

Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I.

After the Grip, Diphtheria Typhoid Fever, Scarlet Fever, Pneumonia, Malaria Fever, etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used with wonderful success as a building-up medicine and blood purifier. For example, read the following from Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I., and her mother. Miss Cobb is a young lady of 18, a Picture of Health and a promising pupil in the High School. Her father is a well-known police officer. "Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co.:" "I write to tell how much good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I had diphtheria and was sick for a year afterwards," being

Weak, Blind and Helpless I used one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me well and strong. MATTIE A. COBB, South Chester Avenue, Providence, R. I. "As my daughter wanted to write how well she liked Hood's Sarsaparilla, I thought I would say a few words. I think it is the Greatest Blood Purifier before the people. Some of my friends say 'go away with your medicine.' I said the same once, but since my daughter has taken Hood's Sarsaparilla My opinion has changed considerably." Mrs. Geo. N. Cobb, Providence, R. I. Hood's Pills do not weaken the system like other cathartics, but actually tone up and give strength.

THE MERRY SIDE OF LIFE.

STORIES THAT ARE TOLD BY THE FUNNY MEN OF THE PRESS.

Biz—Rare Chance—Fate—Not Easily Re-arranged—Sarcastic—Willing to Mind—Sententious, Etc., Etc. Down the street he softly comes, Smiles polite and bland; Scrapes serenely, and with joy Takes me by the hand. Hopes I'm feeling very well— Says I'm looking so; Passes onward, while a smile Sets his cheeks aglow. He's a pedagogue, and knows Just as he's a slave; I have got a little boy Somewhat more than five. —Puck.

WILLING TO MIND. Mamma (hurriedly)—"Dot, I wish you'd mind the baby." Little Dot (mystified)—"I don't know what he says."

NOT EASILY RE-ARRANGED. Indulgent Mamma—"Well, what does my little pet want now?" Little Pet (sleepily)—"I wish the sun wouldn't get up so early in the morning."

SARCASTIC. "Are you the head barber?" asked Spatts, as he took his seat in the chair. "Yes, sir," replied the artist; "you don't see a chiropodist's sign hanging up in the shop, do you?"

RARE CHANCE. Mrs. Binks—"The paper says a Western woman has a baby that has never cried in its life." Mr. Binks—"By Jove! I wonder how she'll trade."—New York Weekly.

SENTENTIOUS. Schoolmaster—"Of what does the surface of the earth consist?" Pupil—"Land and water." Schoolmaster—"What do land and water make?" Pupil—"Mud."

PROPERTIES LACKING. Small Boy—"Papa, I wish you'd buy me a goat." Papa—"You haven't any harness, or cart, or—"

FATE. Cobwigger—"Did you ever hear what became of that baby who fell out of the fourth story window and escaped unhurt?" Merritt—"Yes. When he grew up he fell off a chair and broke his neck."

NOT SO BAD. Mrs. De Fashion—"Where is your mamma?" Little Miss De Style—"She's in the library, sweeping the floor."

ACTIONS BELIED HIS WORDS. Briggs—"Seen Vickers anywhere?" Briggs—"No. What's up?" Briggs—"I understand that he has been talking about me. I want to find him, and let him know that his remarks are a matter of absolute indifference to me. I've been hunting him all the afternoon."—Indianapolis Journal.

THE INDOLENT GARDENER. Mrs. Suburb—"No more milk! What's the matter?" Gardener—"The cow has stopped given milk, mum." "Goodness me! Why?" "Because she's dry, mum." "Then why in the world don't you give her a drink?"—New York Weekly.

QUOTING THE DOCTORS. Mother—"You haven't cleaned your teeth this morning." Small Boy—"Doctor Pullem says the time to clean teeth is at night."

POETIC, BUT NOT TRUE. They had been thwarted in all their attempts to evade parental jurisdiction and unite their emotional interests, and the girl was in despair. "Ah, darling," he said hopefully, "love leads to locksmiths."

TERRIBLE! Bereaved Wife (to nurse)—"Do you think my husband will live till to-morrow?" Nurse—"I am afraid not, madam, and I would advise you to order a mourning dress at once."

PAPA WAS A BIT TOUCHY. Algy—"Do you think, my love, that your father will consent to our marriage?" Angely—"Of course papa will be sorry to lose me, darling."

GOING TO EXTREMES. Mrs. Newwed—"My dear, as you said we must do everything possible to economize, I have been at work turning my old dresses, and I can make most of them do another year. It won't take me over six weeks to get through, and then I'll re-shape and re-trim my old bonnets."

Mr. Newwed—"That is very sensible, I must say."

Mrs. Newwed—"I have also been trying some waxed thread and a coarse needle on my old shoes, and I believe they'll last six months longer; and I've turned that old carpet we bought second-hand, and given it a thorough washing, so that it will do very nicely; and I'm going to make some curtains for the upstairs windows, to avoid buying new ones."

Mr. Newwed—"Eminently sensible, my dear."

Mrs. Newwed—"And I've sent off the washer-woman and discharged the hired girl. I will do all the work myself."

Mr. Newwed—"You're an angel, my love."

Mrs. Newwed—"And I took that box of imported cigars you bought, and traded them for two boxes of cheaper ones."

Mr. Newwed—"Now, see here! Economy is a good thing, but there is no need of your becoming an unreasonable, fanatical monomaniac on the subject."—New York Weekly.

