Judging from the position taken by the Wyoming papers the people of that county are anxious to be the expense of trying the Marks murder case. We will assure them that there will be no opposition so far as this county is concerned. We are only too glad to have them shoulder it.

If you could gauge a man's courage by his loud voice, or his willingness to face danger by his readiness to shoot off his mouth you might conclude that there are some very fearless men living in this age and generation.

The road between this place and Ringville, is in a fearful condition, and rumor is afloat that unless the same is put in repair by September court the Supervisors of LaPorte twp. will be put under arrest for neglecting their duty.

The present Congress has done nothing comparatively speaking except draw their salary. It is quite prominent that they are afraid to make a record fearing it would lessen Grover's chances of election. The Democrats in Congress don't dare trust themselves.

It is a violation of law to permit Canada thistles to grow on private or public lands. The farmers and supervisors are amenable to the law and liable to suffer the penalty for a failure to destroy this pest, wherever found upon their lands, or upon the public highways.

It is stated that although the number of men employed at the Homestead mills was 2,800 only 895 votes were cast in the last gubernatorial election. It is evident, therefore that a large majority of the Homestead workmen are not American citizens.

It is pretty evident that the Marks' murder case will be tried in Wyoming county, in which event, we shall expect the Commissioners of said county to pay the one hundred and fifty dollars reward offered by this county. There is no good reason why Sullivan county should pay for criminals wanted in Wyoming county. There is good ground for a kick about here.

Walter Dann of Newell, while crossing the mountain enroute for LaPorte Thursday, saw a very large black bear. On Saturday one followed the plank road between this place and Thornedale a tow rods in advance of Geo. Cooley, a teamster in the employ of James McFarlane & Co. The Dushore Review infers that Mr. Karns' friends will not stand by Mr. Lull should the latter be forced on the people as the nominee of the Democratic party. What Newell don't know isn't worth grabbing for, however, we are all pleased to learn his position in this campaign. Our Republican friends will perceive at once that he is head over heels for the monopoly candidate.

The Homestead rioters are finding out that killing people is a serious business. Not only have several of their leaders been put under heavy bonds to answer at court for their responsibility in the riot, but one of the men who was recognized as having actually fired at the barges has been committed without bail on a charge of murder in the first degree. These people will not be so ready with their guns hereafter.

The laboring people of Sullivan county say, that Jesh Lull cannot be elected if nominated. Mr. Lull only pays (60) sixty cents county tax. Would you consider that you were doing right to vote for a man who only pays occupation tax to an old settler of our county equally as competent and one who pays several dollars tax on his home? No, we think not.

James Peterman, supervisor of LaPorte twp., is anxious to pay off the township indebtedness and is making right good progress in cancelling the same. E. M. DUNHAM, Sec.

The engineer corps engaged on the W. & N. B. completed the location of the line of railroad from Nordmont to the Summit, on Wednesday. Construction will now follow at once. E. S. Whitney, a railroad contractor of Allentown, was in town on Friday and Saturday. He walked over the ground preparatory to putting in a bid of grading the same. We understand that several other railroad contractors will visit the location of the ground with the same view, between now and the 15th of this month; that is the last day on which bids will be received by the Company. The prospects of a railroad to LaPorte was never better than they are at the present time.

An arbitration was held in the Court House at this place on Tuesday. The parties concerned were—Barker, Rose & Gray vs. George Ren. The litigation was about a book account purchased of Jacob Lorah by Barker & Co. T. S. Laird, Walter Spencer and J. A. Jordan were chosen as arbitrators. The amount claimed by the plaintiffs, was $165.87, the amount awarded by the arbitrators was $135.49. The attorneys in the case were Thomson for plaintiffs, and Scouten for defendant. Owing to the absence of Mr. Thomson, Atty. Dunham plead his side of the case. We understand that all parties concerned, are quite well satisfied with the result. This speaks a good word for the judgment of the arbitrators.

In the absence of Rev. C. A. Brewster, who was unable to hold service at St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday as intended—Mr. M. V. G. kindly read the service and lessons of the day, in which he was ably assisted by the choir. Should there be no minister here next Sunday, the 7th inst., the same gentleman has generously consented to again officiate, at four o'clock in the afternoon. We are very pleased to note the interest taken in this church not only by our resident citizens, but by a large number of our summer visitors.

