HARRITY HUNG IN EFFIGY

pended by the North Side Democratic Club of Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, April 17 .- Allegheny County Democrats generally are still indignant at the treatment their delegates received at the hands of Harrity at the Harrisburg Convention. The temper of the North Side Democratic Club took a demonstrative form.

One member suggested that they hang Harrity in effigy, and this idea met with roars of approval, and work was quietly begun to give Mr. Harrity a testimonial of the decided opinion of the North Side Democratic Club.

A neighboring costumer was visited, and a mask for a decidedly Hibernian cast of features was procured. This was decorated by an artist member of the club, so that its resemblance to the features of Mr. Harrity was something startling.

A dress suit belonging to a member was then stuffed with excelsior torn from a sofa, and the whole figure when finished presented a life-like appearance.

A mock sentence, terribly arraigning Harrity, was then pronounced, and at midnight before the full club membership, a cord was put around the dummy's neck and it was hoisted in the air by the chairman of the lynch committee. A placard "Boss Harrity," was tacked between the broad shoulders, and there the effigy dangled until this morning. Many outside Democrats called during the past few days, and strongly protested against the proceedings.

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTEND-ENT.

Several Candidates to Make a Fight for the Position.

The canvas for the office of Superintendent of schools of Bradford county already begins to look as though it might be a lively one. There are several candidates in the field, and although the present incumbent, Supt. Ryan, proposes to run again, they are slow to take a back seat. Mr. Ryan is actively riding the county these days, visiting at least as many directors as he does schools; the election is over a year hence, yet he is making the canvas early, securing pledges whereever possible. Some of the other candidates are likewise looking over the field carefully, and find much to encourage them. Time will tell the story, but it now looks as though Supt. Ryan will have to do some lively hustling in order to extend his lease of office from fifteen to eighteen years .- Towanda Review.

MISSING DR. NARDYZ

His Friends Believe He Has Been Murdered By the Mafia

PITTSBURG, April 17 .- The friends of Dr. M. L. Nardyz, the missing physician who formerly lived in Philadelphia, claim he has been murdered. As the recognized leader of the most powerful Italian faction in this city Dr. Nardyz made many bitter enemies among his own people, and it is no secret that he had been threatened with a stiletto on more than one occasion.

This enmity was augmented by his recent election to the presidency of the Italian Republican Club, which organization is at dagger's point with a similar Democratic club. It now seems Nardyz's financial troubles were not nearly so great as first reported by his enemies. Nardyz was an epicure and worshiped fine wines, but his personal property will more than pay for any small debts outstanding. The police have been put on the case, but so far have learned nothing more than the fact that three weeks ago Dr. Nardyz left home to visit a wine cellar since which time he has not been seen. On leaving his wife and children he promised to return before midnight.

Nardyz became especially hateful to the lowest class of Italians in this city during the excitement attending the Mafia affair. He knew many of the secrets of this organization of his countrymen. He consented to a newspaper interview provided his name was not mentioned in the article. This was agreed upon, and Nardyz laid bare many of the dark secrets of the Mafia and told the methods employed by the lower Italians in getting rid of their friends. Since then he has been often threatened and has often declared that his life was in danger.

A RUSH FOR HOMES.

The Sisseton Reservation Opened to Thousands of Land Seekers.

St. PAUL, Minn., April 12 .- The Sisseton Reservation was to-day thrown open to the thousands of home seekers that have been hovering along its borders for the past tew weeks. This morning early the towns along the boundaries of the reservation were deserted and the crowds flocked to the land, there to await the signal oun that was to be heard around the reservation.

At 11 o'clock fully 3,000 persons had collected along the reservation where it runs southward along the high bluff, which rises abruptly from the iron mountain at the head of Lake Traverse. Many of the crowd were spectators from the villiage and surrounding country. The cavalry patrols galloped back and forth along the line, keeping the impatient crowd in check.

At noon the sharp, clear note of a bugle was heard, followed instantly by the crack of musketry, and five hundred teams plunged forward in the mad rush for homes. It is estimated that 1,000 people made the rush from Brown's Valley. About 500 started from the little town called Travare, four miles from the lake. At Wheaton, where the approach to the promised land was over a private bridge, whose owner attempted to stem the flood of boomers in the interest of a land company, 600 people crossed the bridge regardless of orders, and the police force of the town was overwhelmed and lost in the struggle. Other towns along the border make reports of similar scenes.

SONESTO WN ITEMS.

Our town is still on the move

The work on the EaglesMere R R., is progressing nicely, and the Italians are on hand and more coming we understand, shortly.

S. L. Boone has moved his goods to Slate Run and his many friends are sorry to have him leave town, but we understand he has secured a good business stand, at that place, and we hope he will succeed well.

