Farmers and Laboring Men Look at This.

How do you like to have the Vice President of Reading Coal and Iron Company, President of Montour Iron Company, Director in Reading much less control it by their money Railroad Company, Director in Sunbury and Lewisburg Railroad as they do? The people vania for the great Reading corporation, and a man who is largely interested in other corporations, to repverton, of Northumberland county, a conflict between the people and who was elected to Congress two the corporations, it is because these years ago, by the toiling voters of creatures and beneficiaries of ours this District, and who again asks for not satisfied with princely priviour sufferages. As the District is their legitimate part as investments Democrat but in a conversation strongly Democratic, he will of of trade or transportation, they arcourse, unless all Democrats who are opposed to corporation rule in government affairs, join to defeat him, be re-elected to again representation. sent the railroads, at Washington.

that we are drifting so far from the publican candidate for Congress, is ideal conception of government as an honest and intelligent farmer and conceived by the founders of the a poor man. Let us honor him and Republic, that we are a government ourselves by giving him our votes. "by and for the people" only in name. I am not an alarmist, but let every poor and patriotic man tremble, when autocrats, aristocrats, corporationists and money bags shall run this government. "Shall," I said, rather should I have said for such men and such influences do. every poor and patriotic man such men and such influences do practically run the government. And whose fault is it? The fault of the Harvey's Lake railroad and the voters themselves. If by will we in blind loyality to party, stab ourselves and our country. Can any honest man answer? Can any just railroad is now completed and a Creek, Clinton county, is visiting train was run through last week friends in this place and Forksville. ly made. You may be told that the fact that Mr. Wolverton is so rich and holds so many high positions, is proof of his ability, and shows that he is qualified to act as representative in Congress. It is proof of one thing: Simply this, and I know whereof I write, for I have been his neighbor; he, early in his carrer, as a lawyer. secured great corporation clients, and with their big fees, and his interest in their profits as a stockholder and official, soon grew rich and influential. He sold his services to corporations so that no man could secure his services against them, even if he went to him with that same public whom he has rewhere, through legislation, he can continue his labors for the corpora- 19. tions as against the common people.

A corporation attorney tar cloth. should be made to accept, as his due reward for his barter, the large pay he receives from his clients and with it exclusion from any legislative or other office, where he can reap additional reward and do additional service to his friends, and further injury to the public. Virtual ineligibility to public position should be the legitimate and logical doom of the ultra corporationist, whether attorney, agent or confidential employee.

Corporations have no right to direct representation in legislative corporations their rights and franprofits, the thing which all business corporations are after.
