

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $12.50

202.

Send us the news. The Democrats are mum. Sunday was a perfect day. Observe our business locals. This is beautiful fall weather. Thanksgiving turkeys are roosting high.

Its a pleasant smile the Republicans wear. Carpenters are at work erecting the Ringdale depot. Our young people are anxious for a "skim" over the ice.

Dr. Chaffee, of Forksville, contemplates moving to Towanda. Our town is being painted black, in the way of sign lettering.

Will Grover meddle with the McKinley bill after this rebuke? The building of the court house, will be let on Friday Nov. 24th.

The Republican majority in Pennsylvania is 138,084. Quite enough. Emerson says that "He only is a well made man who has a good determination."

J. H. Green left for Washington, D. C., on Friday last, where he will spend the winter.

Now that the railroad is here, why can't our merchants sell as cheap as they do in Dushore?

The Sabbath Schools will soon show an increase of membership, as the holidays approach.

Four-fifths of the girls who go to cooking school are engaged—the other fifth have hopes.

Do you see what the people of the Old Keystone state can do, when the bosses keep hands off.

The foliage is now donning its loveliest tints, and even the stumps will shortly begin to wax eloquent.

Soup kitchens are not the sort of institutions of which a country need feel much pride, but they fill an aching void.

It is evident that the people are getting tired of one man power. Grover is President, Senate and Congress.

Mrs. Stanley, of Hughesville, who has been visiting friends in Laporte for the past few days, returned home on Tuesday.

We have printed a few copies of the official vote of Sullivan county. If you are desirous of one, let us hear from you.

Young brides, in providing themselves with cook books, would do well to first ascertain whether there is anything to cook.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Kennedy, of Jamison City, were calling on friends in Laporte, Sunday.

If all the people were as good as they try to appear when they know they are watched, what a nice, clean, sweet world this would be.

Misses Hattie and Ellen Crocker, of Laporte, returned from a three months sojourn in York state, on Wednesday of last week.

In every mile of railroad there is seven feet and four inches not covered by the rails—the space left between them for expansion.

It is stated that men with no stated occupation or employment live the longest. This fact accounts for the longevity of the tramp.

A spinster says the reason there will be no marrying or giving in marriage in heaven is because there won't be enough men there.

Wm. Finkle, formerly of Campbellsville, moved to Laporte last week and occupies the Brewster house on North Muncy street.

The Republicans of Bradford county elected their entire ticket by from 2,200 to 3,000 majority. Bradford is the home of the soldier boys.

The county commissioners are attending the state convention of county commissioners which convened in Wilkes Barre on Wednesday.

The success of the Republican party will make better times. The people have more confidence in Republicanism than they have in Gubernism.

"REPUBLICAN Office" was lettered over our front door, one day last week. It is "loud" at a long range. James Hilton the Laporte artist did the work.

County Supt. F. W. Meylert, will move to Laporte on or about the 20 of this month. He will occupy the Lamoreaux residence on Center Main street.

Hughesville has a new M. E. church. It was dedicated on Sunday Nov. 5th. The Mail gave a picture of it last week. It is a very handsome edifice.

Atty's T. J. & F. H. Ingham have a prominent sign now. The words "Ingham Law Offices" appear on the south side of their building. James Hilton was the artist.

The Democratic majority in Sullivan, was 110 less on Tuesday the 7th than it was in 1892. See, in 1892 it was 312, on the 7th it was 202. We will write their obituary in 1896.

Lawyer Weeks stole a million dollars and got ten years' imprisonment. There are many men who would jump at an opportunity to go to jail at the rate of a hundred thousand a year.

Postmasters have been informed by post office authorities that a new form of money order will soon be issued. The new form will be smaller, and will differ from the old in several minor features.

Messrs Reitmeyer and Keely, of the Hotel Eagle's Mere orchestra, and whose home is in Lewisburg, played in the orchestra at the Tivoli Hotel Saturday night. Their music is fine. Gazette and Bulletin.

Oh no, Ohio don't believe in the McKinley bill. This is evident from the tune they played out there on the 7th. They only rolled up a majority of 83,791 for the old boy. How would President McKinley sound.

Columbia county is just as certain to go Democratic as is the state of Mississippi, however, her majority was cut down to 962 on the 7th. It would appear that even the Columbia county Democracy are getting tired of hard times.

A young woman of Pottstown startled several hunters the other day in the woods. She carried a bag well filled with rabbits and pheasants. They watched her shoot with a rifle a rabbit at forty paces while it was on the jump.

