By the doings of the day one would scarcely believe that there are so many people in the vicinity of LaPorte, however, when the shades of evening fall our streets are packed with people walking to and fro.

The first locomotive ever seen in LaPorte was drawn through our streets on Friday evening last. It was Mr. Gaynor's engine which he uses for transporting dirt while grading. The locomotive will be it to work in the near future.

Tammany is mismanaging the quarantine of the largest port of the Union just as Tammany mismanages all the work of administration. Next winter ought to see the end of local quarantine and the substitution of an efficient national service.

The twenty-day quarantine enforced by the order of President Harrison against all incoming vessels from foreign ports, is a right measure. Prompt and vigorous efforts are needed to keep that dreadful scourge, Asiatic cholera, from our shores, and to have delayed the matter a single day would have been criminally negligent.

Drop in and subscribe for the REPUBLICAN while in town court week. The REPUBLICAN is the only live paper published in the county and our price is the lowest. Only $1.00 a year. We will send you the REPUBLICAN from this date until the 11th of November for the small sum of 15 cents. Our list is increasing at the rate of 4 and 6 a week. Get in the boat.

County Commissioners—McBride and Cheney accompanied by their clerk, R. M. Stormont, are in attendance at the Commissioners' Convention in Pittsburgh this week. Matters that were talked over at the recent Convention including the "Portable Mill" idea will be voted upon at this meeting. You can depend upon it, that Sullivan county will vote in favor of levying a tax on these enterprises.

We are informed that a "Casino" will be erected on the island in Lake Mokoma early next spring. This is a beautiful site for a building of this kind and will be very attractive to guests. A steam boat will also be placed on Lake Mokoma in the spring which will afford transportation to the place of amusement and add business to both enterprises. Lake Mokoma with several thousand dollars expended will make a very pretty summer resort.

John E. Gallagher returned from Sioux City, Iowa, on Friday evening. The Mrs. and baby have been here for sometime. John will assist his father-in-law Mr. Kennedy in looking after Hotel Kennedy. We predict that John will make a first-rate landlord. D. J. The Wyoming Democrat is complaining that the Republicans of the Wyoming Congressional district has placed in nomination a man who it elected will look after the interests of the railroads and monopoly in general. That's just the kind of a man a few of the leaders of the Sullivan county Democracy have placed in nomination for Member of this county in the person of M. J. Lull. Day are you not of the opinion that a defeat of both of these candidates would be the proper thing for the tax payers to do?

Sheriff Knapp, accompanied by Chief of Police Wilcock, of Towanda, started for Montreal Monday night to bring home the Marks murderers. He took along a roll of county money to get them out of lock with, for the Dominion government has something over $300 invested in them in the way of board bills, court fees, etc., and refuses to give them up until it is paid. The officials went by rail to Oswego, where they took a boat down the St. Lawrence. They are expected back some time the latter part of this week.—New Age.

The officers with their prey arrived at Tunkhannock on Saturday.

The debris along the shores of Lake Mokoma will be cleared away in the near future. This will add very much to the appearance of the lake.

D. T. Huckell the people's candidate for Member is a farmer, not by name but one who actually tills the soil and gains a livelihood by the products of the farm, hence, should receive the support of all tillers of soil who want legislation in the interest of the farmer. Gentlemen you have the control of this election in your hands and should you prefer Lull the monopoly candidate to one of your own class, why, vote him in and suffer the consequences. Mr. Huckell, however, has proven himself to be much the ablest man of the two and if elected will spare no pains in looking after the wants of the Sullivan county people, while on the other hand should Mr. Lull be successful he will devote his time to the wants of the monopoly. Which do you prefer?

A special dispatch from Harrisburg says: There appears to be some doubt as to the ability of the Marietta Manufacturing Company to turn out all the election booths necessary to supply the several counties of the State for the approaching November election. Over 10,000 of the 23,000 booths required are yet to be made and the manager of the company says it will require steady work with no mishaps to complete the contract by Nov. 1.—Ez.

