

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1893.

Spring fever is prevailing. Moving day is approaching. The snow and ice are passing away.

Our town supports one or two gentlemen.

St. Patrick's Day passed off very quietly at Laporte.

The feminine spring hat has no crown at all to speak of.

Prothonotary Walsh spent Sunday with friends at Dushore.

The people of Ithaca, N. Y. voted no license at a recent election.

Eugene Tripp, of Laporte lost a valuable cow, on last Thursday night.

The little robin red breast made its first appearance in this section on Monday morning.

Memorial day will soon be here. The band ought to re-organize and practice for the occasion.

Ward Hunsinger, of Dushore, is barbering for F. W. Gallagher, and a right good barber he is, too.

The Ettinger sale on Thursday last, was largely attended and the goods sold for pretty near their full value.

Miss Clara Keeler, of near Nordmont, will leave for Lock Haven on Saturday where she will attend school.

County Treasurer, William Murray, of Dushore, was doing business at the county seat, on Thursday of last week.

C. M. Warburton, of Lincoln Falls will sell his personal property at public sale, on Friday April 14th. For further particulars see hand bill.

Mrs. Cleveland is a real dyed-in-the-wool mugwump. In reply to a query in regard to her politics she replied: "I am a Cleveland Republican."

The late floods have damaged a good many places and railroads continue to increase the mortality records but office-seekers neither get drowned nor killed.

Why should office-seekers worry? Prof. Totten still insists that the world is going out of business next September. The Professor, however, still charges an admission fee to his lectures.

The new fractional currency to be issued in a few weeks will be in denominations of 10, 15, 25 and 50 cents and will resemble the old fractional currency issued during the war. It will be a very handy currency, particularly for remitting small amounts through the mails.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad officials have consented to a reduction of dividends to be paid by the Reading from 7 to 5 per cent. for the next two years, and have issued an address to the stockholders giving their reasons therefor. They believe it will be better than to take control of the property again.

As an advertising medium a quick response—the REPUBLICAN takes the lead. Last week F. W. Gallagher announced through our columns that he was desirous of a barber. On Monday his wish was gratified. Want ads published in the REPUBLICAN bring telegraph returns. The business men of the county should bear this in mind.

Our Member is an unknown quantity. He ought to do something to get his name before the people. We would suggest that he present a bill requiring the railroad officials to fence their property. With a bill of this kind before the Legislature and originated by Josh, would put a great big feather in his cap for a second term.

The "Hindoo Tea" spoken of in our last weeks issue is to be held at the house of Mrs. Charles Tinklepugh on Friday evening April 7th. The waiters consisting of fifteen young ladies and seven young men will be dressed in Hindoo costume. Mr. Ragbir the missionary will give a description of his people, their ways of living and religion. He will have curiosities from Hindoostan which he will show and explain.

Boys may laugh at this statement but it is a fact that deaths are occurring every day as the result of smoking cigarettes. George N., a son of the late Gen. Thomas Hoxsey, of Passaic, N. J., died the other day from habitual cigarette smoking. He had been in an insane asylum over a year, his mind having become unbalanced. Every day pale-faced, sickly looking boys are seen on our streets inviting death through the use of the cigarette.

Telephone connection between Boston and Chicago is announced as perfect, and messages are instantaneously transmitted over 1,250 miles of wire. The voice retains its natural tone and space seems veritably annihilated.

Some weeks ago Claude Polig and Mrs. Rebecca Rodis, wife of Samuel Rodis, of Sugarloaf township, eloped to parts unknown. Warrants were sworn out and a search was made for the guilty pair, who were found in a hotel at Laporte, one night last week, where they were staying as man and wife. They were arrested and turned over to Constable Shoemaker, of Sugarloaf township, who escorted them to Bloomsburg and lodged them in the county jail for trial at the next term of court.—Benton Argus.

We publish in this week's issue of the REPUBLICAN a statement of the financial condition of the Dushore First National Bank at the close of business, March 6th. This enterprise is enjoying a good solid business. The deposits, as will be seen are $127,636.06, and the profits are thus $6,818.99. This bank has proved of great service to the business men and commercial interest of the town in which it is located, and the surrounding country. May it live long and continue to prosper as of the past, is the wish of the REPUBLICAN.

The streets of Dushore are quiet, while in the hardware store of James Cunningham all is astir with packing orders of home customers and abroad. Mr. Cunningham is receiving orders from nearly every state in the Union for a supply of his "Farmer's Friend," which constitutes a kit of shoemaker tools and other useful implements serviceable to a farmer who in most cases reside some distance from a town. He shipped over one hundred outfits to parties in California and New York states last week.

The farmers and citizens of Sonestown and vicinity met on Thursday evening, March 16th, for the purpose of organizing a Grange, county deputy, M. R. Black assisted by Ulysses Bird, master of Elkland Grange, installed the following officers:

Master, W. J. Low; overseer, Jacob Myers; lecturer, L. R. Gavitt; steward, H. M. Piester; assistant steward, Irvin Dewald; chaplain, John J. Low; treasurer, John Kies; secretary, M. P. Gavitt; gate keeper, William Robbins; cere, Mrs. Amanda Gavitt; pomona, Mrs. Dora Piester; flora, Mrs. Clara Dewald; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Alida Gavitt; M. P. GAVITT, Secretary.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will give a sociable at the home of Mrs. Charles Tinklepugh Friday evening April 7. Mr. Ragbir a native of Hindoostan who is raising money to establish a school for girls in that country, will be present and entertain the company with songs and recitations in the Hindoo language. A "Hindoo Tea" will be served during the evening by waiters and waitresses in Hindoo costumes. Price 10 and 15 cents. Other arrangements are being made for a literary and musical entertainment and it is hoped that the occasion will prove an enjoyable one. All are cordially invited to attend.

