Judge Brubaker Creates a Sensation in Lancaster County Court.

LANCASTER, APRIL 16.—Judge Brubaker created a sensation to-day at the opening of the April term of Quarter Sessions by instructing the Grand Jury to bring in an indictment for conspiracy against ex-Prothonotary Lewis S. Hartman and Clerk John B. Miller. Judge Brubaker arraigned Prothonotary Hartman last December and bills were presented to the January Grand Jury, but the latter ignored the charge of conspiracy. Judge Brubaker declared in his charge to-day that he "was not satisfied that either sufficient or proper evidence was submitted to justify them in placing the defendants on their trial. I am convinced of this fact when I find not only a lack of names of witnesses on the indictment, who were within easy reach of the prosecution, but also that the names of two witnesses were endorsed on the indictment who should not have been heard, for the manifest reason that they were too closely connected with the interest of their employers to testify themselves. I refer to two of the Prothonotary's clerks.

"Ample testimony could have been procured outside of that office. The arraignment of those officials of itself, which is a court record, indicates plainly that the Prothonotary and his deputy were notified by the Judge of the court then presiding, in March, 1893, that he would not permit this species of pilfering from individuals. They have seen fit to openly and notoriously defy the warning by continuing to charge illegal fees from that day until the same of the arraignment by the court, which is evidenced in nearly if not all the cases disposed of in suits that have been brought and executions that have been issued ever since, which could not have been done unless these defendants had acted in concert for the benefit of the Prothonotary or for their joint benefit, to the prejudice of the public or the oppression of individuals.

CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY.

"This is criminal conspiracy, and the case if properly worked up can easily be made out. A sense of duty of higher obligation than any human consideration imperatively demands that the Court should unhesitatingly give you its opinion, so that there may be no miscarriage of justice in this case. Public justice would be a wicked mockery if we permitted our clerks to go unpunished for crimes committed in the temple of justice. I therefore feel constrained to direct the District Attorney to draw up a new indictment and submit it to you. The case of which I speak is one of notorious character. There is not a member of the bar who does not know that the Prothonotary and his deputy have defied the warning of the Court given to them in March, 1893, and from that time on illegal fees have been charged. Should the District Attorney send in the proper witnesses, you will have no difficulty in finding a true bill on the conspiracy count."

ROTTEN CLEAR THROUGH. When Judge Brubaker had concluded District Attorney Franklin said he had personally examined all the witnesses called before the former Grand Jury, and endeavored to bring out all the facts. The Judge replied that he had made a mistake in calling the Prothonotary's clerks to which the District Attorney replied that their testimony "fully corroborated everything that was contained in Judge Brubaker's arraignment at that time." The colloquy became somewhat warm, being closed by Judge Brubaker with the remark that the Prothonotary's office was rotten clear through.

Clerk of Quarter Sessions M. S. Fry, and ex-Clerk, B. F. W. Urban, to-day presented to the Court their answers to the arraignment by the Court on March 6, when the Court charged them with making improper returns to the State, and with charging illegal fees. The answers disclaim any intentional violations of law. The Court took the papers.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—A special from Atlanta, Ga., to the Post says: A political sensation which has stirred the entire state is the declaration of Judge James K. Hines, that he will hereafter act with the Populists, leaving the Democratic party. This is taking as meaning beyond all question that Judge Hines will be the nominee of that party for Governor, as it is known that the leaders are for him.

It is not the mere fact of one man's defection that has created such a sensation but it is the defection of a man of Judge Hines' unquestioned ability, popularity and conservatism. The Judge has a number of times been a member of the Legislature from Washington county. For several terms he was the presiding Judge of the Middle Circuit and he was a prominent candidate for United States Senator at the time Senator Gordon was elected.

In an interview Judge Hines charges that the Democracy has shown itself a party of promises only, and that he believes the Populist party will prove one of practice.

Depew of New York, is in politics again and possibly may accept the Republican nomination for Governor of N. Y.

STRELETON, Pa., April 16, 1894.

There is a marked improvement in business in this borough, especially at the Pennsylvania Company's work. All the departments are running and making good time. The company, in all probability, will go out of the hands of the receivers to-day. The company has been reorganized and no doubt will resume its old time activity. The Citizens Electric Railway Company are making rapid progress toward completing a continuous line between Harrisburg and Oberlin. The heavy fall of snow last week caused considerable damage to fruit and shade trees. I will relate here the great snow storm of April 14th, 15th and 16th, 1894, when it ceased there was 20 inches of snow; birds perished in the woods by thousands. Your correspondent then resided in Fairfield, Lycoming county. Our town is remarkably healthy at present, although we were visited with a long siege of diphtheria in the fore part of last winter. Hill, of New York, seems to have appeared as a mountain and slid down on Cleveland and the democratic party, like an avalanche. But in November there will be a greater sliding down on democracy, and it will not be done by speeches, but by ballots that speak louder than words. Then Cleveland will be knocked out worse than Mitchell was by Corbett. Coxe and his army of tramps and cranks, who do not want employment, are winding toward Washington for no purpose whatever, only to clean that element from the west into the eastern part of the country, and Coxe is getting paid for it. The REPUBLICAN is welcomed here every Saturday and some times on Friday. Success to it, and may it be welcomed by thousands of subscribers.
