolis, and that he be authorized to select his own Conferees to meet with Conferees from the other counties or this Congressional District to elect delegates to the National Convention.

No other nomination being made a vote was taken and Ellery P. Ingham was unanimously nominated.

On motion the Convention then proceeded to nominate a Delegate to the State Convention.

New York Repudiated Hill.

Thirty-nine out of sixty counties of New York have held local elections and the Democrats have lost the control of the Boards of Supervisors in eleven which they controlled last year. In these counties the Republican Supervisors last year numbered 426 to 352 Democrats. This year the Republican list is swelled nearly a hundred and the Democratic list shrinks accordingly. The new boards average a little more than two Republicans to one Democrat. This is the voters' answer to Governor Hill's theft of a State Senate and forcing a mid-winter convention.

It is useless for Mr. Hill and his friends to pooh-pooh the results of the charter elections and declare that they signify nothing. If the revolution had affected only one or even a half dozen counties it might have indicated nothing more than a local political upheaval, but a change so sweeping, affecting two-thirds of the State, is nothing more nor less than a revolution, which is certain to include all the other counties above the Harlem river. The change in the sentiment of the voters is uniform; it is felt in every county, and it can mean but one thing—disgust with Hill and a determination to rebuke his unscrupulous methods.

It remains for Mr. Hill to accept this rebuke and retire with what grace he may from active pursuit of the Democratic Presidential nomination or to go ahead and suffer a humiliating defeat. The Chicago Convention will never nominate a candidate for President from the State of New York whom the voters of that State have just whacked over the head and who have the same club in pickle for him if he is foolish enough to give them another chance. That is the lesson of the New York charter elections and if Mr. Hill can't read it as he runs he will run against something very hard before he is many months older.—Philadelphia Times.

The entire people of this great U. S., will soon be absorbed in politics.

ESTELLA ITEMS.

W. T. More is visiting his mother in Andes, New York.

A. T. Mulnix is repairing his saw mill.

Jonathan Rogers has finished hauling and is now ready for building his lumber into rafts.

W. W. Boyle postmaster, is on the sick list.

There is too much loafing in our town. That's business young men, go to work and talk less about hard times. The man that is willing and anxious to work can always find employment.

Friday was a blizzard and many of the roads are badly drifted.

Elkland Grange will give a literary entertainment on Tuesday evening, March 22nd.

If talk is an indication or sign of the times, then the next Democrat nominee for Prothonotary and Recorder will be from Forksville. If the right man is nominated for this office he will receive little or no opposition. All right minded Democrats concede that it belongs to the West.

Your correspondent is pleased to learn that you are about to enlarge the REPUBLICAN and bespeak for you many new subscribers in this vicinity. $1.00 a year is certainly very cheap and we are confident that our Republican and Democratic neighbors will improve the opportunity.

D.

ESTELLA ITEMS NO. 3.

W. W. Boyle is on the sick list.

G. S. Messick is not able to attend to business, on account of lagrippe.

E. Jennings had the misfortune to fall and hurt himself. Your scribe has not learned the particulars.

Share holders of Estella church, met Monday evening and elected the following directors: Mr. J. J. Webster, W. H. Plotts, U. Bird, A. G. Little and J. G. Plotts.

J. J. Webster has another very sick horse.

The young people are practicing for a concert, to be given for the benefit of the church.

C. B. Wheatley and wife, have returned home after a two weeks visit, among relatives and friends, in Bradford county.

Carlos M. Clarke of Dulls Ranch, Texas, thinks this is just the place. He says if it is to rainy to drive team, he can break colts. Yes, it is a very good place, especially if you have a fair companion to help break 'em."

There is a certain young man of this place, who wishes John Webster would pull some of those stumps, so it would be better walking cross-lots.

Rush says he is sorry he went but it couldn't be otherwise, as the other was not at home.

A. McCadden has gone to Deep Hollow, Bradford county, to visit his two children, George and Mary, who are living with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hidt.

Cal says wait and he will show "em he is in it."

HILLSGROVE ITEMS.

A sad and fatal accident occurred on the Hoagland Branch of Elk Creek, on Thursday of last week, which has thrown the people of our little town into a state of excitement and has caused a gloom to be cast over the entire community. On Thursday March 10th, while assisting in driving the Emery Lumber Co's logs on Hoagland Branch, a young man by the name of John Boyd, was caught between two logs and was crushed in a manner that caused his death. His friends and companions done all they could to relieve his sufferings but to no avail. The same evening about 11 o'clock he passed away. Thus endeth the career of another one of our bright young men, who to know him, was to love him, such is his record. May his soul be resting in peace.

Geo. S. Hoyt of New York, one of Jr. members of the firm of Hoyt Bros., was in town a few days last week, looking after the company's business. Geo. is a bright good boy, and one of the things we noticed him doing, was shaking hands with all the boys, which shows that he with all his wealth still remembers the poor.

Mr. Jas. Taylor of Olean, who is doing the brick work and setting the new boilers for Hoyt Bros., was in town last week looking after the business.

Hoyt Bros., are hauling to the bank of the creek, some very fine pine logs, which they have sold to the Emery Lumber Co. last Saturday. Hank Peck brought in the boss load, having 1109 feet.

Wm. Bender our famous blacksmith and horse shoer, is anxious for J. C. Bryan newly elected J. P., to get his commission, so that he will have the right to decide a long pending dispute between himself and Aug. Braunbeck. It appears that said dispute has grown out of an allegation of some rude person perhaps Mr. Braunbeck, that a certain young lady in our town, is better looking than Mr. Bender and Bender wants to know the truth.

J. C. Bryan was to Towanda, a few weeks ago and while there met M. J. Lull, who informed him that he would be a candidate for Representative, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. The story that he was not to be a candidate, is without foundation.

Last Thursday in a blinding storm J. C. Bryan drove Mr. Hull's team over to Glen Mawr and back, a distance of 26 miles in four and a half hours. How is that for high, boys? Can Dad Harrison beat it with his grays?

ESTELLA ITEMS No. 2.

Chester Campbell and wife have returned from Benton, where they were called to attend the funeral of his mother, who died very suddenly of heart failure.

W. T. More has gone to Andes Delaware Co., N. Y., to visit his aged mother and other relatives living in that place.

March came in like a lion, but it wore the fleece of a lamb. Cold weather and high winds still prevail.

The Salt Spring school closed last Tuesday with a literary in the evening, under the management of the teacher, Miss Jennie Rogers, of Forksville. All were highly pleased with the entertainment.

We understand the young people of Estella, are going to hold a concert in the church, in the near future. Miss Nellie Bird and S. P. Shoemaker are the moving motors in the enterprise.

The Elkland Grange is still in a very good condition. Prof. Black of Forksville, has been appointed County Deputy, for the Grange.

A number of children around here are having what some call the pink eye.

Postmaster W. W. Boyles is in quite poor health at present.