Several parties have their little onions planted and their early garden work done.

Chas. Roof is building a blacksmith shop on the street running to the W. & N. B. R. R. depot.

Theo. Mencer is raising his shoe shop and is having a cellar put un-der it.

The postoffice at this place has recently been made a Money Order office, and you can now get your Money Orders or Postal Notes. Score another advancement for Sonestown. We still need double mail service on the W. & N. B. R. R., which would be useful to all along the line.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The friends of Dalzell are anxious for him to withdraw, as a candidate for U. S. Senator. He might just as well; his name will be Dennis anaway. Quay has done too much for the Republican party to be pushed aside for an unknown quantity.

The Westfield New York. Republican says: If any of the grand children of Gen. John McMahan are living, if they will communicate with this office they will hear of some matters of interest to them. Iowa and Pennsylvania papers please copy.

Boss Harrity of the Pennsylvania Democracy, run the Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday of last week and "hooped" Cleveland on the top shelf. Pattison and his force including Wallace, were knocked silly. The advocates of Hill, were actually hissed.

R. S. Searle has shipped from Susquehanna county for the Forestry Building at the World's Fair, ten trunks of trees each 25 feet long and from 10 to 20 inches in diameter at the base. They were cherry, basswood, hemlock, maple, ash, beach, birch, chestnut, oak and pine.

We think it only just and right that the county should lend a helping hand to ferret out the murderer of Marks. It would only be doing as you would have others do by your friends. A cold blooded murder like this, should have the assistance of the entire public in looking up the guilty party.

Geo. D. Mitchell, of Wellsboro, son of Hon. John I. Mitchell, has just returned from a bicycle trip around the world. In company with another young attorney, Eugene Stevens, of Washington, he left New York May 6th last. After an eventful trip they have returned safe and sound, enjoying an experience that falls to but few men in a life time.

The officials of the narrow guage railroad to the 'Mere, are anxious to complete said road by the 1st of July, that they may realize the ten thousand dollars subscribed by the 'Mere Land Co., citizens and summer guests of the 'Mere. Unless the road is equipped for passengers by July '92 the subscription is to be forfeited. Hence, progress can be expected.

Mr. Irvine Dongan, a Democratic Congressman from Ohio, -thus sizes up the present Congress. "I am becoming convinced that this is a cowardly Congress. It is becoming very tiresome to me. It ought to get up and do what the people expect it to do, and not be afraid of its shadow." But think for a moment, Mr. Dungan, think for a moment, as you turn your eyes to the past, what a dreadful shadow that is.

Here's One for the Merchant

Another very clever swindle is being practiced by sharpers over the country. A man puts in an appearance; seeks the proprietor of the store, and informs him that he is seeking for rare coins, passing him a list of specimens and their alleged value. He also asks the interested proprietor to keep an eye out, and should he get hold of any keep them for him. Soon after another party strolls around buys a cigar or some other article, and exhibits a couple of coins with the remark that they are pocket pieces. On consulting his list the proprietor finds they are marked $45 each. Here he will see an opportunity for speculation, and after dickering, the second party sells him the pieces. Of course,

ESTELLA ITEMS.

Clarkie has got that colt broke so he can drive him with one hand.

Farmers are all busy fixing their fences and doing their spring plowing.

J. M. Osler is making preparations for building a new house this spring.

Mrs. Grant Little has been visiting her brother H. W. Osler, the past week.

The raftsmen are all home from down the river; all having disposed of their lumber. Mrs. Sarah Porter of Shunk, is spending the week at her fathers, Frederick Andersons. Chester Campbell and family from Foot of Plane, spent Sunday at

Mrs. Campbells parents, George Brown. Allen Little and family has moved to Bradford county. The first moving they have done since they were married-thirty years ago. Miss Nellie Rogers is to teach the Estella school, the coming term. The children are very anxious for it to commence, as they are sure of a good teacher, this time.

There was an old fashion rag-bee at Hiram Osler's on Thursday last. Eleven Misses and matrons were present. They sewed a fine lot of carpet rags. Mrs. Osler extends thanks for the good job they done for her.

OUR MOTTO!

What does it mean?

Square Dealing.

With less it would be folly to be content, for more than that it is unreasonable for you to ask. Look out for the man that says he will give you something for nothing, he will do no such thing. We don't do anything of the kind, we don't even pretend to, we will give you as good as you can get elsewhere for your money and better than you can get in most places. We have no use for silly, meaningless arguments. It is as much to your interest to deal with us as it is to curs.

New goods are constantly arriving and you will be pleased with the style and finish of the goods as well as the price we have put on them. Come in and see them.
