MR. HARRISON'S MOVEMENTS

HE ATTENDS CHURCH WE'TH AN OLD FRIEND, AT EAST LIBERTY.

Crowds Flock to Meet the Ex-President—He Talks of His Future Plans, and Leaves for His Old Home.

PITTSBURG, March 5 .- "I am glad to leave magnificence behind me," were the words of ex-President Harrison, in conversation with the playmate of his youth, his school and college chum and life-long friend and former pastor, Rev. Dr. Presbyterian church. The two were seated in Dr. Kumler's study at his residence, No. 413 South Highland avenue, enjoying an after- sheriff's returns in each of these dinner chat. The ex-President cases, under Law creditors act, confiled. stopped in Pittsburg en-route from firmed by the court. Washington to Indianapolis to spend a quiet, restful day with Mr. Kumler.

The special train bearing Mr. Harrison and his party arrived this case. about 8 o'clock this morning. The greeting between the ex-President and Dr. Kumler was very cordial. After a short drive the party were welcomed to the parsonage by Mrs. Kumler, who was a life-long intimate friend of the late Mrs. Harrison. After this recreation the ex-President will remain quietly at his home in Indianapolis, securing a much needed rest. Mr. Harrison's engagement with the Leland Stanford University in California, he says, will require only about one month of his time out of each year.

During next winter the ex-President will devote his time to writing the plaintiff against the Garnishee, a book. This book, Mr. Harrison says, will relate specially to a number of important matters connected with his administration that the public have not fully understood. They are, he says, of such a nature missioner. that, notwithstanding their importance, they will not become a matter allow defendants 10 days to plead. at Sngar Run.