WISE WORDS. The way to get good is to do good. Pride's next door neighbor is shame. Love speaks the mother tongue of everybody. Praise and doubt are never found together in any heart. Do less growing, brother, and perhaps you will do more growing. Darkness can not put out a light. All it can do is to make it brighter. The best time to keep away from some people is when you are in trouble. The time when a woman has no mercy is when she gets a mouse in a trap. The man who has no business of his own to attend to always goes to bed tired. Wearing wigs and dying whiskers never deceives anybody but the people who do it. There are some people who think the music never amounts to much except when they play first fiddle. If everybody's children were as good as their neighbors think they ought to be, the sun would never set. It is a great thing for a man to have a thought, but it is a greater thing for the thought to have a man. If you cannot give a good reason for what you are doing, that is a good reason why you should not do it. It is a pretty sure sign that we have failings ourselves when we are much given to calling attention to the failings of others.—Indianapolis (Ind.) Ram's Horn.

The Bluebird. You may expect him any time after the sun passes the winter solstice. In his musical engagements it is not a matter of dates, but opportunity. It is never a matter of impertunity. Who ever heard of a bluebird's song out of season? It may be cold and snowy to-morrow, but his wings tremble in the nervous ecstasy of the present, and he sings of the bit of spring that now is. When the storm comes then he is silent. He may lie before its breath, or, if it is late in the season, he will fold his wings, unstring his lute, and uncomplainingly wait till the vernal sun and wind shall come again. But let the merest slit of sunlight gash the cloud, and he warbles forth his greetings. He has been accused of trying to force the season. But it is not that. He is such a lover of the very promises of nature that he is as happy in hope as fruition. I found a group once shivering against a March snow-storm, late, as the sun was sinking, and stopped to watch them pitying their distress. Suddenly there was some commotion, which I attributed to my presence and scrutiny—low conversational chatter, a quivering of wings, a few flitting changes of position, and then a gurgle of spring melody among the snow-drops. Astonished, I turned to where the sun should be, and there, on the horizon's rim, its half-disk was burning like a beacon. Two minutes later it was out of sight, the air was gloomy, the snow fell on, but the morning was a blue-bird day, indeed.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Willow Legs. The demand for willow wood for artificial legs has grown immensely in recent years. The funny men on the stage talk glibly of cork legs, but light willow limbs are more popular. English makers claim that the best willow in the world is to be found along the banks of small streams in the southern countries, and there seems some ground for their contention, although an immense quantity of good willow wood is cut every year in this country. Statisticians say that over 1,000,000 English speaking men wear or walk on wooden legs, and this accounts for the enormous trade in limbs of this kind. The old-fashioned stump with an iron tip on it is seldom seen now. It was a great success in its day, and with reasonable care and luck lasted close on a lifetime; but it was too awkward and conspicuous, not to say noisy, to be popular. The modern wooden leg is more costly, but it is much more comfortable, and many a man who is compelled to walk with the aid of one can give pointers in deportment and grace to others more blessed by fortune.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Mighty Big Fox. Ben Goodin, of Turkey Creek, one morning last week killed a red fox that had been carrying on a war of annihilation among the poultry. It measured four feet from tip to toe. A foot of said fox having been left with the Enterprise we offer the same to the first hunter that pays his subscription to keep as a trophy of his skill.—Warsaw (Mo.) Enterprise.

People Know a Good Thing. THAT'S WHY REMINGTON TYPEWRITERS ARE IN DEMAND. Some idea of the present wonderful growth of the typewriter business may be gained from the fact that the sales of Remington typewriters for January and February, 1912, exceeded those of the corresponding months of 1911 by $160,000. The great and constantly gaining popularity of the Remington is clearly shown by the fact that this business has more than doubled within three years. The Remington factory at Ilion, N. Y., employs 700 men to fill the demand created by the sales agents, Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, who dispose of machines at the astonishing rate of one every five minutes.

"German Syrup" I must say a word as to the efficacy of German Syrup. I have used it in my family for Bronchitis, the result of Colds, with most excellent success. I have taken it myself for Throat Troubles, and have derived good results therefrom. I therefore recommend it to my neighbors as an excellent remedy in such cases. James T. Durette, Earlys-ville, Va. Beware of dealers who offer you "something just as good." Always insist on having Boschee's German Syrup.

Sanitary Walls and Ceilings. Q. Does the Bible have anything to say regarding sanitary walls? A. Read Leviticus, 14th Chapter, 38-41 verses. Q. What do modern sanitarians say? A. That wall paper and glue kalsomines are directly responsible for much of the sickness, ignorantly attributed to other causes. The Chicago Inter-Ocean, in an article on "Nasty Practice," has this to say: "Our Health Officer, Dr. DeWolfe, says the free passage of air through walls of living rooms is an important element in proper ventilation. The practice of repairing rooms by layer upon layer of wall paper, made adhesive by glue or paste, which adds a decomposing material to the nasty practice, can receive nothing but condemnation from the sanitarian. The perfect wall for domestic habitation is of material which permits the free passage of air. It seems to me that Alabastine is admirably adapted for the purpose." The Doctor agrees with the Inter-Ocean, that a special law should be passed to prevent the practice of pasting repeated layers of paper on the walls. Write the Alabastine Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., for supplement from the report of the Michigan State Board of Health, entitled "Sanitary Walls and Ceilings."

Remember the name, Alabastine, made from alabaster rock. Pale green will be much used this season in combination with light tan cloths, and green in pine, moss, sage, etc., also pale yellow with gray and fawn gowns.

For strengthening and clearing the voice, use "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES." I have commended them to friends who were sick speakers, and they have proved themselves "truly serviceable."—Henry Ward Beecher.

The seed is planted when you feel "run-down" and "used-up." Malarial, typhoid or bilious fevers spring from it—all sorts of diseases. Don't take any risk. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery invigorates the system and repels disease. It starts the torpid liver into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, and restores health and vigor. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, and builds up flesh and strength. For all diseases that come from a disordered liver and impure blood, skin, scalp and scrofulous affections, it's the only remedy that's guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure in every case, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.
