Mrs. M. J. O'Brien and daughter Miss Ella O'Brien, of Dushore, were visiting friends in Laporte, Sunday.

Dan has had no experience in the business, but we venture to say, that in a very short time his order book will compare favorably with those of older hands in the business. He is an honest young man and we bespeak that Mr. Jones will have no cause to regret the position he has tendered him.

Flour, Oats, Corn Hay and Chop, at prices that will induce you to buy at WALTER SPENCER & SON.

W. C. Mason administrator of the estate of R. M. Stormont, dec'd will dispose at public sale one large gray horse owned by said estate on Saturday April 14, 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m. Sale to take place at the residence of Robt. Stormont in Laporte boro.

Also three other horses and one yearling colt, wagons and harness. For further particulars see hand bill.

The first people of Williamsport, who are way up in "G," are arranging to give an entertainment, the proceeds of which will be given for charity. They have gone to lots of expense and trouble and were bent on a right royal good time, and had it not been for this announcement in their home daily papers, all would have been well. Here is the last gun that was fired:

THE MINISTERS OBJECT.

"At a meeting of the Methodist Preachers Association, held yesterday morning it was decided that from what they had heard and from the appearance of the posters, parts of the "Kirmess" are indecent and immoral.
