

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, MAY, 26, 1893.

Sunday was a beautiful day. Memorial Day, next Tuesday. A poor riding habit—to fall off. Camp meeting season is coming on apace.

The cemetery presents a creditable appearance. The several roads leading to the county seat, are in bad repair.

Miss Ola Mahaffey of Laporte, is visiting friends in Williamsport.

Mrs. E. V. Ingham of the 'Meru, is spending several weeks with friends at Wyox.

Editor Streby made the REPUBLICAN office a call, while in attendance on court, on Monday.

Chas. Zuper of Dushore, called on us Tuesday and renewed his subscription to the REPUBLICAN.

Prof. F. W. Meyler of Forks, and Atty. E. J. Mullen of Dushore, will deliver Memorial addresses at Laporte, on Tuesday.

At this season of the year, Laporte is a pleasant home. The foliage is beautiful and the gentle breezes, are refreshing.

This is the season of the year when the tenant button-holes his landlord for repairs. Some get them and some don't.

County Commissioner, D. W. Scanlin, was detained at his home the early part of this week, looking after his father who is seriously ill.

The visiting attorneys in attendance at court are: C. LaRue Munson and John J. Reardon, of Williamsport and D. C. DeWitt of Towanda.

John Scher, Sr., who is considered one of the good farmers of Cherry twp. is having a large barn erected on his place. Lawrence Bros. are doing the work.

Mr. A. J. Hill of Muncy Valley, called and subscribed for the REPUBLICAN and N. Y. Tribune, on Monday. This is a cheap combination of reading matter. Only $1.25 a year.

The farmer dislike to attend court as jurymen at May term. They say May is one of the busiest months of the year on the farm and especially this year as the spring is backward.

Bradford Watrous of Binghamton and father of our recent townsman, W. T. Watrous, fell dead in the streets of Binghamton, on Monday morning May 15th. We have failed to learn the particulars.

A. Walsh of Laporte and Wm. Murray and G. E. Donahoe, of Dushore, made Harrisburg a visit the latter part of last week. The boys say it was purely a pleasure trip and that politics were not involved.

We are obliged to omit the W. C. T. U. column this week owing to limited space. The account of the hanging of Rosenwig and Blank requires much of our space and we trust it will be interesting to our readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tunstall of Bernice, made the REPUBLICAN office a pleasant call, on Monday. The Mrs. complimented the news columns and the neat and plain print of the REPUBLICAN, very highly.

The members of the Bernice base ball club have re-organized and will give a party on next Tuesday evening, May 30th, for the benefit of the association. All are invited and a right good time is anticipated. Bill only 50 cents.

This perhaps will be the last court that people of the northern and southern districts will be obliged to come to Laporte on the stage line. We are assured that the extension of the W. & N. B. will be completed by September term and several trains visiting us daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiester of Laporte township, contemplates a trip through a number of the Western States and will leave for Nebraska about the middle of June. They will spend several weeks at the World's Fair on their return home. While at court, Mr. Fiester ordered the REPUBLICAN addressed to him in the West.

Prof. C. W. Starr who has been at Laporte exhibiting his wonderful show, "Spirituistic" exposé for the past week, is meeting with good success, so far as audiences are concerned. The entertainment is well worth the price of admission and we all take it in the 4th and 5th nights. Something new each night and we all enjoy the program.

Our town is insufficiently supplied with water for use of dumb brutes. This comes from one of our lady citizens who request that we call the attention of the town council to the situation. It is a well known fact that the spring opposite of Dr. Hill's office furnishes the larger supply of water for citizens in that vicinity of town; and too, that animals drink therefrom in large numbers, and during the winter season the surrounding of the spring is made filthy by the thirsty cows that remain about and drink in turn. This being the case germs of disease must follow. The lady suggests and we think it a good one, that there be a watering trough erected in the vicinity of the spring. We ask that the town council give this matter a thought.

Mrs. Judge Sittser is spending the week at Laporte.

The barber shop has been moved to the second floor of Gallagher's Restaurant building.

