

Table with train schedules for Laporte Post Office, listing arrival and departure times for various routes.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

Sunday was a perfect day. The snow is disappearing.

These warm days will soon bring new maple sugar into market.

This is Spring. It will be some weeks before we will realize it, however.

The mercantile appraisers list, appears in this issue of the REPUBLICAN.

March came in like a lamb, but if predictions are correct it will be a howler when it goes out.

Father Mac, of Dushore, held services in the new school house building at Laporte, on Sunday.

A temporary sidewalk has been laid from Muncy street to the county office building. A very good idea.

Judge Ingham is having a flag pavement laid in front of his residence. John Pursell is doing the work.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow was sworn into office on Friday and is now assisting to make our laws in Congress.

Ralph Magargie, proprietor of the Magargie Hotel at Sonestown, with a friend, drove up to the county seat, Saturday.

Miss Lottie Miller of Laporte, and who is attending school in Towanda, spent the early part of the week with friends at her home.

The Philadelphia Times (Dem.) admits that the Democratic party is not competent to run this Government. And it is right.

Senator Hill declines to run for governor of New York. Which shows that whatever else he may be the Senator is not a fool.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Fannie Meylert, Friday evening March 9. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Karns, of Towanda, came down on Friday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Dunham, and remained with friends in town over Sunday.

Walter Spencer, one of our merchants, drives a brand splinter new truck wagon. It was manufactured at Ballard's shop in Laporte, and is pronounced a good one.

The Pennsylvania State League of Base Ball players will consist of teams from Harrisburg, Altoona, Allentown, Reading, Easton, Scranton, Pottsville and Hazleton.

Two children of Samuel K. McBride, who recently moved from Laporte to town, are ill with scarlet fever, and a third child is down with the mumps.—Canton Sentinel.

Mrs. S. F. Colt, wife of the late Rev. S. F. Colt, of Wysox, is seriously ill with pneumonia. Miss Carrie Colt of the same place, is also reported ill, by our Towanda exchanges.

Grow takes a seat in Congress with the largest majority ever given a candidate for that body. A majority larger than the total for Congressmen in eleven of the Southern states.

Leading colored men in Alabama have issued a call for men of their race to convene at Birmingham, March 21st. From the wording of the call they will favor a general emigration to Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Tripp, of Shunk, made Laporte a visit the middle of last week and were both take sick at their son's house. A. E. Tripp, on Muncy street. At this writing they are still confined to their room.

As usual a copy of the Dushore Review was placed in our post office box by a friend last week. We notice by an article therein that Blatherskite has taken to the baby act in the matter of increased expenses of the county for the year 1893. Poor fellow, he calls Struby and seeks a hole to crawl out himself. "He who fights and runs away, will live to fight another day."

We are having beautiful weather.

E. H. Dolittle, of Boston, Mass., registered at the Laporte Hotel, Tuesday.

John H. Green, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Brewster, both of Washington, arrived in town, on Wednesday.

Peter White, of Noxen, formerly of Laporte, died on Monday. The funeral services were held at Noxen on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. M. Cheney, of Laporte, will leave for Wyoming county on Saturday, where she will spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Hatfield.

Will Rogers, of Laporte, is suffering with a large boil on the side of his face. Boils are quoted at $5 00 a piece, but Will says he will take 5 cents for his.

Mr. Henry Kohensparger of Laporte twp., lost a valuable cow recently. Mr. Jenkins is circulating a subscription paper in behalf of Mr. Kohensparger and it is more than likely that our people will make his loss good.

Married.

MILLER—CONNER.— March 3rd, 1894, by Robt. Stormont, J. P., of Laporte, Mr. Jonathan Miller and Miss Phoebe Conner, both of Tivoli Pa.

If you are desirous of a right good bicycle, give Lewis Mahaffey of Laporte, a call. He has accepted the agency of wheels of Edward L. Rose & Co. of Binghamton, N. Y. This company is said to manufacture the very best wheel in the market.

The damage done to the school rooms at this place by fire last week, has been temporarily repaired and school is in session. The institute room, known as the court room, will be repaired later on. Mr. McFarlane, president of the school board, has the matter in charge.

James Moran and son Will, of Muncy Valley, spent several hours with friends in Laporte, on Sunday. Mr. Moran is a genial good fellow and enjoys a joke with the next one. He with his many friends of the county seat, spent a pleasant afternoon, Sunday.

A large percentage of the school teachers in this district failed to put in an appearance at the local institute, held at Laporte on Friday and Saturday last. The absentees ought not to take their pupils to 'do' when they come late to school. It is better late than never.

We placed the names of at least a dozen new subscribers on our book last week. We have not counted them, but are pretty sure we do not exaggerate the number when we say a dozen. They came unsolicited. The circulation of the REPUBLICAN is advancing right along.

