

THE REPUBLICAN.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1894.

Mails leave Laporte Post Office for W. & N. B. R. R., and arrives as follows: SOUTH. NORTH.

The N. Y. Weekly Tribune and Sullivan Republican for $1.25 One Year $1.25.

Sunday was a beautiful day. Next Sunday will be Easter. Adjourned court on Monday, April 2.

Address your job work to the REPUBLICAN.

Shooting at wild ducks will soon be the order of the day.

Sunday was a sugar day. The sap fell in many places.

Winter is not lingering in the lap of spring, just at present.

Mrs. E. V. Ingham, of the 'Mere, is visiting friends in Laporte.

Young America is storing away a supply of eggs for Easter Sunday.

Stewart & May took possession of the Laporte Hotel, on Monday.

The weather prophets are considerably off on their March predictions.

There will be considerable moving about at Laporte on the 1st of April.

J. J. Harding, of near Muncy Valley, made us a business call on Tuesday.

It is rumored that several new dwellings will be erected at the county seat, this spring.

Dr. Hill has a large number of patients and is kept on the go a good part of the time.

Sheriff Mahaffey presented the editor with a mess of extra fine parsnips on Monday. Thanks.

T. J. Keeler was the first resident of town to spruce up his yard. Wonder who will be the next one?

Mrs. R. A. Conklin and little daughter, Miss Mollie, of Laporte, are visiting friends in Picture Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Fleschutt and two little children, of East Towanda, are visiting friends in Laporte.

Smallpox prevails at an alarming extent at Danville. The schools and churches have been closed in consequence.

The Republican convention will convene in Laporte on the 8th of May. See call elsewhere in the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp, who have been ill at Laporte since court week, returned to their home in Shunk, on Saturday.

County Supt. F. W. Meylert, was visiting schools in Davidson and Shrewsbury townships the early part of the week.

Owing to slides along the railroad between Stonestown and Nordmont, the noon train was one hour and a half late on Monday.

Next Sunday is Easter, the occasion upon which the fair sex is supposed to blossom out in their new spring gowns and headgear.

Henry Upman, of Laporte, is grading his yard and making many noticeable improvements about his pleasant little home on West Main street.

The young people of town enjoyed warm sugar at the residence of E. J. Messenger in Laporte township, on Tuesday afternoon. They report a very pleasant time.

Carpenters are at work erecting a depot at Satterfield. Our Williamsport exchanges say, we can hope for "sooner" connections at this Junction in the near future.

Mrs. Russell Karns, accompanied by her son Harry, left for Towanda on Wednesday where the Mrs. will visit friends for a few days and Harry will continue his school days.

Atty. J. G. Scouten and R. H. Brewer, both of Dushore, were doing business at the county seat Monday. Mr. Brewer is proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel at the metropolis.

Dushore experienced a small blaze on Saturday night. The smaller barn connected with the Exchange Hotel at said place and owned by Atty. J. H. Cronin, burned to the ground. Loss about $200. It is supposed to have been the work of tramps.

This is fine weather for erecting court houses and the like.

Will Rogers, of Laporte, spent Sunday with friends in Forksville.

Mr. Samuel Kosteubader, of New Columbia, is spending a few days with his son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ritter, of this place.

The Treasurer's sale of seated and unseated lands takes place in June. Deputy Treasurer Morgan Gaviit, is hard at work preparing the list for advertising.

The continued fine weather since the advent of March, leads some people to surmise that there is something laid back for future use, that will make humanity get up and howl.

The Burgess of Laporte now has the veto power, but he cannot preside over the Town Council any longer. The recent laws are numerous and have wrought many changes of things.

W. M. Bastian, of Laporte, contemplates moving to Williamsport next week, where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Bastian and family have hosts of friends here who regret to see them leave.

August Buschhausen, of Torpedo, Warren county, will move to Laporte the last of this week and contemplates working in the Laporte Tannery. He will reside in his own house on West Main Street.

Parties are getting things in readiness to commence drilling for oil, coal, gas or China near Brooklyn, Susquehanna county. These are the same parties who have leased lands in Sullivan county. We wish them success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackley left on Wednesday morning for Burnwood, Susquehanna county, where they were called by letter to the sickbed of Mr. John N. Messenger, father of Mrs. Hackley, who is not expected to live.

Lewis Mahaffey is quite expert on the bicycle. "Prude" recently purchased a $75 wheel and is putting himself in training preparatory to entering the races this summer at Dushore, where he expects to carry off the big money.

Jos. N. Hobart, who has been engaged with the engineer corps on the W. & N. B. for the past months, returned to his home in Williamsport on Tuesday, where he has accepted the secretaryship of the W. C. T. U. society of that city.

A letter from Miss Mollie Keeler, of Australia, states that they are having exceedingly hot weather in that country. The thermometer over there registered 141 degrees in the sun and 96 degrees in the shade on Thursday, February 1st.