June the 10th has been fixed upon by some prophets as the time for the world to come to an end.

Mrs. A. M. Cheney returned from Binghamton, on Friday, where she has been spending the winter with her daughter Mrs. H. E. Van Fleet.

Several of our young gents rode on horse back over the line of railroad from Laporte to Ringville, on Sunday. They pronounce the grading first class in every respect.

F. W. Gallagher has erected a new porch in front of his restaurant which adds very much to the appearance of his property. Frank means to paint the building in the near future.

Samuel Hunter and Miss Mary Vaughn both of Nordmont, were married at the Mountain House, Laporte, on Wednesday at 1 p. m. L. B. Speaker J. P., of Hills Grove performed the ceremonies.

H. E. Van Fleet of Binghamton, N. Y., and Mr. Doyle formerly of Scranton, Pa., have gone into the hotel business at Binghamton. They are proprietors of the Exchange Hotel which is considered among the first of the Parlor city.

Mr. Alphonsus Walsh, of Laporte, and Miss Lizzie Donahoe, of Dushore are to be married in June. The bans were called out by Fr. Mac of the St. Basil's church, Dushore, on Sunday last. Al will reside at Laporte.

A sensation has been created in many quarters by the announcement that the Pennsylvania railroad company will henceforth issue no free passes for transportation over its lines to any person but its own employees. The Reading has done likewise.

R. M. Stormont and Lewis Mahaffey caught 150 pounds of suckers out of Conklin's Run, which empties into Lake Mookoma, on Saturday last. The boys gave them to the neighbors and we all had suckers for breakfast on Sunday. A number of the fish weighed over three pounds each.

The trestling on the extension of the W. & N. B. railroad over Muncy Creek at Nordmont, was completed last week and rails will be laid on the same this week. The gang of carpenters are now at work on the King trestling, which when completed will be 500 feet in length and 70 feet high. This structure will require the attention of the carpenters for some little time.

Gideon Wilcox aged 65 years, was found dead in his bed at his home in Piatt, Eox township, on Tuesday morning. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause. Martin Wilcox son of the deceased was in attendance at court as Grand Juror. Word of the sad affair was brought to him by the stage driver. He is in company with Chas. Parish left for their homes at Piatt at 6 p. m., Tuesday evening.

Miles Tripp of Shunk, lost a valuable horse on Tuesday. He drove over to Ringville to assist his brother, Eugene in framing the railroad trestling over Loyal Sock at that place and stabled his horse in Mr. Ring's barn. A blast was set off near by and a large rock crashed through the roof of the barn striking the horse on the head killing it almost instantly. The animal was only 4 years old and was considered more valuable than the ordinary roadster.

LATER:—Mr. Gaynor presented Mr. Tripp with a $150. check in payment for the horse. This was very good of Mr. Gaynor.

Louis Rinker a 12 year old son of Wm. Rinker of Hills Grove, met with a most heart rendering accident while fishing for suckers in Loyal Sock near the Hills Grove bridge, on Monday last. The boy was fishing with rod and hook. He drew the line up suddenly when the hook caught in the ball of his eye, piercing through the eye lid and fastening so tightly in the eye ball that it was necessary to cut it out. Dr. Christian was summoned and excavated the hook. The eye ball run out and the boy, who is said to be a model little fellow, suffered intense pain.

The articles of malicious meanness which appeared in the last issue of the Dushore papers concerning the departure of Atty. F. T. Dempsey of Dushore were false and unfounded. Mr. Dempsey is a young Atty. whose means are limited, and who is and has been striving to make an honorable living. As to the acquisitions reflecting upon his honesty, and his disloyalty to his clients, Mr. Dempsey sincerely asks that the truth of the statements contained in the Dushore papers be inquired into. An investigation of the truth or falsity of these matters is, by Mr. Dempsey, earnestly solicited. As to whether he will be content with a full and complete retraction of the statements mentioned in those papers is a matter of much speculation. At present we can only say that he has issued a capias against M. J. Carmody of Dushore, in which that gentleman is held in five thousand dollars bail. Mr. Dempsey is more than willing that this matter be fully probed and has thus given Mr. Carmody an opportunity to prove the assertions made against him. It is true that Mr. Dempsey will for a short time, feel the effects of the great injustice which has been done him by whom he complains.

