The W. & N. B. time table published elsewhere in the REPUBLICAN, has recently been corrected and is now correct to a minute.

It is rumored that a delegation of Democrats will visit Mr. Mahaffey and request him to resign from the field, as a candidate for Sheriff.

Miss Ettie Chase of LaPorte, was taken seriously ill with scarlatina, on Sunday. At this writing however, she is very much improved.

Mr. B. G. Welch general manager of the W. & N. B. railroad, will spend a good part of his time at LaPorte during the grading of the road.

A number of old soldiers of this section will attend the reunion of the G. A. R. encampment at Washington, on the 19th of the present month.

A large number of the young people of LaPorte have taken a partner in life and gone for themselves. Wonder who will be the next to join in the procession?

Eagles Mere is soon to have a Casino erected on land donated by the "Land Company" of that place, and will be used for entertainments and recreation for old and young.

The New York Recorder is getting up a brigade of first Presidential voters who are going to vote for Harrison. The idea is an excellent one.

Mrs. A. C. Blackwell and two sons of Pittston, who have been visiting Mrs. A. F. Meylert of LaPorte for the past week, left for their homes on Wednesday.

Mr. Jethro Battin of Shunk, invested in a lot or two at Lake Mookoma, Monday. Mr. Battin has a very flattering idea that Lake Mookoma property will boom in a short time.

There were many sight-seers along the line of the railroad at Lake Mookoma, on Sunday. They went down to view the work that had been done through the week and were agreeably surprised.

It is rumored that Superintendent Stevenson, of Pa. & N. Y. division of the Reading system, will soon resign to make room for a new superintendent who is more in accord with the Reading system.

A surprise party was given by the young people of LaPorte at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wrede's, on Saturday evening. A goodly number of young people were present and a pleasant time enjoyed.

The county commissioners at a meeting some months ago decided to erect election booths on the fair ground during the exhibition, hence the suggestions of the Review man comes to late for any earthly use.

Mrs. Dunham, mother of Atty. E. M. Dunham, was 80 years old on Thursday Sept. 1st. She was among the guests at the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ingham and seemed almost as young as she used to be.

Miss Mollie Keeler of LaPorte, who left for Melbourne, Australia about the 1st of May '92, arrived at her destination on the 10th of July. She enjoyed her trip very much and is in the best of health.

Mr. Gaynor's steam machinery is arriving in town daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reynolds of the 'Mere, were calling on friends at LaPorte, Tuesday.

Thos. Mahaffey of Dushore, the Democratic nominee for sheriff, passed through town, Tuesday.

Daniel Dougherty the silver tongued orator, died at his residence in Philadelphia, on Monday.

The old soldier boys mean to stand by Tom Simmons, their old comrade in this campaign regardless of politics.

Thos. S. Simmons of Stonestown the People's candidate for Sheriff, was in town Tuesday. Tom says that his Democratic friends mean to be very liberal with him this Fall and that he shall not forget them in the future.

E. K. Gaynor son of contractor E. J. Gaynor, of Pottsville, arrived at LaPorte, on Monday evening and will assist his father and Mr. Gleim in looking after the grading of the W. & N. B. Mr. E. K. is one of the firm.

Nancy Hanks Goes in 2:05 1-4. Nancy Hanks the queen of the turf, lowered her record to 2:05 at Independence, Iowa, Wednesday last week. This remarkable time was made on a kite-shaped track, in the presence of 8000 people.

We are in receipt of pamphlet containing the rules and regulations and the premium list of the Milton eighth annual Fair which will take place on Sept. 27, 28, 29 and 30. The book was printed at the Milton Record office and is very neatly gotten up.

We were not to be afraid to wager our left arm that if Tom Simmons is elected sheriff, he will make one of the very best officers Sullivan county has ever had. This is a sincere expression and those best acquainted with Tom will bear us out in our assertion.

Lizzie Borden of Fall River, Mass., and who is suspected of murdering her father and mother, an account of which was given in the REPUBLICAN last week, was taken back to prison on Friday, where she will remain until the setting of the Grand Jury in November.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ingham celebrated their No. 1 anniversary on Thursday evening September 1st. A large number of young people were present and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. Numerous handsome and valuable presents were presented the hosts and hostess.

Complimentary tickets to the several county fairs are now being distributed. The editor has been remembered by adjoining counties and we presume that when the President of the Sullivan county agricultural society orders comp's. to be distributed, we shall not be forgotten at home.

E. P. Ingham of Philadelphia, was in town on Monday. Not satisfied to believe the report that work had actually been begun on the R. R., he came up to investigate for himself. He found the reports to be correct and returned to the city on Wednesday. The REPUBLICAN is official.

Gotie, the frenchman who resides on the Russell farm near Celestia, was brought before Robt. Stormont, J. P. for trespass on Monday. It appears that the frenchman took possession of this place without permission and judging from the testimony of the witnesses in the case the man is "stuck" on the farm. The piff. was awarded $200. damages.

