

Mails leave Laporte Post Office for W. & N. B. R. R., and arrives as follows: SOUTH. NORTH.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $12.50

Election next Tuesday. Sunday was a perfect day. Vote for Grow and better times.

Let the voter rebuke free trade next Tuesday. Go to the polls next Tuesday and cast your vote for Grow.

Our subscription list is growing at a very satisfactory rate. Sheriff Mahaffey was doing business in Williamsport, Monday.

St. Valentine's Day was not observed to any great extent, at Laporte. B. F. Crossley of Dushore, spent Saturday with his parents in Laporte.

It is rumored that several cottages will be erected at Lake Mokoma in early spring. A large number of farmers of Laporte township are ordering lime by the car load.

"Woman is God's best gift to man," no doubt, but for a purchased article the suspender ranks first. There is a little girl in Allegheny City who is always put to sleep in two minutes by any kind of music.

The people of Laporte are quietly thinking that good will, peace and harmony will reign in our town in the future. Jno. E. Gallagher, Com. Clerk, has purchased a new desk and a Remington typewriter. John is happy now.

"The return of the shawl is prophesied," says a fashion authority, but it is painfully silent on the subject of the loaned umbrella. The law provides that the County Superintendent shall be furnished an office at the expense of the county. Our laws should be observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cole, all of Benton, spent Thursday and Friday of last week, with friends in Laporte. U. S. Atty. E. P. Ingham of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Laporte. Elery looks in the best of health. He was up on business matters.

Miss Anna Sheehan, Mrs. J. H. Spencer, Miss Mary Breigher and Miss Anna Beahan, all of Laporte, spent Sunday with friends at Jamison City, and report a very pleasant time. The election proclamation published elsewhere in the REPUBLICAN, is a good sized legal document. You will have to tip the paper a trifle for a careful perusal of it. We place it thus to save space.

A religious journal recently published a news item concerning the illness of a certain pastor and his wife, and then followed this remarkable statement: "But God is good, and they are better." The Y. W. C. T. U. and The Loyal Temperance Legion will give an entertainment in the M. E. church, Monday evening Feb. 26. A cordial invitation is extended to all. A collection will be taken.

The Wilkes Barre papers state that a new train schedule may be looked for on the Lehigh Valley in a short time, and that a number of trains will be discontinued. This will be done to reduce expenses. Nearly every family in town has a case of mumps. LaRue Bastian aged 5 years, who told his father recently that he would not have the mumps under any consideration, is confined to his bed with the familiar swelling of the face. LaRue is a hearty and a well built little fellow and it is more than likely that he will endure the hardships of this disease and come out as robust as a fawn in the spring. We wish LaRue a speedy recovery. He will be missed on our streets during his sickness.

Grow will have 150,000 majority. A live butter-fly at this season of the year is quite uncommon. John Andrews captured one in his kitchen the other day and now has it preserved. Mrs. L. M. Dunham, mother of Atty. E. M. Dunham, was quite dangerously ill of neuralgia of the heart on Tuesday. At this writing however, she is reported some better but not entirely out of danger.

The noon train on Monday was an hour late. We understand that owing to a wreck on the Reading R. R., in the vicinity of Reading—the W. & N. B., were compelled to run to Williamsport, on this date, hence, the delay. It is not presumed that Judge Savidge, who will preside at this Feb. term of court, will take a hand in granting licenses, hence, the Associate Judges will be called upon to do this work. The Associates are equal to the task.

A party of sixteen couples of Laporte enjoyed a sleigh ride to Eagles Mere on Friday evening. The evening was spent at Hotel Eagles Mere in dancing and other amusements. Supper was served at 11:30 and a pleasant time enjoyed by those present. The grand jury of Columbia county reported that Benton shall be incorporated into a borough, last week and Smith of the Benton Argus is correspondingly glad. On our next visit to the incorporated city, we shall expect to see at least passable sidewalks.