T. J. Keeler has built a brand new side walk in front of his property on Main street. Others should follow his example.

Iron rust on white fabrics can be removed by squeezing lemon juice on the stains and then sprinkling them plentifully with salt. It is a good plan to cover the nails in your closet with muslin or with fingers of old kid gloves.

On Tuesday afternoon about 4 p. m. a terrific shower passed over Laporte. The wind blew intensely hard and the rain poured down in torrents. Judge Sittser owing to the poor condition of the Court House and fearing the building would collapse adjourned court until the gale was over. The people left the building like bees from a hive and it was feared that there would be a panic. All got down safely, however, and crossed over the county office building filling said structure to its fullest capacity and many were obliged to seek their hotels for shelter. Comments on the frail structure were numerous. It stood the test, however.

Report of Grand Jury. Acted upon five bills—four were found true bills and one not a true bill.

That we have visited and inspected the county buildings and find that the sheriff's department be repaired also the cells and the stove-pipe and that there be a cupboard procured or made for the hall of the sheriff's department for the storing of kettles, dishes etc. Also that the side walks be repaired at once.

We further report the building of a new court house on account of our considering the old one unsafe.

PALMIST AND ROEHL. Officials Believe They Were Shot While Trying to Board a Boat.

SING SING, May 21.—Two guards, who do not want their names used, say that Guard Murphy had no revolver when Roehl and Palmister overpowered him on the night of their escape. Pulse was the only one who had a pistol, and that was found on Palmister fully loaded.

It is the opinion of prison officials now that Roehl and Palmister were shot while trying to board a boat, being taken for river pirates.

Detective Jackson says that he saw a sloop anchored just off the prison on the night of April 20.

TO BE OPENED SUNDAY. World's Fair Managers Will Return Government Money and Please the Majority.

With only two dissenting votes the World's Columbian exposition directory Tuesday afternoon voted to open the entire fair on Sunday and to return to the federal government all the money received under the act of congress coupled with Sunday closing. The amended rules will be submitted to the national commission for its approval, and there is strong belief that it will be given now that the directory pledges itself to return to the government the sum of $1,929,120, which has been received by the exposition. The proceedings were characterized by several earnest speeches. It was conceded that the public demanded Sunday opening, and that a failure to comply with the demand would result in great financial loss to the exposition.—Chicago Blade.

JOHN W. ROGERS, Com. Post, No. 436.

The store of A. T. Armstrong of Glensharon, was broken into and plundered to the amount of about $500 on Thursday night of last week. Of this amount $300 was in cold cash. The thieves entered Ellis Swank's blacksmith shop and helped themselves to the necessary tools to gain admittance to the store room, such as sledge hammer, chisels etc. They secured the cash from within the safe which they broke open with the sledge hammer. After securing the cash and goods they entered David Taylor's barn and hitched up his 2-to horse to his Sunday buggy and drove to Muncy, presumably at a 2:40 gate. Mr. Taylor's horse was found near East Muncy tied to a post and well blanketed on Friday morning. Mr. Armstrong offers a reward of $150 for the apprehension of the thieves. On the same night of this raid the jewelry store of Mr. Molyneux of Picture Rocks, was broken into and all its valuables taken, which, so we are informed, leaves him almost penniless. Rumor also says that a store in East Muncy was entered on the same night and goods stolen. Six men were seen jumping on an early freight train at Hills Friday morning, who are supposed to be the guilty parties.

DEED. Myrtle E. Walburn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walburn of Muncy Valley, died suddenly Tuesday.

A DOUBLE HANGING.

Rosenwig and Blank Executed for the Murder of Jacob Marks.

