

the ladies of this city and county are circulating a petition to Con-gress praying that body to expel Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge The petition goes on to say that his presence in Congress is a dishonor circulation a short time, but it has been signed by some of the best women in central Kentucky, includwidow of Hayes' Minister to Bel-gium; Mrs. Cassius M. Clay, jr., wite of Lincoln's Minister to Russia, and the famous Southern abolition-ist; her daughter, Miss Laura Clay, the well known woman's rights speaker, who has addressed Congress on several occasions; Mes-dames James B, Clay, senior and junior, aunt and cousin respectively of Colonel Breckinridg's first wife ; Mrs. Frank B. Hunt, Mrs. B. W. Dudley, wife of the noted physician; Mrs. Catherine B. Acres and other