The fusion ticket in Bradford county was cut to the heart. The nominees on this ticket received less votes than the usual Democratic ticket. The fusion "jig" is "up" in Bradford county.

Luke E. Walls, the Dushore miller, was in town transacting business, Monday. He has the contract of furnishing Gaynor & Co. with flour feed etc., and it keeps two teams busy hauling supplies.

An exchange says: "that a wagon maker who had been hump for years, picked up a hub and spoke. Yes, and a blind carpenter on the same day reached out for his plane and saw; and a deaf ranchman, went out with his dog and herd; a noseless fisherman caught a barrel of herring and smelt; a defunct hatter was deposited upon a pile of hats; and a forty ton elevator fell into a grate."

A number of our LaPorte Democrats took part in the Democratic demonstration at Williamsport, Wednesday night.

Josh M. Lull had 500 majority. Josh's friends has increased quite rapidly since 1888. He goes from the grind stone to the top shelf.

The telephone line between this place and Lake Mokoma was constructed on Saturday. This enterprise makes it very convenient for Mr. Gaynor to converse with the railroad officials.

Three hundred and ninety-six majority is not very much to overcome. We will get there after while. This county will improve in many ways with the completion of the several railroads.

A grand Thanksgiving ball will be given at Hotel Kennedy on Wednesday evening November 23d and a general invitation is extended to all. The best of music will be in attendance. Bill $1.50.

Frank Reuder Esq., who conducted the chairmanship of the Republican party of Pennsylvania during the recent campaign, will be a candidate for Governor. General Hastings is also a candidate.

The grading of the railroad along the banks of Lake Mokoma, was completed last week. The larger force of men now engaged on the railroad are at work in the vicinity of Nordmont and between this place and Rings.

The Cleveland boys of LaPorte celebrated on Thursday. There was no bon-fire ignited, but there was lots of fire water put down. In the evening a quarrel took place at the LaPorte Hotel when pistols were flashed in the air and it became necessary to call on the constable to quiet the disturbance.

Our job department is chucked up full. On Saturday six were hung on the hook and three completed. The REPUBLICAN is the only equipped office in the county, hence, we do neater and cheaper work than either of our contemporaries. Come this way when you want a first class job done for small money.

Competent Sullivan county Democrats should lose no time in requesting appointments at Washington under the newly elected administration. The Republicans as well as Democrats would be pleased to see our people reap some of the spoils. Don't be backward, you never received anything you didn't ask for.

Master Victor Smyth of LaPorte, was ten years of age, on Tuesday the 15th, and in honor of the event Victor's playmates gave him a surprise party in the evening. There were some fifteen or twenty little folks present and all express a very pleasant evening. Victor was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents.

Wyoming county gave Harrison a majority of over one hundred, on Tuesday the 8th. The Republican county ticket was only successful in part, however. Piatt for Member and Overfield for County Treasurer and both on the Democratic ticket were elected. The Republicans elected Dist. Atty. and County Surveyor.

Cleveland received 1260 votes in Sullivan county in 1888. On Tuesday the 8th his vote was 1261, hence, the Democratic vote in Sullivan has increased one during the past four years while the Republican vote has fallen off about in proportion with the Prohibition vote 82. It is evident that the middle parties are drawing more from the Republican party than from the Democratic.

Would-be-post-masters are plenty at Dushore. There are five applicants seeking the appointment under the newly elected administration. They are as follows: G. E. Donahue, Geo. Deegan, Nathan Persun, Lot McHenry and John Finan. Messrs. Donahoe, Deegan and Finan have petitions in circulation. A trifle early boys, but then the early bird catches the worm.

The victorious Democrats are so anxious to get at the McKinley bill that they will not have the patience to wait until December 1893. Already they are demanding that the new Congress be convened as soon after the 4th of March as possible, so that the obnoxious law can be wiped from the statute books. Republicans are fully as impatient and will acquiesce in the haste so strongly manifested. The earlier the better. The most popular thing that the new President can do would be to convene Congress on the 5th of March, if it were possible for the members to get there. They might be notified in advance, however. Let us have "reform" and with a vengeance.

Good Bye To Politics For A Time.

