MAXWELL MAY WIELD THE AXE.

A Strong Anti-Hill Man Slated for First Assistant Postmaster General.

ALBANY, Dec. 18. All doubts as to the attitude of the incoming administration toward the Hill-Murphy machine in this State were set at rest today when it was announced on good authority that the position of First Assistant Postmaster General under the incoming administration will be filled by the Hon. Robert A. Maxwell, of Batavia, Genesee County.

Ever since the revolt against Hill began, Mr. Maxwell has been a leader among the anti-Hill Democrats. He is a power throughout the western portion of the State, outside of Erie County, and two years ago, when Hill first began to trench himself in power, Mr. Maxwell held his counties solid for the Cleveland Democracy.

Since then he has been one of the most active of Hill's opponents. He was a leader in the agitation against the snap convention of last February and a prominent figure at the anti-snap mass meeting that met here to protest against the convention held in Syracuse in May.

Mr. Maxwell's record in State politics is good. He was elected to the State Committee in 1880, was twice chosen State Treasurer, serving from 1881 to 1885, and was State Superintendent of Insurance from 1886 to 1891. All of these offices he filled with credit.

Will Carry No Immigrants.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Mr. Peters, secretary of the North Atlantic Steamship Association, states that in view of the American regulations in regard to immigrants the association, at an extraordinary meeting held today, decided to carry on its vessels only saloon and second class passengers from January 1.

It was also decided to materially reduce the number of sailings during 1893, and to raise the saloon and second cabin rates in order to make up the loss that will be incurred through abandoning the steerage traffic.

All special excursion rates to the Chicago Columbian Exhibition have been withdrawn by the association and there is no doubt that this action will result in a large falling off in the number of foreign visitors to the World's Fair.

Our people are very much put out about the raise of coal at Bernice and feel that they are being unfairly dealt with. Of course they are at liberty to go elsewhere, but all things considered, it is quite the right step after receiving the patronage of our citizens for the past thirty or forty years?

The Pittston, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre coal is placed on our markets for one dollar less per ton than our own home production. It would appear in this case that home trade is not wanted. The officials of the Bernice mines ought to make some reduction to customers who are obliged to have their coal delivered some eight or ten miles on wagon or sleigh.

A Man Killed at Sand Run Bradford County.

Henry Haggerty, a resident of Sand Run, a mining town near Barclay, was struck by Wesley McDowell, in a fight Sunday night, and instantly killed. The affair took place at McDowell's residence at Sand Run. McDowell afterward went to the Foot of Plane and gave himself up to G. W. Blakeslee, Justice of the Peace, and was brought to Towanda Monday morning by Constable John Davis, and lodged in jail. A representative of the Republican visited him there yesterday, and his story is about as follows:

Sunday forenoon Haggerty, Wm. Hugo, McDowell and Emerson Haggerty went out to Chas. Hugo's, in Sullivan county, and traded him a horse, and while there were treated to cider, of which he, McDowell, drank three glasses. The party left Hugo's about five o'clock and reached home about 8 o'clock. Haggerty did not stop at his own home, but called to his wife as they passed to 'get supper for four.' At McDowell's they had supper, when McDowell and his wife had some words about the supper and the trade, which Mrs. McDowell did not approve of. She started to leave the house when McDowell says he pulled her back inside, when Haggerty said: 'You let up on that, or you will have me to deal with.' McDowell says he told Haggerty he could run his own house, when Haggerty grabbed him. He grabbed back, and then let loose, telling him to go away. 'He then threw off his coat and swore he would eat me,' says McDowell, and then I threw a pitcher at him. 'Then we clinched and he tried to bite me, when I pushed him away and struck him, and he fell to the floor.' According to McDowell's account there were several persons in the room at the time this happened, and were eye witnesses of the occurrence. He, McDowell, then went to the barn to assist the parties who brought them back from Hugo's, in hitching up their team, and while there was informed by his wife that Haggerty was dead. This happened at about 9 o'clock in the evening. McDowell soon after went to Foot of Plane, where he gave himself up to Justice Blakeslee. He stayed over night with a brother of Constable Davis, and was brought to Towanda and lodged in jail as above stated.

The National Temperance Advocate: Uneducated or wrongly educated voters will, as the recent great majority have done, vote wrong, and thereby strengthen and perpetuate the overmastering drink oligarchy. It is the function of the National Temperance Society, non-partisan and non-sectarian, to promote, through the agency of its literature and otherwise, the urgently needed primary, fundamental temperance education among the people.

It inculcates the personal duty of total abstinence, and urges the entire prohibition, State and National, of the brewing, distilling, and vending of intoxicants for drinking purposes. It invites the continued and increased co-operation of all friends of temperance in this important, indispensable educational work among the untaught masses until an enlightened, righteous public opinion shall crystallize into law.