Mr. Walter Spencer while working on his saw mill at LaPorte, met with a severe accident on Wednesday. He was looking after the edger saw when the sleeve of his coat caught on the teeth and held his arm against the saw until it severed a fearful gash in his flesh. Dr. Hill was absent from home and J. W. Ballard and B. A. Conklin assisted in doing up the wound. We fear that Mr. Spencer will be obliged to wear a sling for many weeks.

Jerry Young of Dushore was in town Wednesday talking politics. Jerry pitched his melodious voice to high "ee" and offered to bet with a young man of Muncy Valley, fifty or a hundred dollars that he was not carrying any of Josh Lull's bootie. It is the Jackson faction of Sullivan county who would like to see Josh elected Member, but the working people are quite the reverse. It is our opinion that with three or four handsome young men in the field working for Mr. Lull, similar to that of Jerry—Daniel Huckell's majority will reach two hundred or more. Jerry is a right smart politician.

The Band Serenades Contractors Gaynor and Gleim.

The LaPorte silver cornet band gave the contractors of the W. & N. B. railroad a serenade on Saturday evening. The boys are considerable out of practice, but all things considered, they did right well. Mr. Gaynor presented the organization with a ten dollar bill and it was understood that Mr. Gleim was to deliver a speech, but owing to fatigue and a bad cold, requested to be excused, and suggested that a foot race take the place of a speech in the evening exercises. This, Mr. Gaynor, who was master of ceremonies readily approved of and said that Paddy Quinn his barn boss could get there with any of them. Mr. Gleim had an idea that Harry Hill their book keeper could get away with Paddy and the match was soon arranged. The ground was selected on Main St., between the Mountain House and the corner of the Court House square opposite the LaPorte Hotel. Bets were even and the runners took their stand. F. H. Ingham was chosen as starter and at the drop of the handkerchief the boys were off. It was very exciting but Paddy got there just the same. The band extend thanks to Mr. Gaynor for favors shown and wish him and his associate Mr. Gleim lots of good luck and success in the work they have recently contracted to perform.

WOMEN KILLED BY SNAKES.

Deadly Copperheads Attack and Fatally Wound Mother and Daughter.

SHARPTOWN, Md., Sept. 4.—Captain Wilber Martin arrived here yesterday from the oyster beds with the first authentic report of the thrilling encounter at Frostburg between Martha Hardcastle and her 15-year-old daughter, Ellen, and a huge copperhead snake, which terminated in the death of both women. Mrs. Hardcastle, with her daughter, went to the woods to gather berries. They had hardly entered the woods when two snakes attacked them. The smaller one was dispatched by the young woman. The mother, in her efforts to kill the other, was struck by the venomous reptile. Ellen rushed to her aid and was likewise bitten. Both managed to get home where they died in great agony two hours later. Mr. Hardcastle who is the captain of a dredging boat, did not return home until the next day and upon being apprised of the awful calamity that had overtaken his family, became a raving maniac and was with great difficulty prevented from taking his life. Two weeks previous a woodchunter named Smith was bitten by a rattler in the same place and died. Frostburg is the name of a cross roads in the lower part of Wicomico County, Md., and it is said that that vicinity is the only place on the Peninsula where poisonous snakes are found.

A POLITICAL DUEL LIKELY.

Kolb Strikes an Intoxicated Abolitionist and is Challenged.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 4.—A sensational street difficulty, occurred in this city about 6 o'clock last evening. Captain Pollard, a prominent politician, while slightly under the influence of whiskey approached Captain Kolb, late candidate for Governor, and demanded to know if Kolb intended to turn the State over to the Republicans. Kolb replied that the question was not a proper one to be asked or answered. Pollard insisted on a reply, hot words followed, when Pollard called Kolb a liar, and Kolb struck Pollard. Friends interfered and prevented serious trouble. Pollard afterward approached Kolb and reaching out his hand asked if Kolb would give him that satisfaction due from one gentleman to another, which was understood by the friends of both to mean a challenge. Kolb turned on his heel and left Pollard, whom he discovered was still drinking. Some of Pollard's friends say he will apologize when he recovers himself, while others think the trouble has not ended. The difficulty creates a great deal of excitement here.

The Democrats of Sullivan county say that they did not assist to put Lull and Mahaffey in the field and they don't propose to give this part of the ballot any aid at the general election. This ticket, as claimed by the rank and file of the Sullivan county Democracy, was forced upon them by a few of the leaders, and will fail a good many votes short of success, on the 8th of November. Candidates forced upon the people at a convention, are most apt to be condemned by the people.

Good Reasons Why the Bosses Should be Knocked Out.