We have had a very clean and pleasant campaign, but every campaign is more or less distasteful, and we are all glad that it is over. For several weeks the only news which the majority of readers cared much for was political news. Everything else was secondary to the great question of who should be the next President. That question is settled now, and newspapers can go back to normal conditions and give general news. The REPUBLICAN has undertaken to give the political news freely, and to give it fairly. We have not knowingly published anything as news or editorial which was not warranted by the facts, and while some things may have displeased some readers this is one of the invariable things in every campaign. Now, with the campaign finished, with this hard political work done, we turn again to a normal newspaper work with that relief which every newspaper feels when every kind of news has its due importance and one kind does not practically exclude and overshadow every other. There is much in business which is highly encouraging, and hereafter the REPUBLICAN will give in each issue, in the Story of the Week, a brief review of the business outlook. In business matters in home and foreign news, in useful suggestions to young men, in everything which goes to the making of a home newspaper it will endeavor to be especially helpful and readable in the coming months. For a time, good bye to politics, and hail and welcome to the general news of the world!

As the outcome of this state of affairs an indignation meeting was held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Merchantville town hall which was attended by two hundred of the most prominent citizens of the locality. It was presided over by Thomas C. Knight, the President of the Philadelphia Brokers' Exchange, and a committee of three, consisting of John Morton, Edward Nash and Frederick Kleintz was appointed to confer with Camden County Prosecutor Jenkins, who conducted the case against Lingo, and see what could be done to keep the acquitted negro from returning to the neighborhood.

Resolutions were presented, (and although referred to a committee of five were practically adopted) censuring ex-Judge Westcott, senior counsel for Lingo, expressing sympathy with John Miller, husband of the murdered woman and disapproving of the abrupt ending of the trial. The committee, comprised John Allen, Charles Hollingshead, Edward W. Morris, William Longstreth and Morris Riederer, all of whom are wealthy and influential, and to whom the resolutions were referred, will probably augment them.

The meeting adjourned to meet at the same place to-morrow night at eight o'clock, when a definite line of action will be determined upon. The citizens argue that as the murderers of Miss Annie Leoney and Mrs. Annie Miller, both of which occurred within their midst, are unavenged, there is no safety for them; that their lives and the lives of their families are in constant peril and that precautions must be taken. They fear that the acquittal of Chalkley Leoney and Francis Lingo, of the respective murders, the latter also being arrested for the first crime, will set a lawless precedent to many of the five hundred negroes of Matchtown, a suburb of Merchantville, which might result in another mysterious killing. They also fear that someone should be hanged to each murderer, but as there is no probability of either mystery ever being cleared, the best they can do is to take, in a measure, the law in their own hands and protect their homes by aggressive methods. The Matchtown negroes are aroused and threaten vengeance upon any one who shall maltreat Lingo.

Lingo says he never will return to Merchantville, and as his life would be in danger were he to do so, it is believed he will be an unknown quantity in those parts. He will exhibit himself in a dime museum in this city during the coming week.

The tramp was caught near the round-house of the Pittsburg, Rochester and Buffalo railroad, and a crowd of angry men were hurrying preparations to lynch him when the police officers arrived and a struggle began for possession of the prisoner. The officers would have lost their man had not some of the citizens joined them and induced the would-be-lynchers to listen to reason. Finally the terror-stricken wretch was surrendered to the authorities. He claims to hail from Albany, N. Y.

A Big Order for Machinery Canceled as a Result of the Election. PITTSFIELD, Mass., Nov. 13.—E. The projectors say they have decided not to go on owing to the result of the recent election.

Here is one instance where perhaps one thousand men are thrown out of employment owing to the success of a free trade administration. We can look for many more in the near future.

Streby's "break" last week in his remark that the telephone between LaPorte and Dushore was owned and manipulated by Republicans and for this reason he could not get the election news from this end of the county for publication; is another exhibit of Streby's ignorance. The line between this place and Dushore has been out of order for some weeks and further it is leased by the W. & N. B. railroad, who has recently repaired it as far as Dohm's Summit. Mr. Marston, chief engineer of the W. & N. B. looks after it at this end, to whom Streby owes an apology.

The line also extends to Dr. Hill's residence where the main office of the W. & N. B. is located.

IN FEAR OF THEIR LIVES.

The Acquittal of Lingo Stirs Up Merchantville.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—The good people of Merchantville, New Jersey are in arms because of the acquittal yesterday in Camden of Francis Lingo, colored, the alleged murderer of Mrs. Annie Miller. Their anger knows no bounds, and in intermingled with fear that some one else may be murdered in that vicinity, and the perpetrator go unpunished, the wives and daughters of the well-to-do residents, and they are numerous, actually dread to leave their homes alone for fear that something might happen them.

