

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1893.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $12.50

The nights are quite cool. Tuesday, election day, was pleasant.

These Democratic times makes news scarce.

Election passed off very quietly at the county seat.

The snow that fell on Saturday was not of long duration.

We should like to hear from our correspondents more regularly.

Henry and Milo Tripp, contemplate leasing the Canton, Pa. hotel

We give the official vote of Sullivan county elsewhere in our columns.

On an average, from one to three freight trains pass by Laporte, each Sunday.

R. M. Stormont, of Laporte, was doing business in Williamsport, Monday.

Mrs. J. L. Smyth and son Victor, of Laporte, are visiting friends in Buffalo.

D. C. Gritman, of near Nordmont, was doing business at the county seat, Monday.

W. A. Kennedy and John E. Gallagher, were calling on friends in Dushore, on Sunday.

Mr. E. V. Ingham who has been ill in Laporte, returned to his home at the 'Mere, on Monday.

A dance will be held in the City Hall, this Friday evening by order of committee. A good time is anticipated.

Mrs. A. M. Cheney and grand daughter Miss Bessie of the 'Mere, spent Sunday with friends in Laporte.

Mrs. Stewart Chase and youngest daughter, Miss Anna, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Muncy Valley.

The REPUBLICAN, as usual gives the election news first. Why not subscribe for the paper that gives the news when fresh?

The state convention of county commissioners will convene in Wilkes Barre, on Wednesday and Thursday Nov. 15th and 16th.

WANTED: Twenty-five men to help James Gansel raise his new barn, on Saturday, Nov. 18th. Remember the date and be on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Landon and Mrs. Thos. Landon, of Conkle, Luzerne county, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Landon, of Laporte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Messenger, of Laporte twp., spent Sunday with Mrs. Messenger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gavitt, of near Sonestown.

Who of our numerous nimrods will advertise a shooting match on Thanksgiving Day? Make preparations early and give us a pleasant day's outing.

Thanksgiving Day comes on Thursday, Nov. 30th. Under these Democratic times we haven't got much to be thankful for, other than our health.

W. C. Mason, Esq., of Laporte, and who is doing surveying in Bradford county, came home to vote, on Monday. He returned to his work on Wednesday.

Atty. J. H. Cronin, of Dushore, was doing business in the Prothonotary's office at the county seat, Monday. He was having notes entered etc.

Judge John H. Orvis, of Bellefonte, and one of the best known criminal lawyers in this state, died suddenly at his home in Bellefonte, on Monday.

MARRIED: Christopher Bruschart, of Laporte twp., and Miss Emma Solinger, of Cherry, by Robt. Stormont, J. P., of Laporte, on Tuesday, November 7th.

From fifty to one hundred cars pass through Laporte nightly, loaded with freight. The company have found it necessary to put on a night clerk at this office.

Geo. O. Englebrecht the Dushore photographer and artist, has a new "ad" in this issue of the REPUBLICAN. George has the name of giving good impressions. Give him a call.

Chas. Lauer, of Laporte, left on Saturday for Philadelphia, where he joined a party of friends on a hunting expedition in Virginia. He will be absent from home a couple of weeks, and will no doubt enjoy a pleasant time.

F. W. Gallagher has recently had the words "Gallagher's Cafe" placed on the front of his building. James Hilton was the artist, and did a right good job.

The W. & Y. W. C. T. Unions will hold a Parlor Meeting at the house of Mrs. R. A. Conkline, Friday evening, Nov. 10. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

During the past fifteen years forty murders have been committed in Lackawanna county, and not one of the murderers has been convicted of the crime in the first degree.

Hard coal is selling for $5. a ton at Laporte, and the Bernice at $4.25. They say the latter is selling in Sonestown at $3.50. There is something rotten about this make up.

John Beahan, of Laporte, who accidentally shot himself in the foot, an account of which was given the REPUBLICAN, last week, is doing nicely and expects to be out doors soon.

N. C. Maben, of Laporte, has hung out his card—"teeth extracted free of pain." Newton is a right good dentist and parties giving him a call will have no cause of regretting it.

The officials of the W. & N. B. railroad, have purchased a new passenger engine. It will make its first trip over the road the last of this week. Bob Simmons will engineer it.

E. Eugene Fredenburg Atty., at law, of Dushore, inserts a card in the REPUBLICAN, this week. They say Eugene is a hustler and is doing a fair business at the metropolis of the county.

The old school house building has been used for most everything, viz: church, Sunday school, day school, entertainments, jewelry shop, barber shop, dancing hall and last but not least, election house.

Thomas Ralph, of Picture Rocks, was taken to Williamsport and placed in jail on Monday, after a hearing before Justice of the Peace, Amos B. Sprout, on the charge of adultery, etc., the prosecutor is Albert P. Baldwin.—Muncy Luminary.

Baldwin is formerly of Laporte.

Judge Biddle has just decided that a man walking on the railroad is a trespasser and cannot recover damages for injuries received. It might be well for those who are in the habit of making a highway out of the railroad to remember this.

John O'Brien, of Dushore, is now barbering at Laporte. He learned his trade in Towanda and is considered a very good barber. Heretofore our shavers have spent a good part of their time on Lake Mokoma. John says he will attend strictly to business.

Mr. Williams, who recently contracted to grade that part of the Loyal Sock road in Forks township has begun the same, and hopes to have the work completed within the limit specified in the contract—twelve months from the 9th of last October.

Jamison City, situated as it is, in a lumbering country, ought to have side walks along her streets. As it appears, but little public enterprise is noticeable in the town. They have some public spirited people down there who ought to give this matter a thought.

