

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1894.

Mails leave Laporte Post Office for W. & N. B. R. R., and arrives as follows:

Table with 2 columns: SOUTH and NORTH. Rows show departure and arrival times for various routes.

E. M. MASON, P. M.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

The country is saved again. Subscribe for the REPUBLICAN.

Easter Sunday, March the 25th. Court will convene next Monday.

Sleigh riding was the order of the day, Sunday.

Election passed off very quietly at Laporte.

To-day, Thursday, is Washington's birth-day.

The fall election will occur on the 6th of November.

The politician has his eye on the November election.

Seven new subscribers joined the REPUBLICAN list, last week.

This is the last issue in which the county statement will appear.

It is prophesied that the last fall of snow will kill the grip germ.

We publish in this issue a list of the Jurors drawn for Feb. term.

Even the Towanda papers are complaining of news being scarce.

Floyd Ballard of Forest City, spent last week with friends in Laporte.

W. J. Lawrence of Dushore, was transacting business in Williamsport Saturday.

John E. Gallagher of Laporte, was doing business in Jamison City, Saturday.

They say John will run his own business. It surely has that appearance now.

The union ticket in Laporte borough, was elected by an overwhelming majority, on Tuesday.

Mr. John V. Finkle, the boot and shoe man of Laporte, was doing business in Dushore, Tuesday.

It requires six pages of the Phila. Times to publish the applications for license to sell liquor in that city.

The attendance at court the early part of next week, will be large, as is always the case at February term.

The sun shown on 15 inches of snow in this vicinity, on Sunday. At night time there wasn't so much.

The Ward House in Towanda has changed hands; Geo. B. Shores and M. L. McGill are the new proprietors.

The working people of this vicinity appreciate the presence of John W. Flynn. Many kind words were said of him on Monday.

Lew Mahaffey says he has the finest span of ponies in the county. If age adds to the value of horse flesh—"Prude" has got them.

The Democrats of the county say their party has no leader. Who will volunteer to accept of the trials and tribulations of this leadership?

Don't forget the lecture to be given by the Hon. Henry Houck at the teachers' local institute to be held at Laporte on Friday evening, March 2d.

The side walk on either side of the court-house square is cleaned of snow. This speaks a good word for John E. Gallagher, commissioners' clerk.

Mr. Boyd Ikeler and sister Miss Mary Ikeler of near Bloomsburg, were visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Crossley and family of Laporte over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason and little daughter Miss Iona, left for New York city on Wednesday morning, where they will spend a couple of weeks with friends.

Streby, editor of the Dushore Gazette, contemplates making a gushing run for Representative next fall. We trust he will not be handicapped at the first station.

A valuable cow owned by Patrick Waldron of Laporte tannery, was struck by an engine near the tannery depot, on the W. & N. B. R. R. and killed on Sunday. The train was returning from Satterfield with a car load of hogs and two or three cars loaded with coal. Mr. Waldron is a poor man and feels the loss of his cow very much.

The Columbia Rolling Mills of Danville have made a reduction of twenty-five cents per ton for puddling, making the price $2.75 per ton.

Miss Emma Tinklepaugh sprained her ankle, while taking part in a charade at the potato supper the other night. At this writing she is able to attend school, however.

During the lay off of the construction train, on the W. & N. B., the venerable engineer, Sam Allen, will rusticate at Hughesville. Sam is a favorite with the railroad boys.

Frank Musser, a young man of Lancaster, who a year ago had an arm torn off by a broken cable of the Lancaster traction company, was awarded $20,500 damages by arbitrators.

The Gazette announced a couple of weeks ago that the Democratic party of the state was going to make a grand rally for Hancock. Judging from the vote on Tuesday, guess it was a mistake.

Esq. Grim is proud of himself and of the article he wrote for one of the county papers last week. He adorns a high silk hat these days. Scouting, his opponent may reduce the size of it, this week, however.

The survivors of the 207th Regiment, Pa., Volunteers will hold their Fifth Annual Reunion, March 21st and 22d, at Wellsboro, Pa., and promises to be an occasion of enjoyment for the veterans and their friends.

County Superintendent, F. W. Meylert drove "Old Dan" his bay horse, from Thornedale to Laporte a distance of five miles in twenty minutes on Friday, and the Prof. said it wasn't much of a day for driving either.

Thos. K. Beecher of Elmira celebrated his seventieth birthday on Saturday February 11th. He was visited by nearly all his congregation, all the other ministers in the city and most of the distinguished people there.