As soon as it was learned yesterday afternoon that Lingo was a free man threats of lynching him, should he return to the community, were freely made, and to-day these expressions grew in earnestness and volume.

As the outcome of this state of affairs an indignation meeting was held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Merchantville town hall which was attended by two hundred of the most prominent citizens of the locality. It was presided over by Thomas C. Knight, the President of the Philadelphia Brokers' Exchange, and a committee of three, consisting of John Morton, Edward Nash and Frederick Kleintz was appointed to confer with Camden County Prosecutor Jenkins, who conducted the case against Lingo, and see what could be done to keep the acquitted negro from returning to the neighborhood.

ELECTION EXPENSES.

The Amount Paid the Election Boards of the Several Boroughs and Townships of Sullivan County.

From figures furnished us by Commissioner's Clerk R. M. Stormont, it is seen that the county paid the officers who sat at the different polling places in Sullivan county during the late election, a total of $444.20. This does not include the expenses of delivering the booths and other paraphernalia and blanks made necessary by the new law, nor does it include the Sheriff's Proclamation, but as it is, the election officer's expenses are not much greater than they were at former elections. The figures for the different districts are as follows:

Table listing election expenses by district: Bernice ($29.50), Cherry ($35.00), Colley ($30.90), Dushore ($29.50), Davidson ($29.70), Elkland ($31.50), Forks ($31.50), Fox ($35.00), Forkville Boro ($30.50), Hills Grove ($32.00), Jamison City ($17.70), LaPorte Boro ($23.50), LaPorte Twp ($28.70), Lopez ($30.30), Shrewsbury ($29.90).

Here are the amounts per day allowed the different officers. File it away for reference and hereafter your election bills will be made out correctly. Judge of election $1.50; inspectors, $1.50; clerks, $1.50; Constable $2.00; assessor, $2.00; mileage 10c, circular; room rent $5.00. The owner of the building in which the elections are held, are supposed to take down and put up the election booths.

The following W. & N. B. railroad officials rode on horse back over the line of the W. & N. B. on Tuesday and Wednesday, viz: Hon. H. C. McCormick of Williamsport and president of the road, Col. H. K. Nichols, Philadelphia, Chas. E. Webster, Philadelphia, E. R. Payne, David Bly, H. T. Meyer, F. E. Embick all of Williamsport and B. G. Welch general manager of the W. & N. B. and C. W. Waddrop, both of Hughesville and John Marston, Jr., of LaPorte chief engineer. They were accompanied by Messrs. E. K. Gaynor and F. E. Gleim contractors and their engineer Mr. Herring.

Bradford county as usual, gave the Republican nominees over 3,000 majority. Oh! for five hundred of those fellows down this way. We may, however, be agreeably disappointed in the near future. Mr. Cleveland only had 396 majority on Tuesday the 8th.

The comet now approaching the earth, an exchange says, will almost equal in brilliance and celestial wonder that illuminated the heavens in 1858—this comet, old timers say, was so brilliant they could read by its light. It may now be seen in the eastern sky in the morning with the aid of an ordinary opera glass. It is rapidly becoming a magnificent sight.

Business Locals. Dr. J. L. Liberman. Regular visiting optician of Penn Yan N. Y., will again visit LaPorte stopping at the LaPorte Hotel for three days only November 22 and 23 for the purpose of testing all defective vision of young and old and fitting proper glasses. To all who may have peculiar or difficult glasses, by giving me a call can receive the best satisfaction without any cost for examination made.

The eye is a very delicately constructed organ and is easily injured beyond repair. Thousands are injuring their eyes by the use of imperfect and improperly fitted spectacles, and as I find that but very few who are using spectacles are using the proper correction for their eyes, and glasses that are not properly fitted are liable to irreparable damage. All persons who are using glasses should have their eyes examined at least once a year. I correct all errors of refraction, such as hypermetropia, Myopia, Astigmatism, Presbyopia, paralysis and spasm of accommodation, Strabismus, Accommodative and Muscular Asthenopia a specialty.

Twice a year the patients are called upon so that any change in the condition of their eyes can be noted and attended to, and a glasses change of me can be exchanged for new ones provided the same are in good condition and not scratched, chipped or broken.

Remember the date, November 23d and 24, at the LaPorte Hotel, three days only Oct. 21. Dr. J. L. LIBERMAN.