Another Wedding. At Wyalusing, Nov. 1st, by Rev. J. S. Stewart, D. D. Rev. S. F. Colt, M. D., and Mrs. Ellen A. Camp. Dr. Colt has a large number of friends in Towanda and in Bradford and Sullivan counties, who will wish him and his bride much joy.—Towanda Review.

An old fashioned party is again coming into favor for children. It is called the apple seed party. Each child is requested to bring an apple and when all are gathered around the dining table the apples are cut. The child having the apple containing the most seeds is given a prize and also the one having the least number.

Parties desiring to see "notice" of the letting of the new Sullivan County Court House, will find the same published in the following papers, viz: The Laporte REPUBLICAN; Dushore Gazette; Sun and Banner and Gazette and Bulletin (weeklies), Republican, Towanda; Democrat and Republican, Tunkhannock; Bloomsburg Sentinel and the Dushore Review.

The sheriff sale of the Jacob Lora property which was to have taken place on Saturday, was postponed until the 18th of this month. The reason of postponement, was that seven dwelling houses in Sonestown were advertised to be sold in bulk. The bidders desired them sold separately, hence a continuation of the sale with this understanding. It is thought that the property under these terms will bring a larger price.

NO REASON FOR THANKS.

Cleveland's Thanksgiving Proclamation Falls to Mention Special Blessings.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The President this afternoon issued the following Thanksgiving Day proclamation:—

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.—A PROCLAMATION.

"While the American people should every day remember with praise and thanksgiving the Divine goodness and mercy which have followed them since their beginning as a nation, it is fitting that one day in each year should be especially devoted to the contemplation of the blessings we have received from the hand of God, and to the grateful acknowledgment of His loving kindness.

"Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to be kept and observed by all the people of our land. On that day let us forego our ordinary work and employments, and assemble in our usual places of worship, where we may recall all that God has done for us, and where from grateful hearts our united tribute of praise and song may reach the Throne of Grace. Let the reunion of kindred and the social meeting of friends lend cheer and enjoyment to the day, and let generous gifts of charity for the relief of the poor and needy prove the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

"Witness my hand and seal of the United States, which I have caused to be hereto affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington on the 3d day of November, in the year of our Lord, Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-three, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and eighteenth.

"GROVER CLEVELAND.

"By the President: "WALTER Q. GRESHAM, "Secretary of State."

RESIGNED HIS PULPIT.

Thinks the Times Too Hard for the Church to Pay a Salary.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 5.—Rev. W. F. Bainbridge, pastor of the Delaware Avenue Baptist church, created a sensation from the pulpit to-night by resigning. He says the times are hard and he does not think the church can afford to pay a regular pastor.

Dr. Bainbridge has preached at the church for several years and helped raise a debt of $20,000 on the property.

A non-suit, entered in a Montgomery county court in a case where the parents of a child, killed by falling into a well, sued the landlord for damages, should admonish tenants to read the terms of the leases they may sign. On the premises rented by the plaintiffs there was a well with a rotten board covering. The tenant notified the agent of the property, and he promised to have repairs made but neglected to do so. The owner was then notified, and he also promised repairs but neglected to make them. Soon afterwards a child of the tenant playing on the well cover broke through and was killed. That looks like a good case for damages, but the lease of the premises did not contain the usual covenant requiring the landlord to keep the property in good repair, and the court therefore ordered a non-suit.

TO KILL CLEVELAND.

An Indianapolis Crank Caught as He Was About Starting for Washington.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—A crank here suddenly became solviced yesterday with a desire to right his fancied wrongs. Adolph Olshewsky, of 1140 East Washington street, was captured as he was about to start for Washington to murder President Cleveland.

Olshewsky has heretofore been humorously "cranky," but his mania assumed a homicidal turn when he suddenly met his brother and made a rush to kill him for the purpose of marrying his widow, who he believed would bring him wonderful luck. He claims to be a cousin of President Cleveland and that his real name is Cleveland. After his encounter with his brother, and before he could get out of town on a train, officers arrested him. He had provided himself with a large calibre revolver.

A horse thief by the name of Percy Stalter, was captured at Jamison City, on Friday last. He in company with another man, stole a horse at Harsheeds, N. Y., a few weeks ago. We understand that his partner has also been captured. Stalter when caught, was working in the lumber woods at Jamison.

HE HAS THREE WIVES.

Startling Revelations Concerning the Career of Rev. H. L. Strickland.

FALMOUTH, Mass., Nov. 3.—Rev. Harry L. Strickland, about 35 years old, who has acceptably filled the pastorates of the Congregational church in the village of Hatchville and Wamquit for the past eighteen months, was relieved of his pastoral duties last Sunday when it became known that he was a bigamist.

About the time of his acceptance of the call Strickland married a Boston lady, who accompanied him to his new field of labor and who has borne him one child. A few weeks ago a lady from Providence, visiting in the vicinity, heard Mr. Strickland preach and remembered him as having lived in that city and having married there some four years ago. Through this lady's intervention the woman Strickland married in Providence was brought here last Sunday.

According to her story, Strickland abandoned a wife and child in England. She received this information after he had married her in Providence. She says further that she had two children by Strickland, that some two years ago he left her under the pretext of traveling as a music teacher. Strickland was confronted with his Providence wife Sunday and calmly admitted her charges.

Strickland remains at the parsonage and it is not as yet known what proceedings will be taken against him. Wife No. 3 is rendered almost frantic by the revelations.