A party of old and young people of Dushore, took a sleigh ride down to Wyalusing the other night and made their old townsman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Strong an evening call. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Henry Tripp gave a party last Saturday afternoon in honor of the 7th birthday of her daughter, Fannie. About a dozen playmates were present, and they had a pleasant time. A splendid supper was served.—Canton Sentinel.

No farmer in Sullivan county has ever sold his wheat as low as he is obliged to sell it to-day. What is the matter? It certainly is not because of "vicious republican legislation." If there was any such on the statute books the Democrats had had time to repeal it.

The potato supper given at T. J. Keeler's residence for the benefit of the Rev. Mr. Davis, on Friday evening last, was enjoyed by seventy or eighty of our people and a very pleasant evening spent. The net receipts were between fifteen and twenty dollars.

Amos Little of near Nordmont has a large and fine stock of hardwood logs at his mill. Benj. King estimates the logs in the mill yard at between five and seven hundred thousand feet. Mr. Little is one of the very best business men in Laporte township.

Mrs. Earnest Eagle of Laporte Tannery, whom the REPUBLICAN announced sometime ago, as being dangerously ill of consumption, is no better and but little hopes of her recovery is entertained. Dr. Herrmann of Dushore, is the attending physician.

Dr. Egle, State Librarian at Harrisburg, was re-appointed to that office by Governor Pattison on Thursday Feb. 8th. Mr. Egle is an efficient officer and well deserved the reappointment. It would be hard to find a more suitable man for the place in Pennsylvania.

Ex-County Commissioner, S. K. McBride of Laporte, moved to Canton on Wednesday, where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. and Mrs. McBride, though their stay was short, have won hosts of friends at Laporte, who regret to see them leave. Sam and family have the best wishes of the REPUBLICAN.

A party of young people of Dushore out for a sleigh ride, passed through town on Saturday enroute for Jamison City. The load was made up as follows: George Farrell and Miss Jennie Cadden, James Donahoe and Miss Mary Kaier, John Hembury and Miss Cressie Kaier. The party returned on Sunday and registered at Hotel Kennedy.

The Old Iron Cannon.

The Sunbury Daily recently published the following: The members of No. 1 Fire Company have decided to have the old iron cannon mounted on wheels.

The frame work is here and the wheels will be made in a few days. The cannon will be scoured and burnished until the historic iron shines like the sun. The wheels and frame-work will be handsomely painted, and the cannon will occupy a place of honor in the cozy company parlor.

This old iron cannon once frowned at the French and Indians from the stern bastions of old Fort Augusta. The cannon was taken from the fort to Muncy and in 1774 it was returned to this city. It was thrown in the river where it remained until 1798. It was the pride of the citizens of old Sunbury on account of its associations and historical value.

Every year since has added to its value and it has passed through many adventures. At various times the cannon was stolen and taken to Seisingrove and New Berlin but loyal Sunburians always re-captured it. Attempts were made by people from other towns to gain possession of the relic of ante-Revolutionary days, but the plots were always foiled. For the past forty years the old piece of ordinance has rested undisturbed in Sunbury, and is still an honored and valuable historical relic.

The boys of the No. 1 company will cherish it and guard it as carefully as it was guarded in the years gone by. Bird Smith, aged 18, shot a large black bear in the vicinity of Thornedale on Monday noon. Bird was in company with Jeff Mosteller, Z. E. Botsford and Thomas Kohensparger. Smith and Mosteller were placed on run ways and Kohensparger and Botsford drove the swamp. Smith heard the brush cracking and saw bruih some distance from him.

He leveled his gun on an opened spot in the forest in the direction the bear was headed for and when it filled the sights, he let 'er go. The bullet took effect in the left side. The bear gave a fearful groan took two or three steps forward and turned on his back track. During this time Bird was trying to remove the empty shell from his gun, but was unsuccessful and called to his companion, Mosteller, who came to the rescue, and with his ramrod, as he used a muzzle loading gun, removed the shell. With this done the boys took after the bear and overtook it some fifty rods from where the fatal shot was fired. He was moving right along however, and two more bullets were sent into his body. This was enough and bruih succumbed and dropped dead on his trail.

While making the drive, Kohensparger shot four raccoons. The boys fastened their game together and dragged them into Thornedale and from there they were brought to Laporte on sleighs. Bird feels very much elated over his good luck, and he has a right too! A large number of our old hunters have spent much time in the woods in pursuit of bear and to-day they are unable to tell a bear story and slaying of their own experience.

After the above was in type, we learn that John Pursell, was among the party of hunters.