The Thornedale tannery is being torn down. Chas. Wrede is superintending the work. The machinery will be brought to the Laporte tannery and stored away for future use. With this industry moved, Thornedale will be a city of the past.

After January 1, next, the register of wills, will have to keep a record of all the babies born in the county, the last session of the legislature having passed a law to that effect. The work of securing the names will be part of the duties of assessors.

The papers for the past few days have been devoting considerable space to interviews with prominent men on the result of the elections, but it is a noticeable fact that Hoke Smith's opinion is not on record. Hoke has been lying low for some time.

The total paid attendance to the World's Fair from the opening to the close, was 21,458,910. The largest attendance in any one month was 6,799,102 for October. The fair was a success financially. The net receipts being over one million of dollars.

The Democratic party will go dead now, especially in counties where the Republicans have a majority. In little Democratic Sullivan, we expect our enemy to continue for a couple of years. They can't out loose from the party so sudden, public office is to be considered.

Mrs. R. M. Stormont and Mrs. W. M. Cheney, gave a reception party at the residence of Mrs. Cheney, on Friday afternoon and entertained the following guests:

Mrs. Grimm, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. John Finkle, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Wiseman, Mrs. Tinklopaugh and Emma, Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Bertha and Maud Crossley, Mrs. Mahaffey and Miss Ols, Mrs. Ballard, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Bastian Mrs. Keeler, Miss Ada Meylert, Miss Hoffman, Mrs. Karna, Mrs. Mason, Miss Ethel Mason and Mrs. W. U. Mason, Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. M. L. Dunham, Mrs. F. H. Ingham, Mrs. J. H. Spencer, Miss Agie Wrede, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Little and Miss Noble Spencer.

Mrs. John Hill, of Hughesville, is visiting her son and family, Dr. Hill, of this place.

The real estate of Jacob Lorah, will be sold by the Sheriff, at Laporte, on this Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaplin Baldwin and sister, Mrs. Amos Burrows, all of Picture Rocks, passed through Laporte Tuesday, en-route for Montrose.

The ground has been removed from the site of the new court house. It is now in readiness for the contractor to commence laying the foundation walls.

The Wyoming Democrat takes pleasure in boasting that this is the first time in thirty years that the Republicans of Wyoming county have elected a sheriff. Bro. Day will no doubt live to see many changes.

Confagration at Laporte. This morning, just before going to press, fire was discovered in the paint shop of J. W. Ballard's wagon factory. The entire building was consumed, with all its contents. The loss will amount to over $2,000. No insurance. Further particulars in next issue.

When Colonel R. Bruce Ricketts, of Gettysburg fame, returned to Wilkes Barre from the war, he bought up vast tracts of wild land in Sullivan and Pike counties, this state. He has just transferred 13,000 acres to a Boston syndicate and thereby becomes a millionaire. The original investment did not cost him over $1,800.

Systematic Sip for Inebriates. A subscription paper is being circulated at Waverly to raise a fund to defray the expense of sending inebriates to the Keely cure. Liberal subscriptions are being received particularly from the hotel and saloon men. Those assisted are required to sign a paper agreeing to pay back the amount in installments.

The W. C. T. Union's parlor meeting, held at the residence of R. A. Conklin, last Friday evening, was one well worthy of notice. The young people turned out in gratifying number to participate in the many games of the evening, of which the one seeming most paramount of all was the "cup Jinks" game, which resulted in the rejuvenating of the old and downright enjoyment for the young.

Wyoming county went Republican by 283 majority. Knapp the Republican nominee for Sheriff was elected by 682 majority and the balance of the Rep. ticket was elected by smaller majorities. Next year we elect a President Judge. A strict party vote in Sullivan and Wyoming would make it pretty close. With the odds in favor of the Republican nominee. The Wyoming conferees should name our man, however.

The personal property of the bondsmen—J. C. Pennington, A. H. Zander and D. H. Lorah, of ex-County Treasurer, Jacob Lorah, was sold by the sheriff this week, for debt contracted by Lorah. It was like this: Lorah borrowed a certain sum of money with which to make a payment of his indebtedness to the county, of the Dushore bank, these bondsmen endorsed for him. The notes are now due and the bank proceeded against the endorsers. The public can draw their own conclusion as to the manner in which these bondsmen have been treated by Lorah.