FINAL SCENES IN THE JAIL AND ON THE SCAFFOLD—STORY OF THE CRIME—A SUCCESSFUL HANGING—ALLEGED CONFESION.

From the Tunkhannock Democrat.

For the second time in the history of Wyoming county an execution has taken place. Thursday morning at 11:40, in the jail yard, in this place, Charles Rosenwig and Harris Blank paid the extreme penalty of the law for the murder of Jacob Marks on Dutch mountain the 18th of March, 1892. The execution was a double one and successful in every attempt. The necks of both prisoners were broken. There were present in the jail yard in the neighborhood of 300 people who witnessed the final scene, while the neighboring barns and houses which overlooked the yard were covered with people who were unable to gain admittance to the jail. The doors of the jail were open to those who had passes at about a quarter of eleven and the yard in the rear was soon filled. The prisoners were confined in the lower left hand tier of cells farthest from the house, and at 11:10 Blank was placed in the cell with Rosenwig, in order to be tion could be detected at the wrist. At 12:01 the body of Rosenwig was cut down and conveyed into the jail and immediately after, that of Blank's. There the bodies were viewed by the jury, as required by law, and examined by the physicians, who pronounced both necks as being broken, after which the bodies were taken in charge by funeral director Streeter who prepared them for burial. The remains were taken to Wilkes-Barre on the 3:50 p. m. train yesterday afternoon by the committee sent here to receive them, and will be buried in the Hebrew cemetery in that place.

Blank and Rosenwig are said to be the first Jews ever hung for murder in this country. A Jew who was convicted and sentenced in New York, a few years ago, committed suicide before the date set for his execution, and one who was hung in San Francisco was said to have turned Protestant and been baptized before he was executed.

A Jewish Rabbi, Adolph Radin, a traveling missionary from New York, visited the prisoners in the jail on Tuesday afternoon last, but what occurred while he was there we have been unable to learn. Whatever it was it evidently did not have a very soothing effect on them as we heard it remarked by one who knew that they cursed and swore and behaved very badly that evening.

Rosenwig and Blank were both Russian Jews about 28 years of age. Rosenwig had had no communication with his people in Russia and did not want them to know anything about the manner of his death. Both claimed to be married, though Rosenwig said his wife was dead. Blank had had letters written to his wife and received letters from her, but he was careful not to inform her that he was condemned to die for murder. About a week ago he had a letter written to her saying he was sick in a hospital and had but a few days to live, and asked her to marry his younger brother.

It may never be known which one fired the shots that killed Jacob Marks. Both admitted being present. Continued on Editorial Page.

face was covered with a short scraggy beard. As on their trials and all through their ordeal Rosenwig was the calmer one of the two. He gave no indication of fear or trepidation, while Blank, until the march to the gallows, appeared nervous and restless.

Without the weather was lowering and indicated rain; in the hallway of the jail was a cage of canaries singing away as though no tragedy involving the life of two human beings was soon to take place. At 11:35 the march to the scaffold began. Rosenwig and Sheriff Knapp were in the lead closely followed by Blank and Dr. Biddleman. Both the prisoners were very pale but looked neither to the right or left. At the foot of the gallows they stopped and said good bye to Moses Wolfe, Max Casper and I Leibson, the committee of Hebrews from Wilkes-Barre who were to take charge of their bodies. It is said at this time Blank kissed Wolfe and said, "Before God and man I am innocent."

They both ascended the steps of the scaffold firmly and took their places on the trap doors. While the noose was being adjusted around Blank's neck he appeared to be muttering something and cried out, "Good bye gentlemen." Just as the black cap was put over Rosenwig's head he said in a loud voice, "Good-bye all." This was all they said on the scaffold. The trap was sprung at 11:41 and both dropped with a dull thud to the end of the ropes, about four and one-half feet. Both their necks were broken by the fall. Blank's body never stirred after the fall and there was only a slight raising and falling of the shoulders in Rosenwig's case. Both were pronounced dead by the physicians in about twelve minutes, but were allowed to hang until twenty minutes had expired. Rosenwig's body was taken down in ten minutes.
