A GREAT REPUBLICAN; VICTOY IN THE LITTLE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND.

GETS A MAJORITY

PRONIDENCE, April 7 .- Complete returns from all parts of the State show a total vote on the State ticket of 54,699, an increase of 10,000 over the largest ever polled. The two parties raked every city and town almost bare of voters and got on an unexpectedly and unprecedenedtly full vote, both in actual numbers and in proportion to the possible

A GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY. The finished returns show a great Republican victory. On the State ticket, Brown, Republican, for Gov. ernor, polled 27,464; Wardwell, Democrat, 25,385; Gilbert, Pro., 1587; Burton, People's candidate, 188, and there were 75 scattering votes. These figures show a plurality of 2079 for Brown, and a majority of 229.

Bull and Utter, Republican candidates for Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State, are also elected by small majorities. There is no election for Attorney-General and General Treasurer.

WHERE THEY FAILED TO ELECT. Most of the failures to elect are in Providence and Newport. In the former city only three of thirteen members of the Legislature were chosen, and in Newport only one of six. The other failures were scat tered among the small towns. The control of the Legislature by the Republicans gives them the choice of their candidates for Attorney-General and General Treasurer, and secures beyond a doubt the re-election of Nelson W. Aldrich to the United States Senate.

REPUBLICANS JUBILANT. The Republicans are feeling very jubilant, as they have secured everything to be desired, or the assureverythingthe Legislature all their State officers and a United States Senator. COMPLEXION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The complexion of the Legislature is: Senate, 23 Republicans, 10 Democrats; three to be elected.

House, 37 Republicans, 19 Democrats; 16 to be elected .- Ex.

A BRIDE AT FOURTEEN.

Louisa Sachs Elopes Across the Delaware With a Man of Twice Her Years.

An excited group of men and women, in their midst a crying girl, stood in the hearing room of the Seventh Police District station house last night, and told an unusual story to Sergeant Hewitt. The girl, whose name is Louisa Sachs, and whose age but 14 years, had run away from the house of her father, John Sachs, of 827 New Market Street, had eloped and been married in Camder to a man almost twice her age from whom the father endeavored to keep his child.

The husband, Frank Adams, of ed the father's house earlier in the day to make demands for his wife. The 14-year-old girl, and the father in whose care she then was were endeavoring to persuade the Sergeant to lock up the girl in a cell, so as to keep her from her husband.

LOUISA RUNS AWAY. According to the father's story, Louisa had left home on Tuesday last. Her father and brothers then disguised themselves, and nightly have visited localities where the girl was suspected to be. Their search was futile. Yesterday noon as the father was standing at Fourth and Fairmount Avenue, he saw his truant daughter on an opposite corner. He endeavored to catch her, but she was to quick for him and ran rapidly down Fourth Street, with the father in pursuit. Seeing that in a chase he could not catch the daughter the father called out stop thief and pointed to the girl. At Green Street Officer Jones caught the girl. The party then went to the station honse at St. John and Brown Streets. Here the father recited the story of the runaway and told the sargeant that he desired to have his daughter locked up as he intended sending her to some asylum as soon as possible. Finally the father was persuaded to take the girl home

FATHER AND HUSBAND TO FIGHT. No sooner had Sachs arrived home, than, Adams, the husband, hearing of his wife's arrest, visited the father's house and made demands for his wife. He produced a certificate of marriage from a Camden minister. Sachs, fearing violence, determined to have the girl locked up. When he and his family arrived at the station house the second time, the sergeant told the excited group that the station house could furnish only an uncomfortable cell for the girls. The weeping girl beged piteously to be allowed to return to her husband, but her father was obdurate.

Finally, at the suggestion of the sergeant the girl was taken to the Fourth District Station House where there are comfortable cells and locked up. The husband declares that he will have his wife even if he has to invoke the law, and the father declares he will remain in charge of the girl even if he has to invoke the law .- Philadelphia Press.

EVIDENCE AGAINT MORE DEEMING.

A Basket Found Containing a Portion of His Murdered Wife's Clothing.

