Meeting of Republican Standing Committee of Sullivan Co.

On motion it was resolved that we hold the County Convention for nomination of a delegate to the State Convention, at Laporte, on Tuesday, May 8th, at one o'clock, p. m., and that the delegate election in the several election districts be held at places of holding election on Saturday, May 5th, between the hours of 5 and 7, p. m.

On motion adjourned. E. M. DUNHAM, Chairman Pro. Tem. Republican State Convention. HEADQUARTERS. REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE. PHILADELPHIA, PA. February, 24th, 1894. To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania: I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, May 23d, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the following purposes to wit:— For the nomination of candidates respectively for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, two Members of Congress from the State at Large, Auditor-General, Secretary of Internal Affairs, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Attention is called to the rule adopted at the State Convention of 1893 providing for the basis of representation, as follows: "Representation in future State Conventions shall be based upon the vote cast at the Presidential or gubernatorial election immediately preceding, one Delegate being allotted to each Legislative District for every 2000 Republican votes and an additional Delegate for a fraction exceeding 1000 votes, each District to have at least one Delegate."

By order of the Republican State Committee. B. F. GILKESON, Chairman. Attest: JERE B. REX, A. D. FETTEROLF, Sec's.

Scranton Tribune, Tuesday, March 12: "In the nomination by acclamation yesterday of B. W. Lewis, of Tunkhannock, for president judge of the forty-fourth judicial district, the Republicans of Wyoming county have placed a most creditable and worthy candidate in the field. Mr. Lewis is recognized in his profession as one of the best and closest students of law in this part of Pennsylvania. He is a man of wide culture, superior scholarship and excellent personal address. In his civic, as well as in professional relations, he has manifested a disposition of fairness and probity which, taken in connection with his other qualifications, well qualifies him for the successful discharge of the judicial function."

During President Harrison's administration three hundred million dollars, bonded debt of the government was paid off. Mills, factories, coal mines and all kinds of industries were prosperous, and every man who wanted to work was employed. Things are different now. After one year of democratic rule we find the public debt increased by a bond issue of fifty millions, hundreds of thousands of idle workmen, in want of work and starving spread abroad over our land, and values have reached the lowest level ever known.

One of our Populist exchanges came in last week with one page covered with hair lines and blotches of ink. We took it that the pressman had had an accident and that Lydia Pinkham's "out" had jumped out and damaged things, but upon closer inspection we found it was intended for a picture of Senator Fetter and the wind was

The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Fannie Meylert Friday evening, March 23rd. All are cordially invited.

Mr. Editor: We have heard considerable talk concerning the organization of a building association in Laporte. Let one be organized by all means. Every house in town is occupied. In several cases two or three families are living in one house. Ten or twelve houses that would rent at five or six dollars per month are needed at once. Within the past week we have talked with four parties who are anxious to move here now but can not find even two or three rooms for temporary quarters. If local capital cannot be obtained, let the money be borrowed and mortgages on the property be given to secure its payment. The building of a dozen houses would bring not only considerable money to town but would bring in residents and thus help the town in every way. The question should be talked over and someone who understands the methods by which other towns have been helped by building associations should be invited to address a meeting called for that purpose.

We believe the project can be worked up and be made successful. Every property owner in Laporte should interest himself in the matter and if a plan can be agreed upon let work begin at once. CITIZEN.

Stewart & May proprietors of the Laporte Hotel, will give a grand opening on Friday evening, April 6th. All are cordially invited.

Wallace Hoagland, a student of Lebanon University, Ohio, for the past three years, who has been visiting his mother and other relatives a short time, returned Thursday to finish his studies. He expects in two years more to graduate as an M. D. Mr. Hoagland is from Sullivan county; he resided here before he entered college and made many friends who will be glad to greet Dr. Hoagland on his return.—Towanda Review.

Montrose, Susquehanna County, nearly had a tragedy on the 9th inst. William Beck noticed a bitter taste in a dish of pot-pie and refused to eat it, and the whole was thrown upon an ash heap. A neighbor's pet dog partook and died. Analysis disclosed strychnine, and the matter remains a mystery. Mrs. Beck states that while the dish was cooking she had stepped into a neighbor's, and on returning noticed a white substance on the stove near the kettle, but thought it might be plaster or whitewash from the ceiling.

A PLUCKY WOMAN. Whip in Hand She Teaches a Brutal Driver a Good Lesson. Sleighs drawn by four horses are employed on the Wellington street route, says the Montreal Star. The heavily loaded sleigh was coming cityward. One of the horses next to the vehicle fell. The driver lashed it with his whip. Then he kicked it. Finally he swore at it. But he did not get down to extricate the animal from the harness which held it a prisoner. The men in the sleigh buried their chins in their overcoats and indulged the contemplation of fatalism as a philosophy which removes every passion from the breast. Suddenly a lady clad in a sealskin saque got out and going up to the driver said to him in an imperative way, "give me that whip." The driver was dazed. In a stupefied way he handed over the whip. "Now," said the little lady, "if you touch that horse again I will let you feel the weight of this whip across your shoulders. Get down this moment and cut the harness and help the horse to rise." The driver stared at her. The women in the sleigh tittered, the man hung their heads. "Get down this moment," said the lady, shaking the whip over the driver. The latter mechanically obeyed. The harness was loosened, the horse was raised to its feet. The lady put her hand in her satchel, brought forth some biscuits and treated the whole four horses to one each. The effect was magical. The hopeless cynicism of their poor faces gave place to hope and love and gratitude. Then the lady, very white, but as resolute as Joan of Arc ever was, entered the sleigh. The men still hung their heads in silence.

ESTELLA ITEMS.

John Gaunt moves into A. L. Mulnix' mill house. Mrs. Job King and daughter are visiting at H. W. Osler's. J. L. Shoemaker, of LeRoy, is calling on friends at Estella. J. K. Brown, of Athens, was visiting friends at this place last week. A. L. Mulnix has rented his mill to W. L. More and S. P. Shoemaker for one year. Avery moves back on his old place. George Teeter met with a painful accident on March 7th. While breaking landing for A. L. Mulnix on King's Creek, one leg was broken and the bones of one foot broken, and his left arm was also broken between the shoulder and elbow. Dr. Randall is in attendance and now pronounces him convalescent. Streby, of the Gazette, needn't go clear to New York state to hunt up the pension business. He can see a sample of Grover's kindness in that line by taking a peep into the home of B. H. Bryan, living down towards Hillsgrove, where there is a poor paralytic wife and several small children that were dependent on the husband and father's pension, but who now has been stricken off the pension list.
