WARRANT INSUED FOR ROCK. AFELLOW.

The Wilkes-Barre Banker Place Under Arrest at His Home.

WILKES-BARRE. Feb. 19.-Constable Shorlin, armed with a warrant issued by Alderman Zeigler at the instance of J. B. Rhoades, knocked at the door of the Rockafellow mansion at 10 o'clock Saturday night and demanded the body of F. C. Rockafellow, of the broken Rockafellow bank.

The banker's legal adviser, F. W. Wheaton, was in the honse and informed the constable that Mr. Rockafellow was so seriously sick as to be unable to leave his bed.

FIRST OF A SERIES OF SUITS. He gave the officer a physician's certificate to exonerate him from the responsibility of taking the banker before an alderman. He also saw Mr. Rhoades and got his consent to allow the warrant to remain until tomorrow, when Rockafellow can get bail.

Rhoades alleges that on January 31, 1893, Rockafellow in person accepted from him a deposit, knowing at the time that the bank was in to enter their own bonds. George I. Crawford was appointed Master. of suits which will be commenced by private depositors.

HE MAY GO TO JAIL. While Mr. Rockafellow will be able to procure bail in many cases it is thought his friends will not

The banker is seriously ill, and his physicians say it will be dangerous to disturb or excite him, as he is very weak in both body and mind.
