PLEASANT HILL ITEMS. Sunday was a very pleasant day. The concert last Friday evening

Mr. Purcell says that he won't believe the ground hog theory any more, for its nothing but a whim.

Owing to the lack of powder of the line of R. R., a number of the foreman in this vicinity were idle

Have you a jack knife? If you have keep it in your pocket and don't let it slip out, for it will cos you a dime to get it back again.

It appears that Mr. Mead i afraid of burglars, by the way he keeps guard,—a dog at each barn one in the house and another or ricket.

The cry of "whoeback Turk" heard ringing through the house a all hours of the night. We would suggest to the proprietor that a gag would help the poor boy to rest so that he would'nt get up so tired in the morning. Do you all agree

James White, formerly of Iows who has been making his home with his sister, Mrs. S. Mead, was taken with a choking spell on Saturday. Dr. Hill was called and pronounced it an attack of asthma. The old gentleman is slowly improving.

Christian Broschart lost a ver fine ox on Sunday. Chris was a work on the railroad and was said to have the best team of cattle or the line. He is a poor man athe loss strikes him pretty hard.
