C. Miller of Dushore. Troy Court House Case.

The Troy Court House Case was argued before Judge Olmstead, of Potter county, in the Grand Jury room at the Court House on Wednesday. Delos Rockwell, Esq, of Troy, and Judge Wilson of Wells boro, appeared for the plaintiff, and McPherson and Angle, of this place for the County Commissioners.

The question to be decided is whether, the law passed establish ing a court at Troy the County Commissioners can be compelled to build a Court House at Troy at the county's expense. After listening to the arguments, Judge Olmstead took all the papers referring to the case, and reserved his decision .-Bradford Republican.

Ex-County Treasurer Edward Bergan is of the opinion that our county Treasurer should accept of less than five per cent commission and says, that that will be the issue next fall. Ed made this remark in the Treasurer's office on in looking over some old newspaper Friday and it was well taken by the majority of people present. Ed is surely a friend of the tax payers and is deserving of much credit for this bold assertion. There are but few democrats in our county who would have dared to advanced this reduction in the Treasurer's office. It is fair to presume that Mr. Bergan has named the issue of next Fall's campaign so far as this office is concerned.
