A local newspaper is often accused of being biased in regard to giving personal notices—of mentioning the comings and goings of some and overlooking others. The fault is the people's, not the editor's. He is always willing to tell who comes and who goes if he can find out. If you have visitors let us know who they are, where they come from and how long they will remain in town.

They say that business on the State Line and Sullivan Railroad has been decreased more than half since the new line of railroad has been in operation from Bernice to Wilkes-Barre. This has the appearance that Dushore is going to make a booming railroad town, has it not? Dushore has seen her best day and the people know it and we advise our friends to climb out of it as soon as possible.
The shrinkage of values in the United States since President Cleveland's inauguration on the 4th of March is estimated by competent authorities at $100,000,000. The County Sued.
John Musheno brought suit against County Commissioners Moyer, Bubb and Eiswert of Lycoming county, to show cause why he should not be awarded damages because his team ran off the bridge in Jack's Hollow last March. It is said that the bridge was without guard rails, making it dangerous at night. The accident happened at night, and Mr. Musheno had a lantern, but unfortunately, for him, it exploded on the way and his horses and wagon went over the bank.
Shortly after the accident he brought suit against Armstrong township, but in this action he was not successful, as the verdict was in favor of the defendants, the Supervisors of the township. Believing that some one was responsible, he now brings suit against the County Commissioners. The case will probably be tried at the next term of court.—Muncy Linnary.

Mrs. William Heim of Laporte, appeared before Justice of the Peace, M. W. Botsford of Nordmont, Tuesday morning and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband for whipping her. The warrant was placed in Constable E. C. Peters' hands who came up to the county seat during the afternoon and arrested Heim in the bark woods early in the evening near Celestia, and took him to Nordmont where the evidence in the case was heard before Squire Botsford. Heim was bound over to appear at Sept. term of court in the sum of $200. Peters brought Heim to Laporte, where he endeavored to find bail, but failed in his purpose. He requested the Constable, however, to let him remain over night in the same room with him and he would secure bail on Wednesday morning. Wednesday morning came and William had taken leg bail. He left the Constable slumbering.

The sheriff sale of the personal property of E. J. Gaynor & Son, on Monday, was not very largely attended, however the articles sold, brought a good round price. Among the property sold were: Seven mules, two horses, thirteen railroad carts, harness, fifteen thousand feet of lumber framed and ready for the Vanduzen trestling and several hundred pounds of bolts etc., for same trestle. The lumber and bolts were purchased by the Railroad Company, hence there will be no delay in completing the road. The sale was adjourned until Tuesday September 5th, when there will be a large quantity of property disposed of.

B. G. Welch general manager of the W. & N. B. R. R., requested Mr. Quinn, as agent for E. J. Gaynor & Co. to remove their property off the right of way of said railroad, on Monday. But before making this request, however, Mr. Welch made, we thought a fair proposition to Mr. Quinn—that if he, Mr. Quinn would permit the Railroad Co. to use four dirt cars at Nordmont they would permit their plant to rest on the right of way, and pay Gaynor twenty dollars for the use of the cars for three weeks. This Mr. Quinn refused to do, hence the order to move the property.

Dick Bennett supervisor of Shrewsbury township, with a crew of ten or twelve men began the grading of the Loyal Sock road in Shrewsbury twp., last week. Mr. Bennett and his helpers are camping at Cooper's Retreat. He anticipates completing the job in about six weeks. It is said that the Forks township supervisors, will, in a few weeks commence grading that part of the road laying in their district. We trust that this report is correct and that there will be no more delay in the matter. Give us the road it is a necessity.

A Fair Example of What it Costs to Law.
During the past three weeks there has been 86 writs issued against Gaynor, Son & Co. Atty. J. G. Scouten represents 83 of this number and Atty. E. M. Dunham is attorney for 3. The costs of the 83 represented by Scouten amounts to about $1200.00 and the three of Dunham's $40.00 making a total amount of $1240.00. Mr. Scouten had his writs issued in Lycoming county, hence the larger part, or about $830.00 of the costs attached to these 83 papers will go to said county.