Rutter, of the Hughesville Mail, complains of the removing of the Telephone Exchange in said place to a room on the third floor of the Laird block and suggests that the Railroad Company erect an elevator for the accommodation of the talking public. Joseph Middendorf, formerly of Dushore, assumed the duties of landlord of the Wyalusing Hotel, recently. The young people of Dushore took a sleigh ride down to Wyalusing the other evening and enjoyed a dance in Jos' ball room. They report an excellent good time.

The young men of Eagles Mere have invested in boxing gloves and spend the evenings in this sort of amusement. They have a club room in Hotel Eagles Mere, and the partitions of this apartment is dotted with gore from floor to ceiling. The boys say they have fine times. How many farmers can truthfully state that they know the value of their farms, stock, feed and implements? Very few, as it is seldom that an inventory has been taken, and yet it should be done every year just as the merchant examines his stock. Farming is a "business" occupation.

A monster bridge is to be built across the Mississippi river at New Orleans, and the contract has been awarded to a Pennsylvania firm, the Phoenix Iron Company, of Phoenixville. The bridge will be two miles long, will contain 25,000 tons of iron and will require two years or more to build it. Issacher Houseknecht, who so mysteriously disappeared in Muncy at a recent date, an account of which was given in the REPUBLICAN last week, has not been found. A pool of blood was found in a barn close by where the fatal shot is supposed to have been fired, and the belief that Houseknecht was murdered is stronger than ever.

There has, recently, been more rumors concerning a railroad from Dushore to Wyalusing and thence up the creek, on to Binghamton, but we will await for authentic news before we endeavor to give any.—Wyalusing Rocket. That is right. Judging from railroad rumor at Laporte it will be sometime before the W. & N. B. is pushed through to Binghamton.

The second annual banquet given by the Young Men's Republican Club of Williamsport, on Monday evening, was a grand success in every particular. The young Republicans of Williamsport are up with the times and it is to be hoped that they will change the political complexion of Old Lycoming in the near future. Success to the boys. Three appointments have been made so far by Collector Herring. Robert Buckingham of Bloomsburg, as Deputy of the seventh division, now held by Capt. Wm. Gable; Geo. A. Herring, father of the ex-Senator as Cashier, and Miss M. L. Wilson of Easton, as Stamp Clerk. The office will remain in Scranton, but will be moved from its present location to new quarters in the government building which is nearly completed.

Miss Jennie Hoffman, teacher of the primary grade of the Laporte school, is ill with the mumps. Michael Sweeney of Cherry, twp., aged 92 years, died at his residence on Tuesday night. Deceased was one of the oldest residents in this section of the county. According to the new schedule of the L. V. as published in the Towanda Republican, connections at Satterfield will be much more convenient to the traveling public than was the old one. The ladies of Laporte will give a potato supper Friday evening Feb. 16th, at the residence of T. J. Keeler, for the benefit of the Baptist minister, Rev. Mr. Davis. Supper from 6 to 9 p. m. Price 25c. All cordially invited.

A romantic and prosy writer, in an exchange, says that "morning is the proper time for thought. After the night's repose, the mind is vigorous. Then thoughts have wings, and can easily rise in the azure sky." And he might have added you can also hear the mellifluous voice of your wife singing out for another scuttle of coal. A VOTE FOR GALUSHA A. GROW is a protest against free trade and the present depression, while a vote for JAMES D. HANCOCK is an indorsement of the Wilson bill tariff agitation and in favor of a continuance of the present hard times.

