

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

The nights are getting cool. Election day is drawing nigh. Sunday was a pleasant autumn day. Our hunters report pheasants plenty.

SULLIVAN COUNTY COURT HOUSE.

LAPORTE PA.

WAGNER & REITMEYER ARCHTS.

WILLIAMSPORT PA.

SULLIVAN COUNTY'S NEW COURT HOUSE.

This cut represents the new court house as it will appear when completed. We view it from the north west corner of the court house yard, or from the Laporte Hotel. The bay window will be part of the Sheriff's apartment.

SAD ACCIDENT AT BERNICE.

A Fourteen Year Old Boy Ground to Death Under a Trip of Cars.

Andrew Wright, the fourteen year old son of Martin Wright of Bernice, met with a sudden and awful death on Wednesday last.

Dropped Dead.

Miss Theresa Walsh, of Cherry, died very suddenly on Friday evening last, of heart disease while returning from a visit to Thomas Miners—a near neighbor.

The officials of the W. & N. B. R.

R. and the L. V. R. R., are having some trouble about the right of way at Satterfield. One night last week by orders issued by chief engineer Marston of the W. & N. B., men were set to work tearing up the siding of the L. V., at said place and in its stead placed their own ties and rails.

Subscribers of this vicinity to the Philadelphia daily papers:

The Press, Times and Inquirer complain that their papers are sent around by the way of Towanda, hence do not arrive here until one day late.

To the Boys.

Halloween is approaching and no doubt you are anticipating a great deal of fun. We hope that your anticipations may be fully realized.

If the soldiers of Bradford county permit the Democrats of that county to dictate to them how they shall vote—they are minus the intelligence honored them by their old comrades of adjoining counties.

Democrats as a rule do not entertain the same kind feeling for old soldier boys as does the Republican party. This is evident from the procedure of Hoke Smith which is approved of by President Cleveland.

The ground for the new court house site, was staked off on Wednesday, under the supervision of Archib. Wagner & Rightmeyer. T. J. Keeler did the work.

Martin Walsh, an aged and respected citizen of Cherry, died on Monday evening.

Mr. Walsh was well known in this vicinity, having conducted a butchering business for a great many years. Many people will regret to learn of his death, and can cherish nothing but kindest memories of "Butcher Walsh."

Michael Breitmeyer a boy thirteen years of age, and an employe of the Eagles Mere R. R., fell under the cars and his body was mangled in a fearful manner, on Wednesday.

Isn't it about time some attention is given the dilapidated pavements?

Winter, with all its attendant inconveniences of snow, slush and mud, is rapidly coming on and the pavements should be put in good condition.

That the hospitality of our country is greatly abused is shown by the figures in our last census. Almost fifty-seven per cent. of the white persons in prisons and penitentiaries are foreign born.
