The Oldest Church.

The oldest church existing in the United States is situated near Smithville, Va. It was built in the reign of Charles I., between the years 1630 and 1635, the brick, lime and timber being imported from England. The timber is English oak, and was framed in England. It is a brick structure, erected in the most substantial manner. The mortar has become so hardened that it will strike fire in collision with steel.

Laurens County's Pests.

The exterior of buildings several miles away from the lice infested district in the eastern end of that county, were covered with the strange lice Wednesday morning, having been carried and spread by Tuesday night's wind storm. Dr. Weber of Laurens, who was ordered to investigate the character of the plague by the state board of agriculture, has pushed his investigation far enough to have determined that they are not fleas, and that they subsist on starchy substances.

Victory is Coming.

BY E. CHENEY, M. D.

Do not be discouraged. The civil war had its Bull Run and its many other defeats and disasters. The country needed them to become aroused to the great demands of the hour. When the people were aroused there was no more defeat. Then it was a triumphal march to the sea, and on to Richmond on this line, with a will and a resistless force. So is it now. The enemy's resources are being exhausted. The home supply is already getting short, and they are compelled to draw on the slums of the Old World for recruits. Press forward you columns. Blow your horn. Let the farthest ocean hear your shouts. Enlistments may be slow, but the warriors are bound to come, even if they rise from their graves. The stars of heaven fought against Sisera, and Jael finished him. The Sennacheribian host may defy and rail and curse for a while, but some morning sun will rise on their prostrate hordes.

Not we alone; God is in our side. Victory is sure. In ourselves we might despair; not so when we fight on the side of God. To arms! To arms! Let the shout go round: Our God is marching on!

We rejoice at what our eyes already see. Never before was their such wide intelligence on the course of our homes as at present, nor such conscientious purpose for its destruction. With us the old order is reversed, mere right makes might. With right and God on our side, and with the love of God and man in our heart, who shall say we can't succeed? We can, we will, we shall succeed. Every wrong shall be brought down. This world is to come under the dominion of the Prince of Peace. It is only in localities that there is any temporary setback. The general line is surely moving up and on; while new recruits are pouring in from school-house and palace. They are coming. Victory is in the air.—Boston Mass.

Jeff Davis' Body Removed.

NEW ORLEANS, May 28.—The remains of Jefferson Davis, after reposing in Louisiana for nearly four years, are now speeding away to their final resting place in Hollywood Cemetery, at Richmond, the scene of the most momentous occurrences of his life. The special train bearing the sacred ashes left the Louisville and Nashville depot at 7:50 o'clock this evening. All day the body lay in state in Memorial hall surrounded by the guard of honor, and thousands of people passed through the hall paying their respects to the revered dead.