Messrs. Henry and Milo Tripp have purchased the household goods of J. M. Young recent proprietor of the Canton House and have leased the stand for a term of years. The boys took possession of the same last week. The Canton House has the reputation of being one of the finest hotels in Bradford county. Centrally located and comfortably heated by steam throughout—the only house in town accommodating guests with free bus to and from all trains. The Tripp Bros. will no doubt make the Canton House a most favorable place for sojourners.

Warning to Farmers. An exchange says if any farmer has procured samples of grain from the World's Fair agricultural building, he will do well to burn it forthwith. It is stated that the discovery has been made that the whole exhibit has been attacked by the weevil, a pest whose larva is a worm that burrows in the kernel of the grain, and has done enormous damage to the crops in South-western Russia and in India, whence, no doubt, it was brought to the World's Fair. It is stated that thousands of samples of grain have been carried away from the agricultural building, and there is presumably scarcely a corner of the United States where the pest has not been carried.

Death of Dr. Meylert. Dr. Asa P. Meylert died at the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. Urquhart, yesterday afternoon, whither he came in failing health two months ago with his wife from California. Doctor Meylert was well known throughout Northwestern Pennsylvania, where he formerly resided. He held high rank in the medical profession and enjoyed the distinguished respect and personal friendship of Doctor Hammond, Doctors Thomas and Loomis, of New York, and other leading specialists east and west. During the rebellion, as a young man, he had a career as surgeon in the Union army and established at the first field hospital. Doctor Meylert was a cultured and scholarly gentleman and an exceptionally charming conversationalist. Early in life he began a bright active Christian manhood, which he steadily and consistently maintained throughout. Fortunes' favors and frowns, doing much good and being steadfast in the faith to the last. He married the only daughter of a Quaker Hodgdon in Scranton, who survives him, they never had any children. Doctor Meylert was sixty years of age last May. Notice of his funeral will be given hereafter.

The above notice we take from the Sunday's issue of the Scranton Republican.

Dr. Meylert's life long interests being connected with Sullivan county a more extended notice seems fitting from us.

In 1848 when but 15 years old he came to Laporte and assisted in making surveys. During the early fall he went to Lewisburg as a student in the Academic department of the University. Two years later taking his place in the collegiate department, graduating in 1853. Having in the meantime engaged as a medical student under Dr. Wm. Hayes. After graduating at a medical college in the city of New York he commenced the practice of his profession in Scranton, where he remained for a short time.

The position of partner with Dr. Hays was offered him, and he returned to Lewisburg, where he was actively engaged in his profession until within a short time of the breaking out of the rebellion. Engaging in business for a short time in St. Louis he became conversant with officers in the regular army and made preparation to engage in the government services. Returning to his mother's home at Laporte he was one of the first to offer his services to put down the rebellion, and was commissioned as Assistant Surgeon on the three months call. Soon after he received a commission as Brigade Surgeon, and remained in active service until nearly the close of the war. Serving for much of the time as medical surgeon at Louisville K. Y.

Engaging in business in New York he commenced the publishing of medical works and soon after resumed practice. For several years he has spent considerable time in New Mexico and California at places of health resorts. During all these years Dr. Meylert has made regular visits to Laporte, aiding from time to time in developing the resources of Sullivan county, and always regarding it more than any other place, as his home. He was alive to all that pertained to the moral and religious well-being of the place. Our oldest citizens will well remember the labors of his life long teacher, Dr. Bliss who accompanied him here in 1853 and that of fellow students Rev. Carneham, Lowery, and S. W. Zigler.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. Urquhart. The remains were interred within the Hollenback cemetery.

The State Schools. It is announced that the annual report of the superintendent of public instruction for the fiscal year ending June 5, is being prepared by Dr. Schaeffer and assistant for publication. A number of new features will be introduced into the report in addition to a vast amount of interesting statistical matters relative to the public schools of the state.

Among other things the report will show that there were in the state at the close of the fiscal year 3,878 public school teachers who had no previous experience; 9,196 teachers who had previously taught five or more annual terms; 12,675 teachers employed holding provisional certificates; 3,722 teachers employed holding professional and 2,693 teachers holding permanent certificates; 3,860 teachers were employed who have graduated at a state normal school; 3,892 who have attended a state normal school but did not graduate; 8,979 teachers who were educated in the public schools; 4,194 who were educated in academies or seminaries and 284 who are graduates of colleges.

Miss Alma Laurer, of Laporte, returned home from a three week's visit with friends in Rochester, on Monday.

It has been ten years since our postage was reduced from three to two cents. Our people would not complain of another reduction.
