Mr. E. A. Herring of Old Virginia State and who was employed by Gaynor, Son & Co. contractors, as chief engineer along the line of the W. & N. B. last summer, spent the early part of this week with friends in Laporte. Mr. Herring is interested in the mining business in Va. and came up to purchase some of the tools used in grading the W. & N. B. R. R. and formerly owned by Gaynor, Son & Co., but now in the hands of trustees-Dunham and Mc-Farlane.

Herman A. Knipe of Hughes ville and Peter Bisel of Williamsport, will be the conductors on the through trains over the W. & N. B. and State Line & Sullivan roads. The engineers will be Sam Allen of Hughesville and John Faust of Towanda. Allen has served a good many years in the railroad service. He served with the Reading Road for over fifteen years and quit because his health would not permit him to make the long runs required on that road. Faust is an old L. V. employe and is spoken of as a trustworthy and competent engineer.

The dwelling of A. G. Little near Forksville, with all of its contents, was burned to the ground on Tuesday nocn. The heavy gale of wind carried the sparks some distance from the house and ignited a large wagon shed, granery and other outbuilding, which were also consumed in the blaze. The fire originated from a defective flue. Loss about $1,000. Mr. Little's father and mother who are advanced in old age and who resided in the same dwelling, are also made homeless by the destructive fire, We are not prepared to say whether or not there vas any insurance on the buildings. We sincerely hope there was.

Ambrose Farrell of Lopez, made Laporte a call on Tuesday. Amby drove a dandy turn-out. He went on down the line. Guess he was looking up his political friends. Mr. Farrell and Mr. Streby are looking for honors at the hands of the Sullivan County Democracy.