Many people, even in this enlightened age, are imbued with a deep rooted superstition regarding Friday, believing it to be a day of bad omens, ill luck, in fact an all round unlucky day. It seems they have never learned that Columbus left the Old World on a Friday, discovered the New World on a Friday, left the New World on a Friday, returned to the Old World on a Friday, and the 21st of October, next, the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America also falls on a Friday; so we see that for us, at least, Friday is not such an unlucky day.

When asked to express his views as to the outlook in New York Col. Cochrane made this significant reply: "New York must again be regarded as the pivotal state. I believe the odds to be slightly in favor of Harrison now, but there is a hard fight ahead. The bad Democratic legislation of last winter and a sharp contest on the tariff issue ought to produce Republican gains in the North. I do not see how the Democrats can get out of a better position in New York and Kings county than they did five years ago."

The following applicants have applied for the LaPorte borough school, commencing on the 1st of Monday of September, viz: Miss Annie Kistner, LaPorte; Mr. Or L. Davis, Hughesville; Mr. M. C. Miller, Dushore and Mr. Hooper of Wyoming county. We publish proceedings of the school meeting held on a rainy evening, elsewhere, where it is stated that the teachers will be hired at their next meeting, Aug. 13th.

Mr. C. W. Engleman, a resident of Shady Nook, Colley twp., Sullivan county, died of heart trouble at his residence, on Saturday night, July 30th, aged about 67 years.

Deceased was formerly of Germany. On coming to this country he entered into business—that of importing and dealing in stationery and fancy goods. His headquarters were New York city. He followed this business until his health failed him when he came to the mountain to locate. The deceased was a bachelor and had resided in Colley twp. for upwards of 20 years spending a good part of the cold winter months at Dushore a guest of Jos. Middleton.

Mr. Engleman during his recent illness was cared for by his niece, who came to his residence about six weeks ago and whom he intended to accompany home at the close of the heated season, and reside with his sister in Boston, Conn., in the future. Deceased was recognized among our most well-to-do residents; his property and cash being estimated at anywhere from forty to sixty thousand dollars.

This will most likely be divided between his two brothers in Germany and his sister residing in Boston, Conn. The burial took place in the little cemetery at Bella Sylva, on Wednesday, Aug. 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

Wm. Harinton and Miss Mary Eck and Mr. Frank R. Sackett and Miss Seany Whipple, all of Williamsport, were out boat riding on the river at said place on Monday evening. The boat occupied by the former was a flat bottom structure and while racing with his companions, tipped and both occupants, were thrown into the water. The lady Miss Eck, was saved from a watery grave by the help of Mr. Harinton and the other two friends. Mr. Harinton although rescued a good swimmer was drowned. It is thought that the over exertion of pulling the oars and the assistance he rendered the lady figured him so badly that he could not regain strength sufficient to reach shore.

Absolutely Painless Extraction of Teeth by the "Continued" Process.

Newton C. Maben of this town, having purchased of the "Odontometer Manufacturing Company," the sole and absolute right of the use of their process, throughout this county, for the absolute painless extraction of teeth, is now prepared to fill all or any engagements for this purpose. As soon as arrangements can be completed, Mr. Maben will visit all the towns and settlements within our county, of which due notice will be given; in the meantime he can be found, or communicated with, at his residence on Muncy st. in this borough, where he will be pleased to meet any one desiring his services, and offer any explanation desired.

Another Mysterious Shooting. Thomas Abbott of Raston, Luzerne county, was found dead on the front porch of his home late Saturday night, July 27. There was a bullet hole in his head and a pistol by his side. These circumstances led to the theory of suicide. Since then, however, there is a suspicion that Abbott may have been murdered, as three shots were heard in succession at about the time of his supposed suicide. Dr. Flanagan of Lehigh, who examined the body, went to Williamsport on Monday and reported the case to District Attorney Reilly, and that official ordered a thorough investigation. Abbott and his wife have lived unhappily together, and they had separated Saturday night before the shooting, owing to Abbott having a strange man with his wife.

A Big Judgment.

One of the largest judgments ever entered in this county has been received by Prothonotary Fausold. The judgment is for $2,270,556.00 and was secured by E. A. Packer and trustees of the Packer estate, James Ryan and others, against William Taylor and the Penn An. & Erie Coal Company, tenants, against on a mortgage given by Taylor at the time of the purchase of what is known as the No. 10 number and Coal Company's lands, comprising 2,700 acres in this and Columbia counties.—Milton Record.

Mr. Frick said to-day that he expected to visit his office during the week.