There are many reasons why the majority of the Sullivan county Democrats will not support the entire ticket nominated by a number of the bosses of the party at their convention, held on the 9th of Aug. 1st. The bosses gave no attention to the wants of the majority of their voters, but pitched in head foremost and made the selection to suit themselves. The voters of Democracy say that any other man in the county is preferable to Josh Lull for Member, and that his relations with the corporations have not been endorsed by the people of Sullivan and in their judgment never will be.

2d. Mr. Lull showed his contempt for the people of our county when he loaded his household goods for Minneapolis or some other place immediately after the 1888 campaign, when the people of our county refused to endorse him as our Member at Harrisburg. This little incident is still fresh in the minds of the Sullivan county voters which gave them the opportunity of seeing with their own eyes just how much love Lull has for the welfare of the Sullivan county people. They know too, that his business relations here would not detain him one second as he has no real estate to dispose of.

3d. The better class of the Democratic party consider Mr. Lull a "heeler" and they condemn him in harsh words for this ill gotten way of making friends. If reports are all true Josh will have to be mighty sly in making this campaign, should he use his old time tactics. Democrats who are displeased with his nomination are after him with a red hot iron.

4th. Mr. Lull has resided in our county in the neighborhood of twelve or thirteen years during which time he has paid but six dollars and forty-five cents county tax. During this time, however, he has invested in real estate in Minneapolis where he pays a very large tax. This shows his contempt for Sullivan county and that he is only remaining here for the honors of this office and to assist the corporations at Harrisburg for the lucrative position they have kindly given him.

It does not appear to us that a majority of our people with this knowledge of Mr. Lull—can give him their support on the 8th of November.

In reference to Mr. Mahaffey everybody knows that he is not competent and is not the proper man to be trusted with the office of Sheriff, hence there is not a ghost of a show for his election. It would be wise of Mr. Mahaffey to withdraw from the field thereby saving for himself the cost of a campaign and an overwhelming defeat. We shall in due time publish Mr. Mahaffey's record as Sheriff of Lycoming county which will startle the reading public.

Mr. E. J. Flynn of Jamison City and Miss Mamie Sheehan of LaPorte were married at St. Basil's church in Dushore on Tuesday Sept. 6th. Mr. Flynn was formerly of LaPorte, having served in the employment of James McFarlane & Co., as outside foreman for several years. He is recognized as a business, straight forward young man and has many friends where best known. Miss Mamie is one of our brightest young ladies. She has devoted much of her time in teaching school and has made a complete success of her engagements. During the summer vacations she has spent much of her time in looking after the interest of the Catholic Sunday School in the 2nd Ward and increased the interest in the same to a considerable extent. Mr. and Mrs. Flynn have our best wishes. May their path be strewn with roses.

Look Out for Him.

A man was arrested in Milton last week who may make his appearance in this section, and it will be well for everybody to be on the lookout for him. He bought five cents' worth of caramel at a drug store, mixing it with a quantity of water, had a fluid that resembled extract of vanilla so closely that he readily succeeded in fleecing a number of people with it. He was arrested, fined and released. If he comes here don't let him swindle you.

The Republicans of Wyoming county held their convention on Monday of last week and made the following nominations: For member, Samuel Decker; for county treasurer, Orin P. Farr; for dist. atty, James E. Frear; for county surveyor, Harry J. Frear. This is said to be a strong ticket and like the past year the Republicans of Wyoming claim that the entire ticket will be elected.

John L. Sullivan Finds More Than a Match in Corbett.

The two fighting pugilists—Sullivan and Corbett fought for the championship of the world, on Wednesday. Up to this date, we have not learned the result. Corbett has our best wishes, however. By Telephone.

—Corbett whipped the big giant—Sullivan on the 21st round. Hurrah!

Mrs. S. F. Colt, Jr., of Cheektowaga, N. Y., is visiting friends in town.

THE G. A. R. ARRANGEMENTS.

Chairman Edson and the President Have a Brief Conference.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—In compliance with the request of the President Chairman Edson, of the committee of arrangements for the G. A. R. encampment, went to the White House to-day and had a long conference with him relative to the Grand Army encampment and the progress of the management. Mr. Edson told the President what was being done and the present condition of the preparations and the prospects of a successful and well attended meeting. The President inquired into the detail with evident interest and listened to the narrative of the work accomplished by the citizens' committee with attention. The President is well satisfied with the arrangements.

The horrible accident which occurred near Tivoli on Friday Aug. 30, resulting in the death of Mr. Wm. Taylor displays the gross negligence and indifference of the average supervisor for the safety of the traveling public. It is reasonable to presume that the sad disaster would have been obviated had there been suitable guard rails along the edge of the embankment instead of the small useless logs. The taxpayer has a right to expect and demand that all dangerous places along the public highway be properly guarded. There are a number of dangerous embankments in the vicinity of LaPorte and especially along the Nordmont road that should be immediately protected.