We will wager our last year's straw hat, that the man who puts up the money to establish a new Democratic newspaper in Sullivan county, will play out before the man who writes the editorials. It costs anywhere from $60 to $75 a month to run a newspaper, even in Sullivan county.

A number of our people are agitating the organization of a fire company in town. We would favor water works. A reservoir erected on Mokoma Heights, with pipes, would furnish the entire town with water, and would be of sufficient fall to force a stream on the roof of any building in town.

The county commissioners have resolved to meet in their office at Laporte, on the second Monday of each month commencing on Monday next, when they will transact such business as may be brought before them pertaining to their office. This step of the commissioners will be appreciated by the business men of the county.

Odd Fellows' Supper.

Laporte Lodge, No. 923, I. O. O. F. extends a cordial invitation to the people of the first and second wards of the age of 15 and upwards, to a free oyster supper to be given at Ohas. Tinklespugh's on Friday evening March 16, 1894. A sumptuous repast will be furnished and an evening of social enjoyment is certain.

As before stated in the Republican, the town council should order a sidewalk built to the school house. It is high time the children were noticed by our authorities. They have waded through mud and slush on their way to school for the past four years, while out streets have been put in repair for the convenience of the traveling public. Why not let the street repairing go for awhile and give the children some convenience? Their health should be considered in this matter and action taken at once by the proper officials.

THEY PASSED IT AROUND.

A Forged Check Goes Through Several Hands Before Detected.

H. L. Bush, a Dushore liveryman, and W. E. Purdy of the same place, were in Towanda on Saturday and stopped at Ochs Hotel. Mr. Bush stayed all night, but Mr. Purdy left for WilkesBarre the same night, previously getting Mr. Bush to cash a check amounting to $34.50, drawn on the First National Bank of Dushore and purporting to be signed by B. W. Jennings of Lopez.

Mr. Bush paid the check to Mr. Ochs, and the latter paid it to B. F. Myer of this place on a bill. Mr. Myer sent it to the First National Bank, and it was forwarded to Dushore for collection. Yesterday the check came back, the signature being pronounced a forgery. Purdy is a young man, and has been engaged in the vicinity of Dushore, canvassing for nursery stock, and similar work.—Towanda Review.

The switch at the Laporte tannery points a direct line at the boarding house kept by Mr. Day. On Tuesday after noon while rail road men were switching cars from the main line on this siding a loaded car got loose from the train and went down the siding at a two-forty gate. It came in contact with an empty car that was standing on the track opposite the tannery, and both went down the line at a fearful rate of speed. At the end of the siding the empty one dashed through the streets tearing up the earth axle deep and came within ten feet of reaching Mr. Day's house. The loaded car sank into the earth at the end of the line and stopped. Mr. Day is quite anxious to have the thing pointed in some other direction. Who can blame him?

Gladstone Resigns.

LONDON, March 4.—For the fourth and last time Mr. Gladstone delivered to his sovereign yesterday the privy seal, which is the highest emblem of national authority, and declining all honors of position and title, stepped back into the ranks as England's greatest commoner.

The United Press correspondent learned from an official source at 11:30 last evening that the Queen had accepted Mr. Gladstone's resignation and had offered the Premiership to Lord Rosebery, who had consented to take the office.

An excursion passed through town over the W. & N. B. R. R. Saturday morning en-route for Bernice. The excursionists were: B. G. Welch Esq., general manager of the Williamsport and North Branch Railroad, Mr. and Mrs. John Marston, jr., and Miss Marston, of Hughesville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Claghorn, of Philadelphia, B. L. Bowman, Miss Musser and Miss Montgomery, of Muncy. The party were the guests of Mr. Welch, who evidently gave them a pleasant time. On their way home they stopped at Laporte and registered for dinner at the Laporte Hotel.

The new proprietors of the Laporte Hotel, Stewart and May, will take possession of the same on Monday, next. Hon. Russel Karns will lease a dwelling in Laporte and will take the world easy the rest of his life. We have a notion, however, that Rus. will continue to take a hand in politics. The REPUBLICAN would not be a bit surprised to hear that he was a candidate for Senator this fall. As rumor goes, there are one or two others in the county who are looking for laurels in this direction, too. They are, Alphonsus Walsh, and M. J. Lull.

Thos. E. Kennedy, head book keeper for the Union Tanning Co., at the Jamison City tannery accompanied by J. J. Dewar, book keeper for the Thos. E. Proctor Lumber company, of Jamison City, drove up to Laporte on Sunday and enjoyed a few hours visit with old friends. They drove Mr. Goodhue's driving team, and evidently were not long on the way.

