Senator Gallinger Rakes the Administration's Pension Record.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—As an indication of the unpopularity of Secretary Hoke Smith's conduct of the Pension Office not a voice was raised in the Senate to-day in defence of it, although it was very severely arraigned by Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire. He introduced a bill providing for the reformation of the present system of paying dependent pensioners, and made that the subject of a bitter attack on the course of the present Administration in regard to pensions.

Senator Gallinger said his bill was to the proper carrying out of the dependent pension law. He paid his attention to what he considered the arbitrary exercise of power by Millview, to rooms adjoining G. S. roll of 500 sq. ft.; galvanized cellar the Commissioner of Pensions in his recent suspension of certain pensioners. He said there was no preparations to build on his lot in legal ground upon which the present Commissioner could annul and set aside the action of his predecessor as he had done.

The annual picnic of the Bethel Sabbath School, was held in Glidewell's Grove Aug. 30. The day was beautiful and a goodly number was present and after the brief exercises, enjoyed a beautiful repast, and fell back in good order with the tables still loaded. Several persons from a distance were present, many of them former residents of this town, and all seemed to enjoy the good things, and especially the social element, which was a marked feature of the occasion.