We are pleased to state that the voters of Sullivan county have been looked after in this matter, hence, the candidates will not be on the anxious seat in wait for the proper paraphernalia to come that they may be properly voted into office. The election booths have been distributed throughout the county and the guard rails arrived on Monday and will be distributed at once. The boxes are being made in the county and will shortly be ready for distribution, hence, Sullivan county will be numbered with the first in readiness to vote under the new system. Nothing like having a wide awake board of Commissioners, is there Newell?

H. W. Meylert of Susauville, California and son of Wm. Meylert of LaPorte, was nominated by the Republican party for the office of county treasurer of Lassen county Cal., on Saturday Aug. 20th. Howard has been elected twice to this office and has served the people so well that Mr. Fairfield one of the representatives of the convention said:

"I move that the nomination of H. W. Meylert be made by acclamation. As near as I can learn a number of the Democratic party are so anxious to vote for Mr. Meylert that they cannot sleep nights, and I think it is our duty to make their minds easy and give them a chance to do something."

This motion was carried and Howard in response said: "Mr. Chairmen and gentlemen of the convention, 'I thank you for the honor you have bestowed upon me, and if elected will endeavor to fulfill the duties of the office to the best of my ability, as I have or tried to do in the past and will do in the future."

Howard's many friends of LaPorte will be pleased to learn that he is so well thought of in his new home and will join with the REPUBLICAN in wishing him returned to the office which he has so ably filled for the past six years.

A RECTOR'S RECEPTION.

The Congregation of St. John's Free Church Testify Their Appreciation of Their New Rector.

The congregation of the Free Church of St. John, at Cemetery avenue and Emerald street, gave a reception last evening to their new rector, Rev. Samuel P. Kelly. The handsome edifice was decorated with plants and flowers. Addresses were made by Ephraim Shord, James McLaughlin, the Rev. William H. Harrison, the former Rector of the Church, and the Rev. Mr. Kelly. A song service was held, at the conclusion of which refreshments were served.

Although Rev. Mr. Kelly has been connected with the church only two months, he has raised a debt of $300, and the church is now clear. Previous to taking his present charge he had been engaged in missionary work in the central part of Pennsylvania.—Phila. Ledger.

The Rev. Samuel P. Kelly will be long and favorably recollected by our citizens, from his successful efforts towards having the beautiful new Church of St. John erected in our town. Last fall, he was compelled to take a European trip on account of his health, and an affection of his eyesight, both of which he has now fully recovered. On his return this summer, he was at once appointed to the Rectorship of St. John's Free Church, in Philadelphia, by the Right Rev. O. W. Whitaker, Bishop of Pennsylvania. We wish him all prosperity in his new sphere of action.

Sullivan County Roads.

The first road of which we have any record, is the Indian trail, following up Sugar Run, from the North Branch (near Wyalusing) thence running in a Southwesterly direction, crossing the head waters of Little Loyal Sock and Birch Creek. Crossing the Big Loyal Sock near the point where the Berwick turnpike now crosses that stream, and from thence to the head waters of Muncy Creek, following its course to the West Branch. This road must have been traveled by the Indians for a long time. We find when the Moravian Missionaries with the colony of Christian Indians emigrated to Ohio from Wyalusing, a part of the company took this route under the care of a missionary by the name of Ettevein. The larger party going with their moveable goods in thirty canoes, down the river, and up the West Branch to the mouth of Muncy Creek, where the companies were again joined. The overland party consisted of fifty-four members, having with them sixty head of cattle and fifty horses and colts. This journey was made between the 11th and 16th of June 1772. The Wallas' farm, is mentioned as the place where they disposed of a part of their horses and cattle. This road was probably by the Wallases in making their first surveys in this county. The next road mentioned is known as the Wallas road. Its direction from the Muncy Settlement was nearly north to the Summit of the allegheny, crossing the sources of the Ogdonian, Rock and Kettle creeks, thence along the mountain northward to a point above Forksville, where it descends to the valley. This road is presumed to have been made as early as 1790. About 1794 the Asylum Company opened a road from the termination of the Wallas road to their settlement near Laddsburg. It passed up Sick Creek, through Forks and Overton townships connecting with the road built from the Asylum village to Laddsburg.

