

THE REPUBLICAN

W. M. CHENEY, Editor. FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1894.

Entered at the Post Office LaPorte, Pa. as second class mail matter.

GROW'S PLURALITY 190,317.

Additional Official Returns Continue to Swell His Enormous Vote.

Officials returns have been received from all the counties in the State. The official figures continue to show increases and the apparent plurality for Hon. G. A. Grow has now been swollen to the enormous total of 190,317.

The appended table tells an eloquent story for protection to home industries:

Table with columns: REPUBLICAN, DEMOCRATIC. Lists counties and vote counts for both parties.

Total 202,559 Total 9349 Republican Plurality, 190,317.

What Shall the Harvest be.

In November next Pennsylvania will elect thirty members of Congress, twenty-eight by districts, and two by the state-at-large. Also will elect a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor Auditor-General and Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The voters in the southern part of Shrewsbury twp. got out a petition and presented the same to the court on Wednesday asking for a change of the voting place in said township from Hotel Eagles Mere to the residence of Wm. Fullmer.

The Harrisburg Patriot is more severe than ever on State Chairman Wright of the Democratic organization. It now says that the federal office to which Wright has been appointed does not require any ability to fill, but that Wright is not fit for it.

SPOKE OUT IN MEETING.

Sensation at a Prohibition Gathering in Scranton.

SCRANTON, Feb. 27.—A sensation that has stirred the city occurred last evening at a meeting called in the thirteenth, the blue blood ward of the city, for the purpose of seeking to keep saloons out of the ward.

The meeting was held in the Asbury M. E. church, and was at the outset captured by the Prohibitionists, and members of the party proceeded to make their usual set speeches in which the Bible was referred to and verses were quoted to show that the liquor dealers will be certainly damned.

These extravagant utterances brought to his feet Rev. Frank Schell Ballentine, pastor of the Green Ridge Episcopal church, who gave the Prohibitionists a terrible raking, saying that the result aimed at could never be attained by abusive speeches, misquotations of scripture and by making faces at the people who have petitioned for licenses who are among the brightest lawyers, and the most active business men, and the most substantial supporters of churches in the ward.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN STANDING COMMITTEE FOR THE COUNTY OF SULLIVAN. LAPORTE, Pa., Feb. 20, 1894.

The members of the Republican standing committee will meet at the office of E. M. Dunham, in Laporte, on Saturday, March 17th, 1894, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

The purpose of this meeting is to fix the time of holding a convention and to transact other important business. A full attendance is desired.

Following is the list of standing committee:

- Bernice.—Chas. Watson. Colley.—Wm. Allen. Cherry.—A. L. Cox. Davidson.—G. W. Simmons, Dushore.—M. C. Miller. Elkland.—Henry Norton. Forksville.—A. A. Collins. Fox.—A. E. Campbell. Forks.—M. W. Farrell. Hills Grove.—J. L. Christian. Jamison City.—J. W. Harvey. Laporte Twp.—Z. E. Botsford. Laporte Boro.—W. C. Mason. Lopez.—Frank Rice. Shrewsbury.—C. F. Cheney. W. C. MASON, Chairman.

Four Meet Death.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 25.—A few months ago Ham Collins, of Pocahontas county, with three companions named Jones, Francis and Murdaugh, opened an illicit distillery in a cave near the Pendleton county line.

Deputy Marshal Rollingwood, with two special deputies, raided the place four days ago. In the fight that ensued Jones and Francis and the two special deputies were killed and Ham so badly wounded that he was traced five miles through the snow by the blood from his wounds. He has not yet been taken.

Hon. Henry Houck will make you laugh, but what is better he will also make you think. Twenty-five cents invested in the lecture by Hon. Henry Houck will pay large dividends. Tickets on sale at the door. Every seat in the church should be occupied. Let the teachers know that when they get a lecturer like Mr. Houck the people of Laporte appreciate it.

The entertainment given by the Y. W. C. T. U. and Loyal Temperance Legion, Monday evening, was a success in every particular. The church was well filled with an appreciative audience and the singing and recitations were well rendered, especially those given by the Loyal Temperance Legion. Collection, $5.

SHUNK ITEMS.

The P. O. S. of A. at this place are flourishing well. J. P. Kilmer has moved his saw-mill to Richard Swingle's, and will soon commence sawing. Wm. Porter has rented the Fuller House at this place and will run a temperance house at this place as well as Grocery. E. M. Letts has rented the blacksmith shop of J. P. Kilmer and has employed Emory Tillman, formerly of Canton, to blacksmith. Emory is the boy to nail on shoes.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The attendance at court during Monday and Tuesday, was quite large.

C. H. Jennings of Lopez, was in attendance at court the early part of the week.

An exchange put it in this way, and puts it correctly too. "We wouldn't trust a man near a hen house who would order a newspaper stopped through a postmaster when he is in arrears. It is a cowardly way of refusing to pay an honest debt."

Dr. Cyrus Edson, New York, is quoted as saying that the grip is likely to disappear very soon and in all probabilities will not be heard from again for a generation or so. This prediction is based upon researches into its course in earlier appearances under different names.

D. M. Stewart and P. F. May, both of Kylertown, Pa., leased of Hon. Russel Karns his hotel property, in Laporte, on Monday, and will take possession of the same about the 15th of March. These gentlemen come highly recommended and will no doubt conduct a good house.

It will be noticed by our table elsewhere that Wyoming gives 577 Republican majority and that Sullivan gives a Democratic majority of 40. These two counties comprise the 44th Judicial District, and we are to elect a President Judge next fall. These figures show a one sided fight.

There is a drygoods clerk in Dushore, says an exchange, who is giving his boarding mistress lots of trouble. When he goes to bed very tired he gets restless in his sleep and frequently sits up in bed saying: "Will you take ten yards of the whole piece?" and then tears the sheet from top to bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Grim, of Laporte, were united in marriage forty-five years ago the 22d of February and in honor of the event, their two daughters, Mrs. Stanley and Miss Hattie gave them a surprise. A number of the older people of town were invited to spend the afternoon. Tea was served at 6:30 and a pleasant old-time chat enjoyed by those present.