Subscribers of the REPUBLICAN desiring their postoffice address changed this spring, must give the old address, as well as the new, when ordering the change made. This rule is imperative in order to prevent mistakes, owing to the similarity of names at several postoffices.

John E. Gallagher, commissioner's clerk, is quite fly on the type writing machine. John claims he can write 100 words in a minute and judging from the rattle of the machine, we guess he can do her. He certainly does very neat work and this is more than the majority of type writers do.

Chas. Landon, of Laporte, recently purchased a lot on West Meylert street, and contemplates erecting a dwelling on the same, this spring. Those of our neighbors, who are compelled to lease dwellings, should follow Charley's example. Let this invite the thought of erecting a home of your own.

The family of the late Samuel J. Randall is living at South Bethlehem, young Sam Randall having attended the Lehigh University. The young man is growing up to be a politician and a Republican, and although he is not yet old enough to vote, he has an unusual knowledge of public affairs.

The Republicans of Wyoming county failed to nominate Judiciary conferees at their convention, recently held in Tunkhannock, to meet a like delegation of Sullivan county to select a candidate for President Judge for this district. It evidently was an oversight on the part of the convention.

By a recent act of the Legislature the County Commissioners have the sole power to control the valuation of dogs at their discretion, and by virtue of this act the Commissioners can lawfully value a male dog not less than 50 cents and not more than $2; a female not less than $1 and not more than $4. Any individual feeding or harboring a dog must pay the tax of such dog and consequently is responsible for all damages done by said dog.

The newly elected Town Council met and organized on Friday last. Officers elect were: President, T. J. Keeler, Secretary, J. H. Spencer. They will appoint a supervisor at their next meeting, which will take place on the 2nd day of April.

General Benjamin F. Tracy, of Brooklyn, N. Y., ex-Secretary of the Navy, is favorably mentioned by the Republicans of the State of New York, as their next candidate for Governor. It is claimed for him that he would be a sure winning candidate.

J. W. Aumiller, proprietor of the Cliff Hotel at Eagles Mere, will give a grand opening of his house, on Friday, April 30th, 1894, to which all are cordially invited. John has erected a large dancing platform for the occasion near by the Hotel stand. Remember the date and don't fail to be there.

A Hungarian was drowned in Jennings' mill pond at Lopez on Monday evening of last week. He walked out on some logs for the purpose of driving a couple of geese, owned by him, off of the pond, and accidentally slipped into the water with the above results. The geese are still living.

St. Patrick's Day in the morning was a perfect day and a goodly number of our young men paraded the streets with green ribbon attached to their coat lapels in memory of the favorite flower of Ireland, "the shamrock." Frank Gallagher said he wouldn't wear the shamrock, because he didn't want the people to know he was Irish.

Owing to the increase of our trade in the way of advertising, we are considering the advisability of enlarging our sheet to an eight column paper. Our circulation has doubled in the past two years and should we conclude to enlarge this spring, we shall not cease moving until we have recorded on our subscription book 2,000 subscribers.

At the close of the county convention on Monday, B. W. Lewis, the nominee for president judge, was called upon for a speech. He was not in the court room at the time and was sent for, but through misunderstanding the convention was adjourned before his arrival.—Tunkhannock Republican.

New Albany Depot Burned.

The State Line and Sullivan Railroad depot at New Albany was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The fire started in a small house at the rear of the depot occupied by a family by the name of Chapman, and communicated to the depot, and both buildings with most of their contents were destroyed. A new depot will be erected immediately.

Result of the Wyoming County Republican Convention.

At the Wyoming county Republican convention held at Tunkhannock Monday, B. W. Lewis was named for judge, and Myron B. Wright for congress, both by acclamation.

Mr. Lewis is a well-known and popular lawyer. He was born near Camptown, Bradford county, but has practiced at the Wyoming bar for many years.—Towanda Review.

The supper and social given by Laporte Lodge, I. O. O. F. last Friday evening was one of the pleasantest affairs of the year. Every provision for a good time had been made. The supper was a feast of good things. Oysters in four styles constituted the first course. The others were equally elaborate. A general good time was enjoyed by all present. Nearly one hundred attended as guests of the Odd Fellows.

Strey of the Gazette says this Judicial District has a Democratic plurality of 200 votes. We would suggest that Strey figure this out and give it to us in his next issue. It is an easy matter to say so, but figures you know won't lie. Of course you will commence with 40 majority for Haneock in Sullivan and 577 majority for Grow in Wyoming. "Where are you at?"

We clip the following from the Tunkhannock Republican. It is part of the proceedings of the Wyoming county Republican convention held in Tunkhannock recently:

"The nomination of a candidate for President Judge was next in order and W. H. Jackson, of Monroe township, presented the name of Bradley W. Lewis, of Tunkhannock. There being no other nominations Mr. Lewis was nominated by acclamation.