MELBOURNE, April 10 .- An unclaimed leather covered basket, which has lain in the Bairnsdale railway station since January last, has just been forwarded to the police house. It has been found that the name "Mrs. Dobbs," in scribed upon a label on the basket, is in Deeming's handwriting, and a key found upon Deeming fitted into the lock.

The basket contained apparel formerly belonging to the murdered Mrs. Williams or Deeming (Emily Mather), and a portion of a Liverpool paper, another portion of which was found at the scene of the murder of Mrs. Deeming at Winsdor. A search has been instituted at other railway stations for articles that may prove useful in connection with Deeming's conviction.

Deeming continues to pretend that he is insane, although a number of physicians have testified that he is perfectly sane.

FOUGHT BLACKSNAKES.

A Railroad Man Surrounded by Fifty of the Reptiles.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 10 .-While blasting rocks in a deep cut, near White Haven, on Saturday, Michael Greenig, a Lehigh Valley foreman, met with an experience which he is not likely to forget. After firing the first blast he climbed upon the ledge of rocks to note the effect of the shot. As he stepped up he found the shot had uncovered a den of huge black. snakes, and before he could realize his position, he was surrounded by nearly fifty of the reptiles, varying from three to seven feet in length. New Market and Onas Street, at the He had no chance to run or to small stick which he carried, he attacked the snakes.

After twenty minutes of hard fighting he succeeded in getting down to the track, after killing forty-seven of the snakes, the largest of which measured seven feet, four inches. Greening is preserving this skin as a memento.

Stephen Allen's Pocket Piece.

(By Request.)

In the pocket book of the Hon. Stephen Allen, who was drowned from on board the Henry Clay, many years ago, was found a printed slip, apparently cut from a newspaper, of which the following is a cop. It is worthy to be put in every newspaper, and engraved on every young man's heart:

Make few promises. Always speak the truth.

Keep good company, or none. Never speak evil of any one.

Live up to your engagements. Be just before you are generous.

Never play at any game of chance. Drink no kind of intoxicating iquors.

Good character is above all things

Keep your own secrets, if you have any.

Never borrow if you can possibly help it.

Do not marry until you are able to support a wife. Keep yourself innocent, if you would be happy. When you speak to a person, look him in the face. Make no haste to be rich, if you would prosper. Ever live (misfortune excepted) within your income. Save when you are young, to spend when you are old. Avoid temptation, through feat you may not withstand it. Never run into debt unless you see a way to get out again.

Small and steady gains give competency, with a tranquil mind.

Good company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue.

Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If any one speaks evil of you, let your life be so that no one will believe

When you retire to bed, think over what you have been doing during the day.

Never be idle; if your hands can't be employed usefully, attend to the cultivation of your mind.

Read over the above maxims, carefully and thoughtfully at least once every week.

A Philadelphia judge has decided that a man may shoot and kill a cat that comes upon his premises and disturbs his nocturnal repose. In charging the jury the judge said: "I have only to say, gentlemen, that a citizen has a right to kill an animal of this kind if it trespasses on his premises. Perhaps there is no domestic snimal that makes more trouble in the neighborhood than a cat. If this cat was trespassing on this man's place he had a right to kill it." The jury at once found the man not guilty. Johnny, get your gun.

"I do say that the enormous sum paid in the way of pensions is a double hardship on the people of the South," said General Patterson of Tennessee, one of the plainspoken ex Confederate Brigadiers in the House. He objects to pensions because they draw money away from the South and put it into the hands of Union veterans at the North." The South could not expect pay for wrong doings.

A Danville paper says : "There is wide spread distress in this town women and children as well as men are suffering for the necessaries of life. Last Sunday the churches were boasting of the hundreds of dollars they have raised for missionary purposes, and yet almost within the shadow of some of the churches there was pinching want and the suffering that comes from a lack of

On Tuesday April 5th, Governor Pattison signed the death warrant of Charles Cleary, who has been convicted of the murder of Policeman Paul, at Renovo, and the day head of a party of friends, had visit jump down. With nothing but a of execution is to be June 9th next.

The Clearfield County Commissioners are about to contract for 352 booths and annexes-92 election booths at $4.75 each and 260 annexes at $3.50 each. The Du Bois Express believes it will cost $20,000 to meet the provisions of the Baker ballot law in that county.