The third road built became one of great importance as a thoroughfare and known as the Geeneose Road, passing over the allegheny mountain near Highland Lake, descending to the valley of the Ogdonian Creek to the Loyalsock, thence up the Loyalsock crossing the creek at Hills Grove, following the creek to the mouth of Elk Creek, following that stream to Lincoln Falls, from thence to Eldredsville, crossing the county line in the Haverly Settlement and following down Mill Stone Run to the Shraider Branch of the Towanda Creek. The date of building this road is not definitely given but is believed to be prior to 1798, as we find in connection with the history of the M. E. church, that the Loyalsock circuit Northumberland district of the Baltimore conference was organized that year, its route extending from Muncy to Burlington. We propose to publish from time to time the results of our investigations relative to our highways, and as inquiry has been made relative to our sources of obtaining information, will state that the collection of papers left by Michael Meylert are found to contain considerable information and that Hon. T. J. Ingham has placed at our disposal, a large amount of material gathered at different times, and that we have drawn upon the published papers of Hon. C. D. Eldred as well as private information furnished by him, yet we are also under obligations to the editors of our county papers for such help as they could furnish, yet we are far from having material enough for a county history.

WM. MEYLERT.

WILL THEIR BE A STRIKE.

The Entire Reading System May Be Involved.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—A strike is being prepared for on the whole system of the Reading Railroad Company. The strike, if it takes place, will include the brakemen, the conductors, the locomotive engineers and probably the telegraph operators. The Grievance Committee which called on President McLeod were instructed to offer the alternative of a strike. The grievance of the employes is that their wages is not in accordance with the rates allowed on other roads. They therefore ask that an increase of 20 per cent, be given and that the working day be reduced one hour.

The REPUBLICAN, as usual gave its readers the result of the Sullivan-Corbett fight one week in advance of the Dushore papers. The REPUBLICAN is wide awake and up with the times. Subscribe for the only live newspaper in the county.

The militia will stay at Homestead until all necessity for their presence has disappeared. This is right; nevertheless, the fact that the people have to foot the bills, suggests that the state ought to provide, in some way, for the prevention of disputes between corporations and their workmen, by arbitration, or some other peaceable method.

HE WILL VOTE FOR HARRISON.

A Prominent Gotham Manufacturer Deserts the Democratic Party.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Florian Grosjean, a life long Democrat, today announced his intention to vote for Harrison and Reid. Mr. Grosjean is a native of France, and came to America forty-two years ago. Some thirty-one years ago he established a spool factory in a basement at the corner of Hester and Elizabeth streets, employing only three men. That was the nucleus of the large industry of which he is to-day the head. Both times that Cleveland ran he voted and worked for him and helped in the party's hurrah when he was elected, but he said to-day:

"I can no longer antagonize my own interests and the interests of the 1400 men in our employ by lending encouragement to a free trade propaganda. It is plain to me that the establishment of a free trade system would eventually force us to close our factory and throw out of work the operatives, most of whom have now comfortable homes on Long Island. Personally I would strain a point to vote for Mr. Cleveland, but practical experience has given me a fear of the results of free trade. 'I am out squarely for protection and reciprocity. That means mutual free trade, and we will not be giving away something for nothing. The increase in our trade with South American countries since reciprocity measures have gone into effect has created consternation in England. That in itself is eloquent. I intend to do all I can to help elect Harrison and Reid, and shall take pains to see to it that the employes in my care have a thorough opportunity to gain a clear understanding of the questions at issue in this campaign."
