Cost of Keeping a Warship.

The first cost of a first class battle-ship The first cost of a first class battle-ship is only a very small part of the expense which it entails upon the nation. Ships like the Chicago, Baltimore and Phila-delphia carry about thirty officers, 300 en-listed men, and a marine corps of from forty to sixty men and officers. The officers of a first class ship of the line are the following: Captain, lieutenant com-mander, four lieutenants, one junior lieutenant. two ensigns, nine maval lieutenant, two ensigns, nine naval cadets, medical inspector, surgeon, pay-master, chief engineer, assistant eagineer, chaplain, captain of the marines, gunner and carpenter. The expense of main-taining a first class modern cruiser, pay of officers and men, coal, repairs and general supplies, is estimated at $1300 per day. This is in time of peace. If fighting is to be done the expense will, of course, be greatly increased. Repairs may run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars after an encagement, while may run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars after an engagement, while the cost of firing one broadside from a ship like the Chicago, 900 pounds of metal at one discharge from four guns, is about $600.-Picayune.

In the fail of iss5 the doctors advised a change of climate, so I went to Atlanta, Ga., and acted as agent for the Estey Organ Company. While there I took a thorough electric treatment, but it only seemed to aggravate my disease, and the only relief I could get from the sharp and distressing pains was to take morphine. The pain was so intense at times that it seemed as though I could not stand it, and I almost longed for death as the only relief. In September of 1858 my legs gave out entirely and my left eye was drawn to one side, so that I had double sight and was dizzy. My trouble so affected my whole nervous system that I had to give up business. Then I returned to New York and went to the Roose-welt hospital, where for four months I was treated by specialists and they pronounced my case locomotor ataxia and incurable. After I had been under treatment by Prof. Starr and Dr. Ware for four months, they told me they had done all they could for me. Then I went to the New York hospital on Fiteenth street, where, upon examination, they said I was incurable and would not take mein. At the Presbyterian hospital they crain do nothing for me and that symptoney. But I wanted to make a trial of Prof. It mu's fanous skill and I remained under his treatment for nine weeks, but secured no benefit. All this time I had been growing worse. I cannot speak in too high terms of Dr. Williams's Pink Pills for Fale People, as I know they saved my life after all the doctors had given me up as incurable." Other citizens of Gaiway, seeing the won-derful cure of Mr. Quant by the Pink Pills for Pale People, are using them. Frederick Sexton, a sufferer from rheumatism, said he was finding great benefit from their use, and Mr. Schultz, who had suffered from chronic dysentery for years, said he had taken two boxes of the pills and was already cured. Mr. Quant had also tried Faith core, with experts of that treatment in Albany and Greenville, S. C., but with no beneficial re-sults.

experts of that treatment in Albany and Greenville, S. C., but with no beneficial re-sults. A number of the more prominent citizens of Galway, as Rev. C. E. Herbert, of the Presbyterian church; Prof. James E. Kelly, principal of the academy; John P. and Har-vey Grouch, and Frank and Edward Willard, merchants, and many others to whom Mr. Quant and his so miraculous cure by the use of Dr. Williams's Pink Pills for Pale People are well known, were pleased to have the opportunity of bearing testimony to the high character of Mr. Quant, and of verifying the story of his recovery from the terrible affliction from which he had for so long a time been a sufferer. Truly, the duty of the physician is not to save life, but to head disease. The remerkable result from the use of Dr. Williams's P.nk Pills in the case of Mr. Quant, induced the reporter to make further inquiries concerning them, and he ascer-tained beat they are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is generally used, but a highly scientific preparation, the result of years of study and careful experi-ment. They have no rival as a blood builder and nerve restorer and have met with unparalleled success in the treatment of such diseases as paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus's dance, papintation of the heart, that tired feeling which affects so many, and all diseases depending upon a watery condition of the blood or shattered herves. They build up the blood and re-store the glow of health to pale or sallow cheeks. In the case of men they affect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. On further inquiry the writer found that these pills are manufactured by The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and Morristown, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in bulk by the hundred), at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies, or medical treatment.

Why a Horse Eats Dirt.

There was a block in the street up town the other day, and a crowd of people and any number of carts, street cars and carriages were generally mixed up and de layed for some time. Directly in front of one of the cars was a cart loaded with fresh dirt from some cellar. The passengers on the car noticed that one of the car horses was interested in the load of dirt. Finally he stretched his neck out and picked up a small mouthful of the clay, which he seemed to try to dissolve in his mouth, with considerable satisfaction. "Why, that horse is eating dirt!" said a passenger with some astonishment. never seen the like." "Nor I," said another man.

"Nor I," said another man. "Reckon you gentlemen don't know much about horses," said a quiet man. "A hoss," he went on, "knows as much as any animal about his own stomach, and if men knew as much as animals do they wouldn't have dispepsy. A hoss in the country if he can get a bit of grass with his dirt he takes it that way, but here in the city I suppose he must be glad to get the dirt clean. That's why that hoss is eatin' that dirt.