Blank Remembers His Family. When Harris Blank and Isaac Rosenweig were arrested in Montreal, Canada, for the murder of Jacob Marks of Towanda, there was found in their possession, besides the goods belonging to the murdered man, some personal effects consisting of jewelry, gems, etc. After their trial, conviction and sentence, the court ordered their effects to be delivered to them, which was done. Blank having a desire to make a remittance to his family in Russia who are in destitute circumstances, turned his effects over to deputy Sheriff D. I. Thompson, who converted them into money which has been remitted for the relief of his family.

F. M. Crossley's team on the Nordmont stage line ran away on last Thursday evening. Frank was delivering an express package to the residence of Mr. Downs, when the horses took fright and ran down Muncy street to Main and thence home by the way of King and Cherry streets. The sleigh turned over while making the turn at the Laporte Hotel and mail bag, express packages, seats and in fact the entire contents of the sleigh were emptied in the street opposite of Mr. Keeler's residence. It was fortunate that there was no passengers, and especially women on board. Mrs. W. C. Mason barely escaped being run over by the horses at the crossing on King street.

He Is Rotten But Would Have the Public Believe Him a Lamb.

The poor jealous Blatherskite of the Dushore Review comes to the back door again and whines that the Auditors of the several townships did not give him the work of printing their tickets at the recent election. This mystery is easily solved. The Auditors know the bird. It is plainly observed that Blatherskite is a wolf dressed in lambs clothing. For instance, he quotes that he would have printed the tickets for the entire county for $1.59 less than the REPUBLICAN did eight of the several precincts. Let's see how this statement averages up with the charges he made for doing Colley township. Each of us know that there are 15 precincts in the county and that Colley the precinct that Blatherskite did the work for contains about the average number of voters. For this work Blatherskite charged $6.33. Now if he was to have received the printing of the 15 precincts the total would be this:

Blatherskite's charges—Colley twp $6.33
Fifteen precincts in the county 3165
633

Total $94.95

The actual cost to the county of the printing of the tickets was $93.36 hence, $1.59 less than Blatherskite would have done the work. This proves him to be a falsifier. Blatherskite has become proof hardened to these statements and he thinks nothing of them, but the people have got on to him and the truth of the matter is, the future of the Review appears very dark.

Here is another of his dirty little schemes. The printing of the Dushore tickets was done by the Reporter-Journal of Towanda and when this bill was handed to the County Commissioners there was also another of $9.00 for services rendered by the Auditors of Dushore borough. Blatherskite is one of them and the bill was made out in his beautiful handwrite. This bill was to pay the Auditors (so they said) for the time spent in putting their signatures on the ballots. This, however, did not strike Blatherskite, as he had an old fac-simile which was placed in the job and printed with the tickets, hence, he spent no time and was not entitled to one cent or three dollars. The bill was ignored. However, it shows the disposition of the man. He is rotten but would have the public believe him a lamb.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN. Dear Sir:—Nothing I have seen for a long time has afforded me the pleasure as that of the information that our old friend and former townsman, W. H. D. Green, was a candidate for County Treasurer in Bradford county, with excellent prospects of success. Mr Green came to our town as a boy when his father was elected County Treasurer of Sullivan county, living here until he went into the army as a member of company K, 141st Regt, Penna. Vols. He attended school at this place when Rev. Hallock Armstrong taught school here, and obtained a good common school education. He was always a favorite among those with whom he was acquainted, both old and young. He came of good fighting stock his father being a soldier in the war of 1812, and he has well kept up the reputation of the family as he served during the war with great credit. He was unfortunate enough to be captured by the Rebels during the Chancellorsville campaign with a great many more and from that time until the Spring of 1865 suffered all the hardships, privations and cruelties of Andersonville. For almost two years he was kept a prisoner at Andersonville and during that time no pen can portray the sufferings he endured. Upon his return from the army he again resided with us until he moved to Bradford County, and was the same kind genial courteous and obliging person, respected and liked by all. No man in any community was ever more kind to the sick or needy than Mr Green.

If the Republicans of Bradford County mean their professions of love and gratitude to those who have sacrificed and suffered in behalf of their Country they cannot possibly show it better than by nominating and electing Mr Green to the office he aspires to fill and certainly they cannot possibly find one who has suffered more for his Country or one who will make a more honorable obliging and competent officer. It would be exceedingly good news to hosts of his friends in little Sullivan to hear that he had been nominated and elected.

An exchange tells of a lady who decided to scare her husband, who was quite a hard drinker, so that he would reform. To do this she procured a costume of a devil that had been worn at a masquerade. The next time the erring spouse came home feeling happy she quickly donned the costume, and as he opened the door she stepped forward and said in sepulchral tones: "Come with me—I am the devil." The response that greeted her was: "Zat so? Shake old boy. I am your brother-in-law. I married your sister."

On Sunday March 12th all the New York express trains as also the express trains on the Reading division, of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, heretofore arriving and departing from Ninth and Green streets, Philadelphia, were transferred to the new terminal station at Twelfth and Market streets. A few days more and all Philadelphia and Reading trains, some 250 in all, will arrive and depart from the great terminal station now nearly completed. It is a grand structure, a great improvement and will result not only in convenience for the traveling public, but in vastly increased business to the Reading Railroad.
