New York, Oct. 31.—Mr. Carter was feeling particularly bright over the reports from this State to-day and talked with your correspondent about the general situation. "In the opinion of the members sate. Barely four months of it has been and now awaits ex-radition. "In the election of Harrison is sasured. Our belief is not based on hope, but on absolute knowledge of the conditions prevailing in the so-called close States. We feel certain we have 211 electoral votes out side of the so-called doulful State-—Indiana, New York, New Jerzey, Connecticut and West Virginia. "In the West we are not admitting "I