Valuable Town Property for Sale. The property, in Laporte Borough, known as "Fairview Cottage," which has been kept by the undersigned as a Summer Boarding House for City guests, and for Court and other boarders, will be sold very cheap. For terms apply to owner—CHAS. TINKLEPAUGH, Laporte, Pa. Or to E. M. DENHAM, Laporte, Pa.

J. W. Flynn, general superintendent of the Laporte tannery, made the working people of the 1st ward a visit on Monday. His object was to give them work if they so desired. As a result our people, who have spent a good part of the winter in idleness, for the very good reason—they had nothing to do, are now at work at the tannery and are very thankful to Mr. Flynn for his kind offer. Heretofore a working man of the 1st ward was not recognized at this place of business. This move of Mr. Flynn has made him hosts of friends in this immediate vicinity. Success to John and may he continue long as general superintendent of the Laporte tannery.

The Republicans of Wyoming Co. will hold their convention on Monday, March 12th, when they will place in nomination a candidate for President Judge, who will of course be subject to the decision of the Sullivan county conferees. We urge that our neighbor Republicans make a good selection and the battle is two-thirds won. What's the matter with Atty. B. F. Lewis? He is spoken of in this county as being a very able man and a good man. This is why the REPUBLICAN brought his name before the public some months ago.

A LEHIGH STRIKE MURDER.

One Man Shoots Another at Sayre as a Result of Feeling Over the Recent Trouble.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Feb. 18.—A terrible tragedy occurred at Sayre, Pa., at about 12:30 a. m. to-day. It grew out of the Lehigh strike of November last. At the hour named several men were sitting in the bar room of the Exchange House, when three "scab" workmen entered and asked for drinks, which were furnished them by the proprietor, William Barrett. Among the men sitting in the room were Bat Golden and Harry Haas.

Golden made a remark concerning "scabs" when one of the newcomers, Edward Fallinger, said: "I could whip any man who called them scabs." He at once drew a revolver and levelled it at Haas. A scuffle ensued. The men clinched and fell, and Fallinger, partially rising, shot Haas, the ball entering his left eye, killing him instantly. Fallinger and Charles Waters were at once arrested and locked up. The third man escaped and is still at large. Fallinger was taken secretly in a cutter to Athens, where he was put on the train for fear of interference.

Fallinger came to Sayre from the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad and was employed as a flagman. His victim, Harry Haas, was a fireman, but had not been put to work since the strike. He was very popular with his associates and the feeling against Fallinger and all "scabs" is intense. Fallinger when arrested, admitted the shooting and claimed that it was done in self-defense.

Mr. Wheeler H. Peckham of New York who was appointed by President Cleveland to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench, was rejected by the Senate on Saturday. The vote was ayes, 32; nays, 41. Senator David B. Hill of New York, was opposed to the appointment of Peckham and took the lead in the opposition. It would appear that Hill is a larger man and has more influence in Washington than has the President. Mr. Cleveland was angered at the turnaround of Peckham and remarks that he will appoint another anti-Hill man for the vacancy. The wise Senators at Washington say it is simply boy's play.

President Cleveland appointed Senator Edward Douglas White of Louisiana, for the vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench on Monday, at 2 p. m., and the appointment was confirmed by the Senate in less than ten minutes after the name had been presented to that body. This is evident that Mr. Hill did not oppose the appointment.

Official Vote of Sullivan County. Table with 2 columns: GROW and HANCOCK. Rows list names and votes.

The majority for Hancock will not exceed fifty in the county.

The mine known as the Gaylord colliery in Plymouth near Wilkes-Barre, caved in on Wednesday of last week, and entombed thirteen men who were at work in the colliery. The men were buried under coal and earth some four hundred feet deep. The names of those who perished in the sad accident are: Thos. Pieton, Thos. Jones, Richard Davis, John Morris, James Kingdom, Thos. Merriman, Thos. Cole, Jos. Olds, Dan Morgan, John Welsh and Thos. Leyshon. The work of excavating the men from their sad fate, has been going on since the fall occurred, but up to this date the men are still entombed. This is sad, indeed.

Mrs. J. M. Dunham, of this place, whom we mentioned in our last as being very sick, is still very low and weak, though under Dr. W. B. Hill's treatment she has been kept quite comfortable for the past week. Were Mrs. D. not so far advanced in years we should feel as though she had passed the danger point. As it is we hope to be able to say in our next that she is very much better.

A heart rendering scene took place at Light Street, Columbia county on Friday morning Feb. 9th. The residence of Bert Croman, was burned to the ground and in the building were two of Mr. Croman's youngest children, both were burned up in the blaze. The ages of the children were 15 months and 5 months.
