OHIO'S NEXT GOVERNOR.

McKinley May be Renominated by the Republicans.

The assumption is becoming general here that Gov. McKinley will be renomiated by the Republicans of Ohio. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the personality of the candidate whom the Democrats will put against the apostle of protection. Ex-Governor Campbell has positively refused to run again. Representative Outhwaite, the dean of the Ohio delegation in Congress, and Representative Harter, both of whom have been prominently mentioned siders herself as owner of the United in connection with the nomination, have voluntarily taken themselves out of the race.

The other candidates so far are tariff plank in the Chicago platform; General Sam Hurd, of Cincinati; Representative Tom Johnson, Allen Roman," and Walter B. Ritchie, a young lawyer and business associate of Senator Brice. Colonel James E. Neal, another formidable candidate, is taken out of the race by his probable selection by the President for Consul to Liverpool. "Larry" and some of the other candidates mentioned would be handicapped if nomi factional fight in the Ohio Damocracy. Allan W. A BEER BARREL EXPLODES Disastrous Ending to the Efforts t an Amateur Brewer. By the explosion of a partly brewed barrel of beer on Saturday evening, at West Manayunk, Jonn Logan was painfully injured, a valuable setter dog was killed and glass cases and glassware in the store of Samuel Reagan were destroyed.

Logan, who was anxious to brew his own drink, secured a beer barrel and placed in it a quantity of hops, to which he added three buckets of potato yeast, five pounds of sugar and a half bushel of finely-ground barley and corn meal mixed. He then put in all the scalding water the barrel could contain, drove the bung in tightly and set the barrel in the kitchen to await fermentation.

About twenty minutes afterwards the family was started by a explosion that made the house tremble and which was followed by the cracking of broken glass and creaking of timbers. The kitchen was almost demolished and staves and hoops of Auditors.

In the adjoining house, occupied by Samuel Reagan as a store and residence, everything was confusion and the damage to glass and chinaware was placed at $100.

The Medical Record, a journal of high standing in the medical profession, makes the appeal for total abstinence from the Zurich Society Northern Pennsylvania where the occasion for an article of much significance on the drink question, from which we quote the following:

> An appeal for total abstinence from intoxicating liquors as a beverage, which has just emanated from universal use of intoxicants.

Nearly the entire press on the Continent has stirred the communities to their very depths, as well as the recent utterances of the Emperor ure to show you and talk with you of Germany, who foreshadows the perills of increasing drunkenness. This appeal is remarkable in two respects: first, in its array of signatures, representing almost all professions, especially the educational and scientific circles; second, it is remarkable for the strength, tact, and literary charcter of the appeal itself.