Which will you vote for at election Tuesday, February 20th, 1894? To the People of Laporte. The ladies of Laporte are filling a box with clothes to send to the poor and suffering in the cities. All persons desirous of helping in this worthy cause can send their contributions to the house of E. M. Dunham, any time this week. Almost any clothes that are outgrown and laid aside will be of great service to the poor. Children's, boys', women's or men's clothing will be useful. It would be advisable of our county chairman to call a meeting of the standing committee and fix upon a date for the Republican convention. The purpose of the convention would be to select a delegate to the state convention which will convene in Harrisburg on the 23d day of May. We think it would also be advisable at this time to select our conferees to assist in placing in nomination a candidate for President Judge of this judicial district.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Eves, aged 82 and 84 years, of Muncy, were found dead in their chamber on Tuesday morning of last week. Coal gas is supposed to have been the cause of their death. Our readers should be cautioned by this and see that the draughts on their coal stoves are properly turned before going to bed. Give it plenty of draught to carry the deadly stuff up the chimney. You might better build a new fire in the morning rather than lose by death a member of your family or pay a doctor bill of the value of several tons of coal. We publish elsewhere in to-days issue the program of the teachers' local institute to be held at Laporte on Friday evening, March 2d and Saturday March 3d. It will be noticed that Hon. Henry Houck, Deputy State Supt. Public Instruction is announced as the lecturer for the Friday evening session. The teachers have certainly done well to secure so able and popular a lecturer as Mr. Houck. Now let everybody turn out and hear him. The teachers need all the financial assistance they can get in their efforts to procure a good speaker. Mr. Houck is justly recognized as the most pleasing lecturer on school matters in the state of Pennsylvania.

John W. Flinn of Jamison City took charge of the Laporte tannery, owned by the Union Tannery Trust, to-day, Thursday, in place of James McFarlane, resigned. Mr. McFarlane will give his time to clearing his several tracts of land of hemlock timber in this vicinity and will manufacture the same into lumber as in his saw mill near this place. We also understand that he will lease the tannery store room and will continue to sell goods at the old stand. Mr. McFarlane has served as general superintendent of the Laporte tannery for a period of 28 years or more and the change will no doubt be a hardship to him, for a time at least. At this writing we are not prepared to say, who, if any of the several foremen now under Mr. McFarlane will be retained by Mr. Flinn. We shall have to wait for further developments. Subscribe for the SULLIVAN REPUBLICAN and get the best.

West Virginia Lawyers and Business Men Would like to have the Corbett-Jackson Fight. WHEELING, Feb. 8.—Pittsburg and Wheeling parties are determined to secure the Corbett-Jackson fight, if possible, for this city, and the movement is taking a business-like shape. No definite steps will be taken until those who are interested are assured that no such monkey business is possible as that which preceded the Corbett-Mitchell fight at Jacksonville. To this end the best criminal lawyers have been requested to give an opinion as to the legality of a glove contest in West Virginia. If the matter is gone into it will be well-known business men. There is plenty of money in sight for the venture and beautiful sight for an amphitheatre is at the disposal of the proprietors. The idea is to offer big money, and Pittsburg capitalists will be in the company if one is formed, Wheeling's location midway between the great western metropolis and the Atlantic coast cities, is unequalled anywhere. The old smoke-house method of preparing meat for preservation is a back number in this age of progress and should be relegated to the rear to join the old-fashioned fire-place, and bake-kettle that formerly adorned every farmer's kitchen. A more desirable method of preserving meat is with Krauser's Liquid Extract of Smoke, by which the meat can be more conveniently smoked, at much less expense and trouble, and which is a certain preservative as well as a protection from insects. The meat can be hung in the garret and after the liquid smoke is applied, can be left hung there until used. Thus all danger from loss is obviated, with the advantage of better cured meat having a flavor far superior to the old method. We have used the Extract of Smoke for several years, are using it now and find it far preferable to the old smoke-house method. —Ez.

It is further directed that the election polls of the several districts shall be opened at 7 o'clock in the forenoon and continue open without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when polls will be closed. Notice is hereby given that every person excepting Justice of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States or this State or city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State or of any city, or of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time any other office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States or this State or city or incorporated district, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States or this State or city or incorporated district, shall be qualified to vote in the district to which they respectively belong before 7 o'clock in the morning and such Inspector shall appoint one clerk who shall be qualified voter of such district. THOMAS MAHAFFEY, High Sheriff. Sheriff's Office Laporte, February 8th 1894.