The entire proceedings of the convention were most harmonious and the nomination of both B. W. Lewis and M. B. Wright for Congress gave general satisfaction throughout the county. Now that our convention has been held we look toward our neighbor, Sullivan county, hoping that she may see fit to assist us a little in the judicial matter by endorsing our candidate, who is in every way qualified for the position, and we hope with the aid of our Sullivan county neighbors, to elect him President Judge of this district at the election in November next.

THE FLAG DIDN'T COME DOWN

Excitement at Carbondale on St. Patrick's Day Caused by the Mayor's Order.

SCRANTON, March 18.—Great excitement was occasioned in the city of Carbondale yesterday afternoon when Mayor Hendricks ordered down the three Irish flags that were floating to the breeze in front of the Academy of Music.

The flags had been displayed by the manager of the house out of compliment to the Irish patrons who were celebrating St. Patrick's Day.

Manager Hearn, who owns the property, indignantly refused to accede to Mayor Hendricks' demand and referred him to Manager Davis, who had leased the Academy for a week, and whose company was giving a performance. Mr. Davis also refused, and the Mayor threatened to haul the flags down himself. He did not do so, however, but ordered a member of the police force to do it.

The policeman, an Irishman, would not obey the command, and the flags did not come down. The Mayor stated that a local order of the Patriotic Sons of America had complained to him about the matter.

Now that another St. Patrick's Day has passed with all of the talk attendant upon successful as well as unsuccessful attempts to float the Irish flag on public places, sensible Irishmen everywhere ought to take a firm stand against providing a cause for future talk of this character by advocating a discontinuance of efforts to have the Irish flag float on public buildings on St. Patrick's Day. Of course, there never was a cause for any serious objection to the floating of the green flag here, because as a matter of fact that flag is not the colors of any government.

It is honored by Irish Americans not as Englishmen honor the flag of their country nor as Frenchmen, Germans and Italians honor the colors that stand for their government. The honor they give it has never detracted from the love they have for the stars and stripes. But because the custom of floating the green flag and harp on public places has served to cause trouble and create in the minds of people who are anxious to doubt the loyalty of the sons of Erin who have assumed a place beneath the stars and stripes, Irishmen should gracefully and with good sense content themselves with marching on St. Patrick's Day with only the flag so many of them so bravely fought to keep there floating above their heads. They would, if called upon to defend that flag, fight more bravely to keep it in an exalted position than some of the people who find an excuse for questioning their loyalty to it by their patriotic desire to march under the green on St. Patrick's Day. But they should follow the promptings of their loyal hearts and remove from the minds of every doubting Thomas even the semblance of a cause for questioning their loyalty to the colors of a government where so many of their race enjoy life and liberty, and in a country where so many of them are among the most distinguished of a great people.

The Cherry Election Contest.

The election contest case in Cherry township over the office of Collector has begun. The petition was filed in the Prothonotary's office on March 15th, 1894. The parties concerned are Henry Huffmaster and Frank Middendorf. Huffmaster, according to the count of the election board, was elected by 1 vote. The vote standing 209 and 208 in Huffmaster's favor. Middendorf claims that there were 13 or 14 votes thrown aside in the Bernice precinct that should have been counted, in which event he would have received a majority, hence the contest.

The petition is signed by the following tax payers, viz:

- Frank Middendorf, P. J. Crawley, M. J. Ryan, A. J. Hoyle, E. J. Dwyer, G. W. Wick, S. Bentley, Thomas Donahue, John Donovan, Dan Donovan, A. Pennington, James Wood, Wm. Parr, Frank Quigley, Pat Bowles, Thos P. Leonard, Mike Gilligan, Jos. Gilligan, Tim Ryan, James D. Martin, P. J. Hope, James Waples, Mike Donovan, Thomas Murray, Lawrence Lowry, J. H. Thayer, Pat Hanson, Pat McGover, Wm. Dempsey, Mark Walsh, P. Connor, Jos. Heman, Chas E. Jackson, A. L. West, John Hildie, James D. Martin.

The attorneys employed in the case are: Wm. Maxwell, of Towanda, and E. J. Mullen of Dushore, for Middendorf; and E. M. Dunham of Laporte and J. H. Cronin of Dushore for Huffmaster. It is expected that the case will be heard at this May Term of court.

Messrs. Dunham, Ingham and Karns left for Williamsport on Wednesday. Their object was to talk business to those people down there who own stock in the Lake Mohonks Land Co. and urge improvements about the lake this spring.

A rare and curious experiment is being watched with great interest by New York physicians. About three weeks ago the wife of E. Clarence Haight, a Metropolitan millionaire, died of giving birth to a child three months premature. This tiny girl, weighing less than two pounds and measuring less than a foot in length, has been nurtured in an incubator. Although physicians had no faith in the experiment at first, they now believe the little heirless will live. She has gained two pounds and an inch and a half in length since birth.