Senator Hill continues to place obstructions in the path of Cleveland. No man at Washington enjoys the discomfiture of the President and his cabinet more than Senator Hill. Like Samson, he would rather fall between the pillars than have Cleveland gain his former prestige. There is no feeling more revengeful than that created by jealousy in the hour of another's triumph.

A spring on the new passenger engine broke at Muncy Valley Tuesday evening, hence, the train was some late at Laporte and points north. This is the fourth spring broken on the "H. G. McCormick" engine during the past few weeks. We are proud to say, however, that neither of the mishaps occurred on the new extension.

The funeral of Mrs. L. M. Dunham on Friday last was largely attended. The relatives present from a distance were: Mrs. C. R. Fanston and daughter Miss May, of Danville, Mr. Samuel Anthony of Milan and Frank Cheney, of Lacysville. Among the friends present were: Atty. R. J. Thomson, Atty. J. H. Cronin, Miss May Cronin and Mr. L. E. Wells, all of Dushore; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. C. Pennington and Mrs. Newman, of Nordmont. Mr. Thomson presented a beautiful bouquet of Calla Lilies, the gift of his wife. Other beautiful bouquets were received by express. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ayers, of Middletown, N. Y. addressed a bunch of Sacred Lilies of beautiful fragrant, also did Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mason send a choice selection, who are visiting in New York. Home gifts of the delicacies were abundant. The pall bearers were: T. J. Keeler, F. M. Crossley, A. J. Bradley, John Andrews, J. W. Ballard and A. J. Hackley. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. T. Polk, of Towanda.

Sheriff Mahaffey took Harvey McKay, the young man of Fox twp. who was found insane by the court, to the Danville asylum, on Wednesday of last week, but owing to the fullness of the concern, the officials refused to accept of him. The sheriff telegraphed to the officials of the Harrisburg asylum and was also refused the admittance of the young man, for the same reason. He is now corresponding with the officials of the Warren institution and hopes to find a place for the young man there. In the meantime, Harvey who is a good looking and a well built young man, is being looked after by the sheriff at Laporte. Mr. Mahaffey gives him his liberty during the day time and only confines him in a cell at night. On Monday evening Harvey got a little uneasy and packed his grip and came down town en-route for the Laporte Hotel where he said he was going to put up for a time. He was met by the sheriff opposite the post office, who requested him to return with him to the jail. The young man complained some of the confinement in the cell at night and was some reluctant about returning. The sheriff used only kind words to him and with the assistance of Mr. Jenkins who kindly helped the sheriff to argue the case, Harvey submitted and returned to his cell.

The lecture, by Deputy State Superintendent, Hon. Henry Houck, on Friday evening last, was immense and he was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. Owing to request he changed his subject from "Bound to Win" to "The Old and the New." Mr. Davis, principal of our graded school, introduced the speaker, who after giving an interesting account of his travel to Laporte, took up his subject and told the teachers how school teachers did in olden times. He said the forests about school buildings during those days, were principally cleared of thrashing timber by teachers and the remnants could be found in and about the school building. That a teacher was not considered a good teacher unless he kept a supply of ox gads on hand and used them freely. He compared those times with to-day and spoke very complimentary of the change.

Mr. Houck is a natural orator, chuck full of humor and wit and we guess sentimental, think he could talk to please the most cranky audience that could be arranged before him. His humor was appreciated here. It was the first laugh our people have enjoyed for some time and we bespeak that should Henry come back to Laporte again in the future, no building in town will be of sufficient size to hold the people who will flock to hear him.

Prof. Houck was born in Lebanon county and calls himself a Pennsylvania dutchman. He taught school for several years and was elected County Superintendent of his native county when he was but twenty-three years of age, after which he was appointed by the proper officials—Deputy State Superintendent, which position he has held ever since. Mr. Houck has lectured in every county seat in the state, Laporte having finished the list. It is conceded that he has traveled and knows more people in the old Keystone state than any other person residing in it.

County Superintendent, F. W. Meylert, and the teachers were pleased with the lecture and all join in wishing Mr. Houck back with us again at some future day.

The meeting financially, was also a success. The gate receipts were more than sufficient to pay all necessary expenses and the officers of the local institute have, as thought goes, resolved to treat a teacher's home with the balance.

J. T. Brady, jobber and contractor, of Jamison City, passed through town on Saturday en-route for West-ern Sullivan. Jim is a good looking and a whole-soul fellow. He is an enthusiastic admirer of sports and takes a hand in the doings of the day. He has a great big conscious, however, and would rather see the other feller's cur whipped than his own. Young men of this description are most apt to be favorites of young ladies, and it is fair to presume that James was well taken care of in Western Sullivan.
